Much Activity Is Shown Around the Sub at Baltimore.

(By Damon Runyon)
Baltimore, Md., July 25.— The green snout of the Deutschland was till nuzzling the pier at the foot of Andre street last night, but a succession of events during the day brought a thrill of expectancy to the patient watchers along the odorous water ront of Locust Point. Among other things the boat was partially submerged yesterday. It was Phones: Bell 1207, Auto-the machinery, but it gives rise to the belief that dawn may find the Deutschland tearing for open sea. So quietly was the submersion conducted that few of the sentinels on shore knew anything about it until it was all over. The test was apparently entirely successful. A thick coating of oil covered the surrounding water after the Deutschland started her machinery. The boat did not go clear under water, however. The green sides were never out of sight of the watchers.

Late yesterday the Tug Thomas F immins, which mothered the Deutschland into port two weeks ago, and which has been keeping watch and ward over her ever since, began doing a might lot of fussing around the little U-boat. With thick columns of black smoke spurting from its unnel, and with much grunting and coughing the Timmins backed and filed in and out of the nest of the Deutschland. It seemed to be clear-ing an opening for the exit of the submarine. Some of the old barges the Necker, the man who has had much to do with the handling of the affairs of the submarine since it has been in port.

A newspaper man approached the captain shortly after noon yesterday with a question. The newspaper man happened to know that the maritime We have moved to 367 Colborne law requires the sealing of the wira-with a full line of Fixtures. Come and less apparatus of the Deutschland after it has been in the port two weeks so that it cannot be used. The two weeks were up yesterday.

"Has the wireless of the U-boat been sealed yet," the reporter asked. "I don't know," said the captain hortly. He is a man of few words or newspaper folk.

"Why, that's a simple matter, do you really know that?" persisted the "I do not," said the captain. Just then a United States Governnent radio inspector stepped up and innounced: less sealed, but when the boat gets ready to leave you can call us up and we will see that you will get permission to unseal it."
