Wm. Taggart's Kidney Disease Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Well-known Tilbury East Farmer Tells How Easily He Got Rid Of His Trouble.

Tilbury, Ont., July 31.—(Special).—Mr. Wm. Taggart, a well-known and highly esteemed farmer of Tilbury East, tells of his remarkable cure of long standing Kidney Disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"For about four or five years," says Mr. Taggart, "I was a sufferer from Kidney Trouble, and the scores of medicines I used gave me no relief. I was forced to get up three or four times every night and my life was simply miserable."

"At last I started to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and I got relief from the first. After using two boxes I was completely cured, and you can bet I was a happy man. I cannot speak too highly of Dodd's Kidney Pills."

All urinary complaints are caused by Diseased Kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure the kidneys and therefore always cure urinary complaints.

Keep Your Brain Busy.
Dr. Duke, the leading English brain specialist, says the trouble with most brains is that they are not kept busy enough. The brain ought never rest except during sleep, and most persons take too much of that. A good, healthy circulation of blood would be maintained in the brain if professional men would relax themselves from their intellectual pursuits, not in golf, but in chess problems and scientific investigations.

Imitation.
Well—it's an opal ring Mr. Chesapeake gave me. Belle (examining it)—Er—do you like it? Nell—Yes, but there's that old superstition, you know. I'm afraid it will bring me bad luck. Belle—Don't worry. The worst this could bring you would be an imitation of bad luck.

THROW MEDICINES TO THE DOGS.

At best they are unpleasant, often useless. You have some disease of the nose, throat or lungs. Doctors would call it bronchitis, asthma or catarrh. The common root of these diseases is germ or microbe irritation. Catarrh is not only destroys disease germs, it does more, it heals diseased and inflamed tissue. The disease is not only cured, but its return is forever prevented by using Catarrhazone, which is splendid also for colds, coughs and irritable throat. Remember, you inhale Catarrhazone—Nature's own cure—use no other but Catarrhazone—it's the best catarrh cure made.

A Serious Moment.
"Yes," said the married man meditatively, "when you see a woman hanging out a line of clothes and the line slips and lets the blessed lot down in the mud, that, my boy, is the psychological moment in which to leave that woman alone."

Hard Ones Too.
Little Willie—What's the name of the fellow who calls on yer sister? Little Johnny—I don't know yet. Pop calls him something different every time he comes.

STRAINED BACK AND SIDE.
"While working in a saw mill," writes C. E. Kenney, from Ottawa, "I strained my back and side so severely I had to go to bed. Every movement was a torture. I tried different oils and liniments, but was not helped till I used Nerviline. Even the first application gave considerable relief. In three days I was at work again. Other men in the mill use Nerviline with tremendous benefit, too." An honest record of nearly fifty years has established the value of Polson's Nerviline.

Cherry Pie.
For a cherry pie stone the cherries and take three heaping cups of the fruit and set on the back of range until scalding hot; remove and let cool. Then add a cup of sugar with a tablespoonful of flour mixed through it. Line a plate with rich crust, add the fruit and cover with a top crust. Bake in a moderate oven.

Onion Omelet.
Boil until soft a dozen medium sized onions, chop, season with salt, pepper and butter. Add half a pint of sweet milk, three beaten eggs. Mix well and bake in a quick oven fifteen minutes.

Putting food into a diseased stomach is like putting money into a pocket with holes. The money is lost. All its value goes for nothing. When the stomach is diseased, with the allied organs of digestion and nutrition, the food which is put into it is largely lost. The nutriment is not extracted from it. The body is weak and the blood impoverished. The pocket can be mended. The stomach can be cured. That sterling medicine for the stomach and blood, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, acts with peculiar promptness and power on the organs of digestion and nutrition. It is a positive cure for almost all disorders of these organs, and cures also such diseases of the heart, blood, liver and other organs, as have their cause in a weak or diseased condition of the stomach.

To put off doing a good turn means a desire not to do it.

Use Lever's Dry Soap (a powder) to wash woollens and flannels,—you'll like it.

MISS FLORENCE RHETT.

Household Manager and Social Secretary For J. P. Morgan.

Miss Florence Mason Rhett of New York is household secretary of the great financier J. Pierpont Morgan and is one of the highest salaried as well as one of the hardest worked women in the United States. Those who ought to know say her salary is $10,000 a year.

Miss Rhett has been in Mr. Morgan's employ as household manager and social secretary to the family for six years. She relieves Mrs. Morgan, who dislikes household responsibility, of the care of her magnificent homes in New York, West Point and London. Her word is absolute in each establishment. She engages and discharges the servants and purchases all the supplies. She is not restricted as to expenses. Miss Rhett is said to be a relative of Mrs. Morgan. She is a descendant of the old Rhett family of South Carolina, the members of which have long been socially prominent in Charleston. She is a tall, large, distinguished looking woman, like Mrs. Morgan and Miss Anne Morgan.

Managing the household affairs is the least of Miss Rhett's duties. She takes charge of all the correspondence of the Morgan home, including all letters dealing with Mr. Morgan's multifarious charitable affairs in connection with churches and hospitals, his relations with the Metropolitan Museum and other institutions of art and learning, his personal correspondence about his yachting interests and the various clubs with which he is connected. All appeals for aid come under Miss Rhett's eye, and her decision upon them is usually final, as that decision is only tendered after she has made a rigid investigation as to the worthiness of the cause.

Mrs. Morgan and Miss Morgan receive almost as many begging letters as Mr. Morgan does. These also are turned over to Miss Rhett. She also acts as social secretary, replying to and sending out invitations.

As a connoisseur in art Miss Rhett is nearly always engaged in looking up something in connection with Mr. Morgan's purchases in that field. If somebody writes offering to sell him a rare piece of china or a painting he sends Miss Rhett to look at it. Her judgment goes a long way with him in such matters. This will give an idea of the wide range of Miss Rhett's duties, and though her salary is large, she earns it.—New York Press.

Feeding the Baby.

This is a question of vital importance and much concern to every mother. The time comes when something besides a purely milk diet is desirable, but what, that the little stomach can digest, will furnish proper nourishment? It is often necessary to change from an entire milk diet when, during the teething period, baby refuses food or does not seem to relish what is taken as formerly.

The old fashioned oat flake, properly cooked, is one of the first things to be given with safety, and the little ones enjoy this. In lieu of a double boiler, if yours is too large, get a small handi basin that will fit in the top of your teakettle, using the cover of the latter for the dish. To a cup of boiling water add a pinch of salt and one tablespoonful of oat flake. Cook over your boiling kettle one hour or more (a thorough cooking is very essential). You will have a jelly with very little solid matter. Add milk, and it is ready for baby. A little sugar may be used, but do not make the common mistake of thinking everything for baby must be sweetened and later wonder why when he is hungry plain bread and butter without a sugar dressing is not acceptable. Gradually increase the amount of oats used until you have accustomed the little stomach to taking it as ordinarily prepared for breakfast.

Bread and milk is readily assimilated and easy to prepare. Use the entire wheat bread if you can get it. Place a slice in a saucer and pour over it the warmed milk. Crushing between the tines of a fork does away with chunks and will not make the bread sticky as crumbling between the fingers is apt to do.

Saving Irons.

Many housekeepers are annoyed by their flatirons becoming rusty from dampness in the cupboard. This may be easily prevented. Before putting the irons away after the ironing is finished rub them with a little warm grease on a piece of soft paper and wrap them in thick brown paper. When they are to be used again dip them into very hot water with a little soda dissolved in it and wipe them dry before putting them over the fire to heat. When taken from the fire for the ironing have some brown paper on the table with a little powdered bath brick on it and rub the iron on this. Have a piece of paraffin tied in a muslin bag, rub this lightly over the iron and then polish it on a soft cloth. This almost takes longer in the telling than the actual work does, but the process makes the iron delightfully smooth and easy to use, and consequently one may get over the clothes more quickly. Flatirons frequently receive very little care, and snowy white clothes too often are spoiled by them. They should always be immaculately clean.—House-keeper.

YOU ARE AILING.

Not quite sick,—but robbed of ambition to work—find it hard to think of dying, but bad enough for life to be pretty dull. There is a remedy—Ferrozone—that quickly lifts that half dead feeling. Gracious, but Ferrozone makes you feel good; it sharpens the dulled appetite, makes it keen as a razor.

BLOOD? Ferrozone makes lots of it, the rich nourishing kind that vitalizes the whole body. You'll be wonderfully quickened, immensely strengthened, feel hearty and vigorous after using Ferrozone. Buoyant health, surplus vigor and reserve energy all come from this great restorative. Fifty cents buys a box of fifty tablets at all dealers.

The Lot's Advantages.
Advertising Expert—I've written the praises of all these lots but one. I'm afraid you can't sell that one. Real Estate Agent—What's the matter with it? Expert—Why, it's on an almost perpendicular hillside. Agent—Call attention to its wonderful drainage facilities.

No More Work.
Hicks—I suppose Dremmer is still pottering alone at his inventions. Wicks—Well, he has actually perfected a great labor saving scheme at last. Hicks—You don't say. Wicks—Yes; he's going to marry Miss Roxley.

PURGATIVES ARE DANGEROUS.

They gripe, cause burning pains and make the constipated condition even worse. Physicians say the ideal laxative is Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butterbur; they are exceedingly mild, composed only of health-giving vegetable extracts. Dr. Hamilton's Pills restore regular movement of the bowels, strengthen the stomach and purify the blood. For constipation, sick headache, biliousness and disordered digestion no medicine on earth makes such remarkable cures as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Try a 25c. box yourself.

Power to reason well sometimes is only the force of habit.

I bought a horse with a supposedly incurable ringbone for $30. Cured him with $1.00 worth of MINARD'S LINIMENT and sold him in four months for $85.00. Profit on Liniment, $54.00.
