

OF HUMOR

Did your watch stop when it dropped on the floor? Asked one man of his wife only. "Did you think it would go through?"

The Only Time.
"What is a honeymoon, pa?"
"A honeymoon, my son, is that time in a man's life when his wife is really supplied with all she wants to wear."

The Young Genius.
Mother—"Willie, how is it that no matter how quiet and peaceful things are, as soon as you appear on the scene trouble begins?"
Willie—"I guess it's just a gift, mother."

Must be Dr. Cupid.
"I don't like your heart action," said the doctor, applying his stethoscope.
"You've had some trouble with angina pectoris, haven't you?"
"You're partly right, doc," answered the young man, sheepishly. "Only that ain't her name."

Corrected.
"James, have you whispered to-day without permission?"
"Oh, Wunst!"
"Larry; should James have said wunst?"
"No'm; he should have said twict."

At the Laundry.
Laundryman—"I'm sorry, but one of your shirts is lost."
Customer—"But I paid for having it laundered."
Laundryman—"That's all right. We did it up before we lost it."

Truth Will Out
Ethel (to her dearest friend—"I put my foot in it so dreadfully when Edwin proposed. I meant to say, 'This is so sudden!' you know, but I was so flustered that instead I exclaimed, 'At last.'"

Always Supplied.
The son of a well-known physician loves to "play doctor."
The little fellow makes the rounds of neighboring houses, inquiring as to the health of the inmates. Usually he has with him an assortment of dolls—his "patients" in lieu of larger ones.
Recently he called at a home and asked, "Anybody sick here?"
He was answered in the negative.
"Oh, well," he said with professional nonchalance, producing two of his dolls. "guess I'll leave a couple of babies, anyway!"

"Cascarets" To-night for Liver, Bowels
You're bilious! You are headachy, constipated, your eyes burn, skin is yellow; your stomach is sour, gassy, upset. No wonder you feel miserable. You need a thorough physic with "Cascarets" to-night to cleanse the stomach of sour, fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated poison in the bowels. Get a 10-cent box now and let "Cascarets" straighten you out by morning.

Plain Facts for Stomach Sufferers
Digested food makes us strong, vigorous, healthy. Dyspepsia are invariably weak and ailing. All they need to make them strong and well is the power to digest food, and that is just what Nether Seigel's Syrup gives. It helps the stomach, liver and bowels to do their work efficiently. Sold in 50c. and $1.00 bottles in drug stores.

Gigantic Armored Mammal of Past Ages.
Surely the strangest mammal that ever lived was the "glyptodon," which carried its house with it, being encased in a mighty shell somewhat resembling that of a turtle but far more massive. The carapace, furthermore, was almost dome-shaped, and all parts of the creature's body, including even the tail, were heavily armored.
This remarkable animal seems to have been exclusively American, and until recently none of its fossil remains had been discovered north of the Rio Grande, barring a few fragments of bones. A big one was dug up recently, however, not far from Tucson, Ariz., by Dr. Gidley, a paleontologist of the United States National Museum. It is a complete skeleton, representing a specimen which in life must have weighed about half a ton.
The glyptodon was so sluggish that a mile a month must have been just about its best racing speed. It fed on herbage, presumably, and possessing no weapon of defense, would have been easy prey for carnivorous enemies if its armor had not afforded adequate protection. When attacked it had only to withdraw its head, which was covered by a heavy bony sheath, and to retract its legs beneath the shell, in order to become invulnerable. The assailant might as well tackle a boulder.
The specimen found in Arizona probably lived not less than 1,000,000 years ago. Its tribe (contemporary with the megatherium or giant sloth) has no descendants to-day, but is represented in a way by the modern armadillo, which is likewise an armored mammal and one of the curiosities of nature.

Might Have Been Worse.
An Irishman named Pat (uncommon name, that) was making a wood pig-stye, when he missed a nail and hit his thumb, breaking it.
After having it wrapped up he met one of his friends, who naturally asked him what he had been doing.
"Sure," said Pat, "I hit me thumb with a hammer. It's bad now, but I'd had no thumb left at all if I'd been striking with both hands."

Health is a jewel, the most wonderful beautifier known to man. Guard it, wear it, love it, because without it, life is so? Is the dearest, truest gift you own.

They wore no high-heeled pumps any more—
So Darwin says— I guess he knows.

If they had lost their hold, you see, And toppled down from out their tree, Wild animals were all around To grab them when they hit the ground, With teeth all primed and set to gnash Through cutlet, steak or fresh ape hash— Careers were ended with a crash!

But those who wakened with a start Did not become Ape a la carte. They locked their toes in tighter hold— The fit survivors, we are told, Lived to become both gray and old.

We dream of falling, white in bed; We waken with a start instead. The instinct that our forebears know Is handed down to me and you. We might have missed the whole Big Show If Grandpa Ape, so long ago, Had not waked just in time, you know. —Violet McDougal.

J. HALEY, Syracuse, N.Y.

"I'm feeling like a new man since Tanlac soothed and toned up my stomach and for the first time in forty years can eat a hearty meal and suffer no distress afterwards," was the remarkable statement of Patrick J. Haley, 107 Prospect Ave., Syracuse, N.Y., a well-known iron and steel worker.

"Only those who have had stomach trouble in a bad form can know what I suffered during all those years. I was almost a nervous wreck, too, and for years I didn't know what it was to get a good sound sleep at night. I got new life and energy from each dose of Tanlac and now I'm a well and happy man instead of a sick and miserable one, as I was for so many years. I'll vouch for the merit of Tanlac at any time."
Tanlac is sold by leading druggists everywhere. Advt.

"Have used Minard's Liniment in my home, hunting and lumber camps for years, and consider it the best white liniment on the market. I find that it gives quick relief to minor ailments, such as sprains, bruises and all kinds of wounds, and it is a great remedy for coughs, colds, etc. which cannot be cured when long-standing and troublesome during the winter and spring months. It could not be without MINARD'S LINIMENT and cannot recommend it too highly."
