PIANO LESSONS HELP IN VIOLIN STUDIES

There are excellent musical instruments besides the piano, many of them more attractive to some of the boys and girls. If a child prefers the violin or cornet he should, nevertheless, take piano lessons first, if possible. Even a small amount of piano study will greatly enrich his harmonic experience. Of all instruments the piano most nearly approaches the orchestra in the expression of the finest and most complex harmonies, together with the wonderful facility for tone control in every part.
To play a worthy composition on the piano is almost as beneficial as ensemble work to a person who is accustomed to an instrument of meagre harmonic possibility. Pianistic knowledge gives the young musician a clear view of the rhythmic and harmonic relations of parts. Acquaintance with the piano is as beneficial to a musician as a knowledge of Latin to the student of European languages.

Quick and accurate vision, a most valuable asset in our complex modern life, is remarkably developed by the rapid note-reading of the pianist who, through long practice, acquires a well trained eye and intimate co-ordination of eye and hand.

The fidelity of the ear and the quality of musical taste are improved by piano practice. A legitimate, though unusual harmonic sequence, sometimes impresses a pupil as incorrect, but as he practices, his constantly developing taste and ear will finally approve of the passage. Faithful piano practice, which trains the ear and develops a discerning harmonic sense will gradually lead even the unpromising pupil to an appreciation of the best in music.

BETTER RENT A VIOLIN THAN BUY A FOUR ONE

It is hard to change human nature and, recognizing the reluctance of people to buy violins of good quality until they are sure the pupil will not tire of the violin and give it up in a short time, some teachers keep a few violins of good quality which they rent to pupils temporarily. It is also often possible to rent violins from violin dealers, and music dealers. Some dealers in old violins have an arrangement whereby they sell the violin with an agreement that they will refund the money paid for it, less a reasonable commission, if the purchaser desires to return it at any time.

The idea of buying a very cheap violin to start with would not be so bad if a better violin were purchased after a few weeks' trial, wherein it is seen whether the pupil will "take" to violin study. As a rule, however, the better violin is not bought and the matter drifts on for months or years before the pupil is provided with a good violin. Meanwhile the young violinist is tortured with the wretched first instrument which has been bought, through false economy, to see whether he will study the violin permanently.

REGISTRATION
W-S-S.
(War-Savings Stamps)

The Dominion of Canada offers you every safeguard for your investment in War-Savings Stamps.

Affix your W-S-S. (costing $4.01 each this month) to the Certificate provided, and ask the Postmaster at any Money-Order Post Office to register the stamp or stamps for you.

The stamps are then absolutely useless to anyone but yourself. If your registered W-S-S. are lost by theft, fire, or other cause, the interest continues to accumulate and you can obtain your money at the office where the stamps were registered.

Remember, that at the rate of interest allowed on W-S-S., four dollars would grow to $361.39 in 100 years.

EVERY time you are tempted to spend money needlessly, buy Thrift Stamps instead, at 25 cents each. Sixteen of these on a Thrift Card represent $4.00 in the purchase of a W-S-S.
