The bridge near Fiddick's farm,
between South Wellington and Na-naimo River was destroyed from the bush fires in that district last week.
The loss amounts to about $1,200.

The date of Thanksgiving Day has been set by the secretary of state for Monday, Oct. 8.

Miss S. Morris of Victoria has returned home after spending a few days with Miss Janet Waugh Selby Street.

A telegram from the Military Department last Sunday evening conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Private James Sharp in action on the 16th of August. Private Sharp was well known in Ladysmith, where he had resided for a number of years. He was born in Glasgow, Scotland, 39 years ago, and went through the Boer war, retiring as a sergeant.

Mr. Robert Simpson, of Ladyssmith, had the misfortune to have his barn burned to the ground on Sunday morning. He lost a cow and other animals besides a quantity of chickens. He had a couple of hundred dollars insurance, but his loss will be considerably more than that amount.

Wholesale WINE and LIQ-UOR Merchants

Prohibition Comes Into Effect October First.
After that date liquors for individual use can only be imported from a point outside British Columbia, which means an added expense for freight and express charges, etc. This contingency can be met for some time ahead by providing yourself with a reasonable stock before prohibition sets in. For this purpose, we are putting up an offer to the public:

PROHIBITION HAMPERS

Consisting of—
2 Bottles Canadian Rye $1.50 3.00
2 Bottles W. M. Special Whisky 1.75 3.50
2 Bottles Brandy 1.75 3.50
2 Bottles Port Wine 1.00 2.00
4 Bottle Jamaica Rum (33 overproof) . . 2.00 2.00
4 Bottle Melcher's 1.75 1.75
1 Bottle Blackberry Brandy 1.25 1.25
1 Bottle Claret50 .50
12 Bottles $17.50

Our Price, $15.00

Orders accompanied by cash will be filled promptly. Stocks are not very large, and we reserve the right to return money for any orders which we cannot fill.

Extract from Vancouver Province, Aug. 22, 1917:

LIQUOR PRICES AGAIN ADVANCE

Jump 10 to 12 per cent. and another Increase expected in a Few Days.

Private purchasers of liquor who are holding back in the hope of buying high-class whiskies at slaughter prices just before prohibition comes into effect on October 1st will probably be disappointed. Imported liquors took a 10 to 12 per cent. advance within the past few days and are due for another increase with in the next two or three weeks it was intimated today.
