Roche. The bride was attired in a very pretty costume of cream serge, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms. She was assisted by Miss Madeline Furlong, who was attired in a very pretty gown of pale blue silk, with hat to match. Mr. P. J. Furlong acted as best man. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to their future residence, New Gower Street, where supper was served. Songs were rendered by some of the guests and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Many costly presents were received by the bride and groom. The Telegram extends congratulations.

MINARD'S LINIMENT CURES COLDS, ETC.

A Modern Miracle.

He Had Eczema 25 Years and Doctors Said "No Cure."

Yet Zam-Buk Has Worked Complete Cure.

This is the experience of a man of high reputation, widely known in Montreal, and whose case can readily be investigated. Mr. T. M. Marsh, the gentleman preferred to, lives at 104 Delorimier Avenue, Montreal, and has lived there for years. For twenty-five years he had eczema on his hands and wrists. The disease first started in red blotches, which itched, and when scratched became painful. Bad sores followed, which discharged, and the discharge spread the disease until his hands were in raw, painful mass of sores. Just think of this state of affairs continuing for twenty-five years!

In that time four eminent medical men tried to cure him, and each gave up the case as hopeless in the end. Naturally, Mr. Marsh tried remedies of all kinds, but he also, at last gave it up. For two years he had to wear gloves day and night so terrible was the pain and itching when the air got to the sores.

Then came Zam-Buk! He tried it. Just as he had tried hundreds of remedies before. But he soon found out that Zam-Buk was different. Within a few weeks there were distinct signs of benefit, and a little perseverance with this great herbal balm resulted in what he had given up all hope of—a complete cure! And the cure was no temporary cure. It was permanent. He was cured nearly three years ago. Interviewed the other day, Mr. Marsh said: "The cure which Zam-Buk worked has been absolutely permanent. From the day that I was cured to the present moment I have had no trace of eczema, and I feel sure it will never return. Having suffered for twenty-five years, I had naturally concluded that my case was incurable, and I regarded my cure as a modern miracle."

If you suffer from any skin trouble cut out this article, write across it the name of this paper, and mail it with one cent stamp to pay return postage, to Zam-Buk Co., St. John's Nfld. We will forward you by return a free trial box of Zam-Buk. All druggists and stores sell this famous remedy, 50c. box, or three for $1.25. Refuse harmless substitutes.

Liner's Food Bill.

They do not victual ocean liners on the "snack-from-the-joint-and-two-veg." principle. Here are some items culled from a large Atlantic liner company's food bill for one year:

Meat: Fresh beef, pork, veal, mutton and lamb, over 10,000,000 pounds. Poultry and game: Ducks, fowls, turkeys, etc., more than 1,000,000 pounds. Fish, about 1,000,000 pounds, says the Washington Post. Beverages: Champagne, claret, minerals, etc., 800,000 odd bottles, besides 500,000 gallons of lager beer. The amount of bread consumed was 3,000,000 pounds.

Potatoes stand at 20,000,000 pounds, butter at 1,200,000 pounds, and ice at 24,000,000. Cigarettes and cigars were smoked up to the tune of 2,327,225. Taking just this last item, and allowing three cigars and seven cigarettes as a daily dose per head, the number of smokers consumed in one single year on these liners would keep 19 men in tobacco every day of their existence for a period of about 70 years.

Horney-Man Monkeys.

Queer Shaped Skeletons Found in California Canyon.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 6.—What are described as skeletons of a strange tribe of horned man-monkey pigmies are being exhumed from an ancient burying ground discovered near Jackson Rabbit Lodge in the delta of Topanga Canyon near Santa Monica. Forty-four skulls and almost as many complete sets of torso and limb bones have been recovered, together with strange antiquities apparently used by the tribe as weapons, and many stone mortars.

The tribe is thought to have been the last of the kind, and it is asserted by a legend of the oldest Spanish families that Aztec Indians exterminated them upon their invasion into Southern California.

There are plenty of substitutes (avoid them), but no real rival for Prisoners Brought In.

By the shore train last night Const. E. Quinlan arrived here with two young men, residents of Harbor Main, who were tried before Magistrate O'Toole yesterday on charges of loose and disorderly conduct. For several nights past these chaps gathered with others about the station at Avondale and committed various depredations, annoying people about there, and Constable Quinlan summoned them. One was held on two charges of disorderly conduct and fined $5 or 20 days for one offence and $10 or 30 days for the other. The other man was fined $10 or 30 days. Both could not pay their fines and came here to serve the terms of imprisonment imposed. A third party, who also was fined, paid the amount.

Trouble on Mullock-st.

The neighbours were alarmed by the cries of a woman who repeatedly kept shouting: "Father, I'll be killed." In the dead hours of the night, on Mullock Street last night. Some of the people arose from their beds and on going out saw that it was Mrs. Clance, whose father, Mr. Kelly, lives in the same house with herself and husband, four children and Mrs. Kelly's brother. They all live in a small room and people fear that there will be trouble.

Australia's Capital City

Washington, D.C., Jan. 6.—Architects and landscape artists from practically every section of the world will be invited to submit designs for the new capital city of the Commonwealth of Australia, according to consular reports. The Commonwealth Government has selected Canberra, New South Wales, as the site for the new city.

The new capital city lies among a series of hills, of slight altitude, which make ideal sites for the principal public buildings. The capital building itself probably will be built in the valley of the hills, to be protected from the winds.

A Venturesome Peer.

The adventures in strange lands of Lord Headley, who was sixty-five recently, would provide material for more than one fascinating volume. An Irish peer, he has seen a great deal of soldiering. He fought in the Carlist wars, and went through the Franco-Prussian War with the French Army Corps, and he has made long journeys and explored the slopes of the Andes and the hinterland of Peru. Some months after Lord Headley was expected back from a shooting expedition in Mashonaland, a grisly story arrived of his having been cut to pieces by Matabele. But he came home safe and sound, while obituary notices of his career were still current.

Here and There.

The Danish schooner, Agnes, arrived at Harbort today after a run of 20 days, fish laden by Bowring Bros.

STAFFORD'S Liniment can be used both internally and externally—14c. a bottle.

The s.s. Bellavente will be undocked this evening. The s.s. Adventure will go on.

CODFISH AND HERRING.—Herring of very large size are being taken at Harbor Main, and people with nets out make big hauls daily. Codfish is also fairly plentiful in the waters round the place, and a few days ago Peter Hannan secured a quarter of a quintal.

FELL OVER STAIRS.—Mrs. R. Anthony fell over the stairs leading to the basement of her house on Colonial Street last night and was very much hurt and badly shaken. A doctor had to be called. This morning her condition was improved very little.

To-day the Spaniard, Benigno Diaz, who stabbed Francis Bjorn on the S. S. Benedict, was up in court, and a preliminary investigation was held into the case before Judge Conroy. The evidence of Dr. Rendell and others will be taken before it can be determined if he will be committed for trial in the Supreme Court.

In Terrible State.

When the Telegram yesterday recorded the illness of sanitary man George Cheeks, the hopes of the citizens that typhus fever would be quickly stamped out, received a serious set back.

Cheeks has been ill since Saturday, and only yesterday the case was diagnosed as typhus fever. The man, who has been in the Sanitary Department for many years, occupies the under flat of a small house on Barte's Hill on its western side, and far removed from Pope Street, the scene of the first outbreak of the disease. The upper part of the house is occupied by Mrs. Kelly, daughter of Mr. Collins who was the second to be stricken with the malady after it was first noticed to be in the city. Mrs. Kelly and her friends naturally called at Collins' house while Mr. Collins was ill, and also when Mrs. Collins was stricken, and the belief is that they brought the germs to the Cheeks' residence.

The house is now quarantined and placarded, and Cheeks was in hospital is very ill of the disease. The house on Pope Street where the disease first made its appearance was in a terrible condition and filled with filth and refuse of all kinds. No less than 18 cart loads of rubbish were taken from the cellar and closets in the place, and the other houses near were almost as bad. The wonder is that some deadly malady did not long ago occur in these hovels which should not have been used as dwellings for years past, being utterly unfit for human habitation.
