Sir John A. Macdonald has given to Mr. O'Comor, of Essex, the most unimportant and uninfluential office in the Government—that of President of the Council. He has given it on the eve of a general election that threatens to break the whole Government to pieces. We trust that Mr. O'Comor feels that he has been sufficiently paid for his trouble in hunting up old Globes and reading musty extracts in order to re-create a religious war.

Emmoration from Germany.— The landed proprietors in North Germany have taken alarm at the rapid increase of emigration, and they are shrewd enough to use the bait which soonest tempts the German peasant. They propose to offer land to the men who will agree to stay at home. Meetings of land-holders have been recently held, in order to consider the condition of the labouring class, and appeals have been made to the Government for the adoption of measures to facilitate the aquisition of small holdings. It was argued, with much force, that if the Germany peasant could obtain his plot of ground, he would not only become a permanent resident, but would also be the foe of the International Society—an organization which has awakened more apprehension in Germany than in any other country in Europe—and such cogent reasons as these are likely to produce the desired effect.

No intelligent mind can fail to observe how the various and ever varying wants of the community are attended to by the enterprising merchants of Guelph. Instancing Hardware, in Mr. Horsman's Establishment, so noted for many years as the Emporium of everything in his line of business, it is somewhat astonishing to take a comprehensive view of the variety of his stock:—Guns, Pistols, Ammunition, Fishing Tackle, House Furnishings, Bloor oil Clothe, Mats, Ivory Table Cutlery, Plated Ware, Bird Cages, Flower Baskets, Smoothing Irons, Tea Trays, Wringers. Mangles, Lamps, Mechanics' tools. Besides the great assortment of Farming Implements, Scythes, Snaiths, Rakes, Forks, Hoes, Building and General Shelf and Heavy Hardware, Qils, Paints, Colors, Varzishes. One gets from this a slight idea of what it is to carry on with enterprising spirit a large Wholesale & Retail Hardware Establishment. Every want for House, Farm, Trade or Manufactory can be supplied Wholesale and retail at Mr. Horsman's. See advertisement.
