ATHENS JUNIORS AT BROCKVILLE.

On Saturday the junior members of the Athens Hockey Club journeyed to Brockville to play a return match with the Boy Scouts. Those who went in the lead left here at seven a.m., and the game was called shortly after their arrival at the Arena.

Brockville rung their only goal scored in the first period.

During the second period the Athens boys had things pretty much their own way and while the game was not entirely devoid of petty offences, on the whole it was a remarkably fast and clever exhibition of hockey. Second period ended two-one in favor of Athens.

The third period belonged entirely to the Athens team, the Scouts being outplayed and outskated. With seven more minutes to play, the Brockvilles endeavored to ring in a new man, and one that had not before appeared on the ice. According to the agreement between the two teams, all players must be seventeen and under, and if this new man was not over that age, he sure was a remarkable child, and his appearance was some deceptive.

However, the Athens boys left the ice over the deal, with the score four-one in their favor. It is to be regretted that Brockville cannot play straight hockey without rigging in a chance for an argument, as all the teams up in this line have found to their sorrow, the Athens seniors of other years included.

On the trip home the roads were very heavy and the horses, getting their feet badly tangled in a pitch-hole, broke away from the sleighs and the boys experienced the pleasure of a two-mile walk in a drizzly, cold rain. Thanks to the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. O'Donnell at the Tin Cap they are none the worse for their experience, and with the loan of a sleigh were able to proceed Sunday morning, reaching here before noon. The expenses of the junior local boys were arranged for out of the club treasury, Brockville paying for dinners and room, as our club did this for the Scouts when they played here.

Further particulars of this delightful driving party would no doubt be cheerfully given by those who made up the return load.

BUY RED CLOVER SEED EARLY.

Prime red clover seed was quoted at $35.55 per bushel on the Toledo market on the 6th instant. Toronto prices then ranged about $3.00 per bushel in advance of Toledo prices. Clover seed that would grade "prime" on the Toledo market could be bought in Toronto at $38.50, and, because of exchange conditions, delivered at United States points at approximately $38.00 per bushel, or about $2.50 less than the Toledo price. The money situation, short supplies, and an earlier demand in the United States will explain the heavy exports of clover seed.

The price of red clover seed has advanced almost $14.00 per bushel on the Toledo market since May last. The world supply would not be sufficient to meet normal requirements. In these circumstances, Canadian farmers who delay the purchase of their red clover seed requirements until seeding time may be unable to obtain supplies at any price.

WHAT THE WORLD NEEDS.

Editor, Farmers' Sun:

What the world needs to know more than anything else is that the law of fellowship of man with man is as obligatory and as inexorable as any other natural law of the universe. All the universal laws of God are beneficent to man when understood and subdued and controlled. As witness gravity, heat, electricity, light and fellowship when obeyed. Then think of the result of disobeying any of these laws.

Consider now that every man from creation is subject to that law of fellowship. Man did not obey that law and evil results naturally followed, as they do follow from disobedience to any other law of nature.

Every man has an inward impulse to do right and be brotherly to his fellowman as children of a common heavenly Father. The ten commandments only emphasized that natural law of fellowship, and it really is summed up in the command, "Thou shalt fellowship thy neighbor as thyself," which was the burden of the call of the prophets and the message of Jesus and the apostles.

The gospel of the kingdom of Jesus Christ is the fact that the spirit of the living Christ will enable every man who is really willing to do the will of God, which is to fellowship other men.

All the law and gospel is directed therefore to persuade man to be willing to practice fellowship of others. This is all that God requires of man and all that humanity needs to fulfil the Lord's prayer of "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." To love thy neighbor as thyself is simply, to fellowship them. This law is as old as creation, and shall stand as long as the world stands.

"Here is the path. Here is the solution for all your problems. Here is the balm for all the wounds of the world. Here is the sunshine which will make the moral desert blossom as the rose."

The Bible is plain as to the path of fellowship of others. "The wayfarer man, though a fool, shall not enter therein." And it is utterly impossible to avoid it without creating evil.

J. A. WEBSTER.

Union, Ont., Jan., 1920.
