If the new company get the contract, work on the plant will at once employ, when completed, ter thousand men.

Special to Evening Telegram.

NEW YORK, April 12, The London correspondent of the Tribune cables: "The storm which had been raised by the discovery that officials of the Treasury had advised several large companies to withhold payment of Income Tax until after the close of the financial year, shows signs of abating. There cannot be any question that the object of robbing the Sinking Fund was to provide funds to meet the heavy expenditure of the current year. It is now shown that as a result of the Treasury's action income tax receipts for the first week of April totalled £3,394,000, whereas for the corresponding week of last year the amount was only £179,000.

Special to Evening Telegram.

CALCUTTA, April 12. Fears are felt for the safety of an xpedition, under the Deputy Comnissioner of the Military Police, which set out to punish the tribesmen who murdered Noel Williams, a Brit-'sh official, with his party on the rontier of Assam. There has been no news from the party since it left. It is feared that the whole party were caught in an ambuscade and killed.

MEXICO, April 12. Peace overtures, for the first time since the insurrection began, have been laid before Madero, the rebel leader. Result is still pending.

Nfld. Quarterly.

The spring number of the Nfld. Quarterly has just been issued. The leading article is a "Tale of Two Cities"-Bristol and St. John's, written by the Premier Sir E. P. Morris. The illustrations that enhance the value of the essay include: "Mayor of Bristol," "Cabot Tower on Brandon Hill," "St. Mary Redcliffe" and other views of Bristol City. Judge Prowse writes an article on "Progress." His Grace the Archbishop continues his interesting series of articles on Newfoundland Name-Lore. Mr. R. G. Mc-Donald writes two sonnets, and Rev. M. J. Ryan an essay on "Home Rule." There is also a description of the local Knights of Columbus with pictures of their new building and some of their officers.

ALL LABOURERS ENGAGED. -Most of the city labourers are now engaged at the sealing steamers, the arrival of so many together giving plenty of employment. The skinners are also very busy and a good deal of noney will be put in circulation.
