"CASCARETS" WORK
WHILE YOU SLEEP

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach,
Sluggish Liver and Bowels—
Take Cascarets tonight.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret to-night will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleaning and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

DON'T NEGLECT THAT COLD!

You never know what a bad cold may develop into. Many a serious illness has resulted from "only a cold." Take Peps at the start and you will have nothing to fear. When a Peps is dissolved in the mouth Pine vapor is liberated and breathed down the bronchial tubes into the lungs, soothing and healing all the sore and inflamed membranes.

Mr. J. Wall of South Nelson, N.B., writes: "I had a very obstinate cold and sent for a free trial package of Peps, which helped me so much that I immediately secured a box from the druggist. These I took regularly, with the result that my cold soon disappeared."

Peps cannot be equalled for such ailments as bronchitis, asthma, sore throat, laryngitis, catarrh, colds, coughs and all other affections of the throat, bronchial tubes and lungs. All dealers. 50c. box.

Plain Talk From Secretary Daniels

Calls Upon Medical Profession to End the False Standard That Decreases Military Effectiveness

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Dealing frankly and boldly with the social evil as a menace to the nation's military efficiency, Secretary Daniels of the navy in an address here tonight before the clinical congress of surgeons of North America, appealed to the medical profession "to end the false double standard that decreases military effectiveness." The profession, he declared, must share its part of the blame for the "unpardonable prudery that endured a festering evil rather than have it exposed and eradicated."

Affects All Services

"There is not an army in the field whose effectiveness is not reduced by reason of immoral disease," said Secretary Daniels. "The navy suffers like-wise, and business halts because venereal diseases destroy the manhood of workmen and fighters. During the last statistical year men of the American navy lost 141,378 day's sickness from a small group of absolutely preventable diseases, contracted by sin."

This means that every day throughout the year there were 450 men disabled by this disease. Add to that number those required to care for the disabled and we have enough men on the non-effective list each day to man a modern battleship. And this does not count those who though diseased were not disabled or the evil of the loathing danger of contagion to the clean members of the crew.

"In the navy in 1915 there were admitted for treatment for venereal diseases 112 persons in every 1,000 and in the army 84 for every 1,000, the number in the army having been decreased from 145 to 1,000, after the passage of an act stopping the pay of all soldiers admitted for treatment for a venereal disease."

Civil Life Equally Affected

"But these figures show a condition of immorality upon the part of the minority in both arms of the service that challenges the thought of the authorities. In civil life the number afflicted is quite as large proportionately as in the military service. It has been printed that Hacht of Vienna stated that at one time the equivalent of three entire Austrian divisions of sixty thousand men were under treatment for venereal disease, while the German army in Belgium representing only a small part of the total German forces is reported during the first months of its occupation to have furnished 35,000 such patients. Canadian and Australian officers have deplored the ravages of this disease. The late figures from the British army gave 78,000 cases and all other countries have also been weakened."

More Terrible Than Battles

"The remedy, there is but one—continence. It must be preached in the home, in the schools, in the markets of trade, in the pulpits and military camps and among shipmates afloat. The eradication of the evil effects must be thorough, but the teacher who will be heard and heeded when the teachings of all others will fall on dead ears is the word of authority from the medical profession. Young men expect ministers of the gospel to call them clean living. The preacher seeks to save their souls, and too many youths hardly realize that they have bodies, and the doctor is, the man to whom they trust the treatment of their bodies. When he preaches continence as the only rule of life to young men, and points out the dire penalty for lapses, his words have a weight no other admonition possesses."

Duty to Profession

"You, gentlemen of the medical profession, deal with life and death. You bring the bodies into the world, and you close the eyes of the dead. Yours is the ministering function, the intimate touch, and out of such relation you can enjoy an amazing power of suggestion. It is this power that America calls upon you to use. Tell our youths the truth. It is a duty laid upon you, not by the moral law alone, but by the laws of self-preservation that operates in nations as well as individuals. That duty is imperative upon you now as never before. If you perform it, and our young soldiers heed your wise counsel—and many of them will follow your teaching with lasting gratitude—you will contribute more to the winning of the war than manufactures of shells."

Only God Knows Toil

"Only God will ever know the toll in blood and tears that this sin has taken from the heart of the world—the price that the health of the race has had to pay for its submission to a falsehood, young lives ruined, futures
