POOR DOCUMENT

QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE, GAGETOWN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26. 1899.

50 Y

DESIGNS

COPYRIGHTS &C

iustrated weekly. Largest cir-scientific journal. Terms, $3 a hs, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.

& CO. 36 1Broadway, New York

that of all the preparations of Cod Liver Oil in the market is the most satisfactory and getting the System. Made from the Most approved formula

after years of experience.

For Sale by Dealers Everywhere.

MANUFACTURER OF

Brander.

EMUSION

scientific American.

Why is it

WILEY'S

Because

Wm.

te. cover-d courses, course is telligent diplomas

the Isaac ctice the its exclu-ues to Address.

& SON

eys

othy

tario Kinds)

Rus-

Early

ock or

. Oat

ies,

TY.

cton.

ley,

CH,

Goods.

JOHN.

D FOR

N. B.

Sun.

a Year.

per for

nd other

Province

Saturday

Machines

vention o

l the Time

S PER YEAR

abilty of it , it has n

asting Ma-n new type

acreased in

application

NY, Ltd.

John, N. B.

FED.

inting busi-

TEWART

o thank the nd for their ears he was ise business the contin-he general rry on the name. She ndebted to eir accounts fallow.

CRS,

Tools,

etc.

Sun

E,

Vinchester pairing of facturer of sses. Per-Made to

of Queens or any Constab within the said County, GREETING:

Whereas Leonard T. Nase, a creditor of William Bates, late of the Parish of Cam-bridge, in the County of Queens, deceased hath filed a petition praying that Letters of Administration of the estate and effects of Administration of the estate and effects of the said William Bates may be granted to him in due form of law. You are therefore required to cite the heirs, next of kin, creditors and all others interested to appear before me at a Court of Probate to be held at my office, in the Parish of Gagetown, within and for the said County of Queens, on WEDNESDAY THE TENTIH DAY OF MAY NEXT, at the hour of three o'clock in the afternoon to show cause if any they have why the prayer of the said petition should not be complied with as prayed for. Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court, this 25th day of March, A. D. A. W. EBBETT,

Proctor

Judge of Probate in and for Queens County JOHN W. DICKIE, Registrar of Probates for Queens County. A. W. BAIRD, ESQ.,

In the Probate Court

Of Queens County. To the Sheriff of the County of Queens or any Constable within the said County. it is one half Pure Cod Liver Oil L. S. full dose of Hopophosphites, readily taken by children as well as adults.

REETING Whereas Jonathan T. Keirstead a credi Cures Coughs, Colds, and Builds up

Whereas Jonathan T. Keirstead a credi-tor of Robert Sargeson, late of the Parish of Johnston in said County, deceased, hath filed a petition praying that Letters of Administration of the estate and effects of the said Robert Sargeson be granted to him in due form of law. You are therefore required to cite the heirs next of kin, creditors and all others interested to appear before me at a Court of Probate to be held at my office, at Gage-town, within and for the said County of Queens, on WEDNESDAY, the TWENTY SIXTH DAY OF APRIL NEXT, at the hour of three o clock in the afternoon to show cause if any they have why the show cause if any they have why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. Given under my hand and the Seal the said Court this twenty-fourth day March A. D. 1899. A. W. EBBETT. of Probate in and for Queens County.

Literature. AGAINST WIND AND TIDE

People always shrugged their shoulders when Mark Lamson was mentioned, and usually the expressive gesture was followed by some deprecating remark.

"Comes of bad stock," old Judge Lennox would say, in his pompous, dictatorial manner. "All the Lamsons were worthless, and Mrs. Lamson was a Hodge energy stimulated, every hope brightened. and everybody knows what they are." The house in which Mark was born. and where he scrambled up to manhood, to answer his own, for there was all the was a large farmhouse, tumbling to pieces humility of true passion in that young shabbiness. His father and mother were never sarcastic over the clashing of his their indolence suggested. ly in some remote ancestor there was a mixture of energy, resolution and ability,

Mark no credit. It was in vain that the it is my duty to stay." principal of the Marysville High School declared that Mark had graduated with the best record he had ever given in the ation." school. It was useless for the lad himself to keep his life free from blame and earnestly endeavor to do his duty. Mark's. The village was essentially dem-Marysville could not forget he was a ocratic and the fact that Essie was the

"bad stock!"

with what they had.

whole mind to every detail which she had work with him, good horses, good cattle, carried to her, from the cutting of aprons good poultry, and will have a good house. for a neighbor's child to the gentle sooth- Papa, do you not think it will be a pity ing of an invalid's terror of death; from to leave the new house in the care of Mrs. her mothers preserving kettle to the com- Lamson to ruin as she has the old one? forting of a newly bereaved widow or Out doors the management is all left to orphan. "Nothing was too deep or solemn. Mark, and see what he has done. But a nothing too transient or trivial for that man cannot make a home comfortable tender, ever-active interest and sympathy alone; he needs a wife." that made her the idol of Maysville as "Well," said the Judge, "Let him well as the comfort of her home. have one, but not my child." As hour with Essie sent him back to "Still he loves me," said Essie; and I his uphill work full of new hope, every love him." "Pshaw!" said the Judge. He had not dared to set before her in marched out of the house. plain words the hope of winning her heart But, proud as he was, he was just; he loved Essie. He had felt prejudice influonce against Mark all his life; now he inside, with a roof always being, patched ardent heart, but he realized a new force, took pains to find out how much of hi against leaking, doors without locks, and a new spur to ambition. dislike was well-founded. Grudgingly with shaking hinges, windows that rattled Essie never sneered at him as the neighenough was the verdict given in Mark's in every wind, ceilings that dropped bors had become accustomed to doing; favor. Maysville did not willingly ac- Opening of Parliament. whenever a heavy wind shook the upper Essie never threw cold water over his knowledge it had been wrong in its estirooms, and furniture in the last stage of plans for improving the land; Essie was mate, and shouldered upon Mark all the faults of his ancestors. But the facts slatternly in dress, shiftless in household poverty and ambition. As he saw her were strong, and Judge Lennox found management, and the handsome, bright more frequently he ventured to tell her of himself confronted by them. Slowly, boy was over indulged or neglected as wider, wilder hopes, of some day escaping for he was not easily convinced, he took from the drudgery before him and making respect into the place of contempt, and But Mark Lamson inherited none of his way to a city where his education after a month of patient investigation, the leading traits of his parents. Probab- might give him a start in more congenial sent for Mark. occupation.

The interview was a frank, manly one "Father and mother seem to need me the old gentleman not being given to of which the Marysville gossips had never now," he told Essie one day; "they are half-hearted measures of any kind. He heard, and for which they certainly gave old and they have no other child. I think admitted his former prejudices, and heartily commended the young man who had "I think it is," was the quick reply; struggled so nobly.

"your mother could scarcely bear a separ-"When your new house is finished, said the Judge, "you will need a wife And in her home she found no one A man who can make his way against whose claim seemed to her stronger than wind and tide as you have deserves a happy home." The judge being a power in Maysville, Lamson, and his mother was a Hodge- only child and heiress of the richest and public opinion veered around as the enmost influential man in the place did not gagement was announced. The new As he passed from boyhood to man- prevent her from visiting Mrs. Lawson house being completed, Essie became hood, Mark began the unequal struggle upon terms of perfect equality. She was housekeeper, Mrs. Lamson gladly resignagainst fate and circumstances, that was fond of the weak animable woman. ed her feeble reign it was wonderful to dictated by his own energy. His father strongly as she censured, in her youthful see how the old people smartened up. had been unable to get bred from the strength, an easy-going indolence that They had no chronic objection to cleanlifarm by a lazy tillage that gave the bare made her home such a scene of confusion ness, if someone else did the necessary

ities for the table; his mother had a and discomfort; and, in her gentle, plea- work; and with Mark and Essie to govern

WANTED.

A competent Girl to do general house work. Apply to MRS. MORRIS SCOVIL. Meadowlands, Gagetown. April 10th, 1899.

Farm for Sale.

The Farm on Maquapit Lake, Queens County, known as Denton's Point, containing 80 acres. more or less, good dwel-ling House, barns and outhouses. Never failing well of water, good orchard and other fruit, farm well fenced with Cedar. For particulars apply to,

JACOB BALMAIN. Scotchtown, Queens Co., N. B.

Those entering

Fredericton Business College now, will have the splendid opportunity of attending the Evening Se House.

ATTENDANCE THIS YEAR,. LARGER THAN EVER.

Send for catalogue containing full pa

W. J. OSBORNE, Principa Fredericton. N. B

ESTABLISHED 1791.

. CHIPMAN SMITH. STRUAN BOBERTSON

A. Chipman Smith & Co.,

Druggists and Apothecaries, No. 1 City Market Building, Charlotte St.,

Saint John, N. B.

KEEP CONSTANTLY ON HAND

Fine Drugs and Chemicals, Materia

BOOTS AND SHOES, JOHN W. DICKIE, Registrar of Probates for Queens County GEO. W. FOWLER, Harness, Proctor for Petition Laragans, In the Probate Court Shoe Packs, Etc, Etc. of Queens County. To the Sheriff of the County of Queens or any Constable the said County, L. S. REPAIRING A SPECIALTY. Greeting: Whereas Andrew Donald, Executor of the last Will and Testament of Jane Hamilton, late of the Parish of Hamp-stend, in the County of Queens, deceased, hath filed an account of his Administra-tion and hath prayed to have the same passed and allowed and to have a distri-bution of the residuary estate made as provided by the terms of the Will of the said deceased. Freeting: Highest Cash Price Paid for HIDES, CALF AND SHEEP SKINS. ALL WORK GUARANTEED. GIVE US A CALL. You are therefore required to cite the heirs, legatees and all others interested to appear before me at a Court of Probate, to be held at my office, in the Parish of Gagetown, in said County within and for the said County of Queens, on SATUR-DAY, THE SIXTH DAY OF MAY NEXT, to show cause, if any they have why the said accounts should not be passed and allowed and the said decree made as prayed for. MAIN ST., GAGETOWN. T. F. Granville, IMPORTER AND DEALER IN Geenral Groceries and ro Fisions. made as prayed for. Flour, Meal, Tea, Sugar, Mo sses, Given under my hand and the seal of the said Court, this eleventh day of March A. D. 1899. Pork, Fish, Farming Imple ments, etc. 불 Country Produce consigned to me sold at highest market prices and quick return made. Consignments solicited. Produce of all kinds taken in exchange for goods. Judge of Probate in and for Queens County. JOHN W. DICKIE, Registrar of Probates. Robertson's Wharf, Indiantown. MANKS & CO., In the Probate Court 65 Charlotte St. Of Queens County. WE BUY RAW SKINS Wanted now-Bear, Raccoon and To the Sheriff of the County of L. S. Queens or any Constab the said County, Skunk. WE SELL GREETING : Whereas Robert F. Davis, a creditor of Henry J. DuVernet, late of the Parish of Gagetown, in the County of Queens, Farmer, deceased, hath filed a Petition in the said Court praying that Letters of Administration of the estate and effects of the said Henry J. DuVernet should be granted to him All kinds of Hats All kinds of Caps ! All kinds of Furs! COME AND TRY US. the said Henry J. Duvernet should be granted to him. You are therefore required to cite the heirs next of kin, creditors and all others interested to appear before me at a Court of Probate to be held at my office, in Gagetown, within and for said County of Queens, on SATURDAY, THE FIF-TEINTH DAY OF APRIL, next, at two islust in the afterneon to show cause if NOTICE! Trke notice that the firm of CHEYNE & PALMER, of Hibernia, Queens County, have dissolved partnership, and that all debts due said firm are to be paid to T. W. PALMER, who will still continue the o'clock in the afternoon, to show cause if any they have why Letters of Adminis-tration of the said estate and effects should not be granted to the said Robert F. Davis as prayed for. Dated at Hihernia, Queens Co., October 24th, 1898. Given under my hand and the seal of the said Court, this twenty-fifth day of February, A. D. 1899. Established 1862. John McCann. A. W. EBBETT, udge of Probate in and for the County of CHEAP GROCERIES CONSISTING OF JOHN W. DICKIE, Registrar of Probates. FLOUR, MEAL, FISH, SPICES OF ALL KINDS. TEA AND COFFEE. C. Cream Tartar, pure, 24c. per lb. TEA VERY LOW MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN CARRIACE, CARTS AND SLEIGHS. ALSO LIQUORS: (Separate Establishments) -ALS HEAD QUARTERS FOR-INDIANTOWN, N. B. Massey - Harris Farm Machinerv. Michael T. Coholan, -SUCH AS-PLOWS, HARROWS, REAPERS, Merchant Tailor, MOWERS, SOWERS, CULTI-VATORS. ETC., ETC. Notice. -All persons desiring to have 126 MILL STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. their sleighs or carriages repaired, painted or upholstered will kindly send same by boat. Orders will receive prompt at-A Full Line of Cloths in stock. tention. Orders by mail promptly attended to Perfect Fit Guaranteed, things, with only a vague, undisciplined like wine of life to his love. longing for improvement, met no encouragement at home or abroad. He tried to work that lies under my hand." he said obtain a situation but employers were shy "hard as it is! But, Essie," and his face about giving work to a Lamson; he met brightened, "do you know that already I but a cool reception at the Marysville have made the farm pay double what it social gatherings, having no knowledge of has ever done? Next spring I can hire how to repair his own linen or keep his help out of money saved from the sale of poor clothing even tidy. Boy-like, he last year's crop!" imagined a new suit and gay necktie were Essie, all eager interest, entered into all sufficient for a party, and did not heed the discussion of the capibilities of such a the frayed cuffs and broken collars at lot for turnips, such a patch for wheat. which the Marysville belles turned up the possibilities of a dairy, the best cultheir noses. But in spite of his father's lazy comment, his mother's fretful remonstrances German verbs. Mark Lamson, finding no employment But the horror and wrath of Judge outside, determined to see if the farm Lennox when, after two years of mild would not find him in work. "Oh, yes; do as you please," his father hands and asked permission to marry said. "But there is no money for new- Essie cannot be described. A. W. EBBETT, fangled fixings, and the land is about worn out. Plenty of it, to be sure, but dismissed Mark he returned to the bosom 'tain't worth shocks." So single-handed, Mark undertook the husband! The fellow wants my money work of bringing up the old farm. Early to spend after all his father and grand-JOHN R. DUNN. and late he toiled repairing fences, weed- fathers have squanderad." Proctor for Petitione ng, picking stones, rooting out dead ', De you really and truly think Mark stumps, preparing his land, without one is a spendthrift, papa?" Essie asked hand stretched out to help him, one voice quietly. Does he ever lounge about the to wish him success. Thomas, the only stores or taverns as Harry Carter and man his father employed, gave a surly re- James Raymond do?" fusal to aid, upon the ground that his regular routine of shiftless farming took the reluctant admission. all his time, and Mark patiently submitgambled, or even smoked?" ted. "N-o-I never did." He was twenty-one years old when into his dull monotonous life came a new "Ye-es." stimulus--a hope, bright as a vision and almost as baseless. He fell in love! He did not walk in cautiously, counting his steps and weighing his chances, but he fell in plump, sudden, hopelessly. gone.' There had been a warm discussion at the Judges about inviting Mark to the party that was to celebrate Essie's needs a wife." eighteenth birthday and her final return from boarding-school. But the pet of growled the Judge. the house had a will of her own and a lively recollection of Marks handsome said Essie. quietly, "that there is not a face and boyish gallantries, and insisted better farm in Green county than Lamupon his being invited. Mark, carrying son's." in his memory only a pretty little girl, found himself confronted by an undenisneered able beauty; a face to win homage in far more pretentious circles than Marysville JOHN R. DUNN. poasted of, and a general grace of manner builders over from B-, but they said Proctor for Petitioner. that none of the girls of his acquaintance the old house is beyond repair, and it had ever extented to him. SCOTT The touch of the soft little hand offered to greet him riveted the chains Essie's face had cast about Mark's heart, and made him her slave then and there, He had starved all his life for sympathy, and his first half-hour with Essie filled his longing heart with content. She remem- fight." bered all his boyhood aspirations; she entered into all his hopes and ambitions. The party was the beginning of an intercourse that stimulated anew every good resolution gave a new vigor to every hope of Mark's life. There are women who carry in their his playtime between school hours to own hearts an overflowing fund of sym- clear away stones. Nobody helped him. pathy, who can sink self utterly in the He was ridiculed, sneered at, discouraged presence of another person's interest, and on all sides. He had the poorest farm in bor's work without officiousness or of- He has put every spare dollar into books very small income that gave the three sant way, she endeavored to brighten that and direct, the Lamson farm and Lamson clothing of the poorest description, and home for Mark by suggestions and offers household so lost its old name that you Medica, Druggists' Sundries, both were in open-mouthed wonder that of help that fell to the ground. It was could scarcely find to-day in Maysville Dye Stuffs, Perfumery, Mark was not content as they had been, like fighting a feather hed to try to arouse one voice to repeat the old saying, Mark to dawdle through life, and "make out" Mrs. Lamson to any active improvement, Lamson came of bad stock." Soaps, Brushes Combs, Etc., Etc. and, rebuffed there, Essie could only help And Mark, struggling to attain better Mark by words of sympathy that were Farming in the CROTHERS BROS.' Maritime Provinces "And while I am here I must do the STEAM SAW MILL, Differs materially from farming in Ontario and the West. Conditions are different and our markets net the same. A product profit-able in those sections would not Upper Gagetown. pay the tillage here, and a sugges-tion valuable to a westner, would prove disastrous if followed by our farmers. In subscribing for a agricultural publication it is well to bear this in mind. There's Local Sawing done in First Class Shape and at Reasonable Rates. only one paper that treats of farm-150 CORDS 4-FOOT SLAB WOOD FOR ing from a Maritine Province standpoint. It is the SALE VERY LOW. ture for fowls-as if she had never studied Co-operative Farmer music or filled her head with French or PUBLISHED SEMI-MONTHLY AT Special Prices for Country Orders. SUSSEX, N. B. Sixteen handsomely printed pages ST. JOHN. every issue, with frequent illustra courtship, Mark took his fate in his Telephone, 222 a Office, 222 b Residence. tions of local interest, and oft times with several additional pages. Free sample copies from FOOT OF MAIN STREET. the publishers. "A Lamson!" he cried, when having BUILDING NO. 715, R. D. ROBINSON & CO., Undertaker, of his family. "A Lamson for Essie's SUSSEX, N. B. COLWELL'S STEAM GRIST MILL. JPPER JEMSEG. "I-well, no, I never saw him," was This Mill is well equipped with all the modern machi ery. Grain of all kind "Did you ever hear that he drank on Ground and Gracked at Short Notice General Hardware. "Is he not regular at church?" full line of Agent for Sherwin-Williams' Paint Cracked Grain and Heavy "But, oh, Essie!" struck in Mrs. Lennox, "what shabby, half-washed shirts he Feed always in Stock, at SPECIALTIES : wears, and his fingers are all out of his OILS, PAINTS AND GLASS. LOWEST PRICES. gloves, and half the buttons of his coal BRICK BUILDING -----"Poor Mark!" said Essie, gently. "He 36 MAIN ST., NORTH SP. JOHN, N. B JAMES COLWELL, JR. "Well, he need not look here for one," John Chamberlain, John Harvey, "I heard Mr. Thompson say last week," UNDERTAKER and EMBALMER All Orders Executed with Neatness and Despatch, Day or Night. Terms Reasonable. Telephone 89. Communication at all Hours. PHOTOARTIST "Such a palace of a house!" the Judge 164 MILL STREET, ST. JOHN, N. B. RESIDENCE, 166 MILL ST. 164 Queen St., redericton "Mark is hoping to put a new house on the place next year. He has had Wm. Hillman. -----All the Latest Styles of would cost less to build a new one." GOLD AND SILVER PLATER "And where is the money to come PHOTOES All kinds of Old Silver Ware replated and repaired and made to look as good as "Where the improved farm came from," NEW AND STYLISH new at reasonable prices. Orders by mail promptly attended to. All kinds of Carriage Irons plated with Gold or said Essie; "from Mark's perseverance ner assortment of and energy, in the face of the hardest Hats. Flowers and Ribbons. discouragements a young man ever had to The Best Variety of Sailor Hats in the NO. 11 GERMAIN STREET, "Eh!" said the Judge. "What? What? City at Lowest Prices. "See what he has done," said Essie, ALSO A FULL LINE OF ST. JOHN. -N. B. still in an even, quiet tone that carried General Dry Goods. convictions far more than an excited one. MISSES MAHER. "Eight years ago when he was but a boy, NOTICE. he put his shoulder to the wheel and took 447 Main St., St. John, (North End). Notice is hereby given that I have been appointed Executor of the estate of Jane Hamilton, late of the Parish of Hampstead deceased, and all parties indebted to said FOR SALE. The subscriber offers for sale the lot estate are requested to make payment to me forthwith and all creditors to render their accounts, duly attested, within one month from date. throw their own power into their neigh-bor's work without officiousness or of-Un he place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he has made it the best. He place, and he p

