BASE BALL. LOCALS. The Kingston club play with the New-Castle boys to-day; the Cobourg Travellers and the Ottawa after their game with the Maple Leaf.

The London Eskimos have sent word by telegraph to the Secretary of the Unions that they cannot play in Guelph to-day on account of the sickness of one or two of their players. The Unions now say they would make 'an all sick' about the 9th innings. Be this the case or not, it certainly does look a little shabby to act in this way after the Unions have made all preparations, as all base ball clubs have good players in reserve in case of accident or sickness.

LACROSSE. The Braves met last night as announced, and added some more names to their roll. The club is now in a very prosperous condition. A scrub match is to be played on Saturday afternoon on the ground out by the Newton House. Some good players having joined lately, there will be a close contest. We should like to see a match game with some legal club soon.

A Young Men's Christian Association was organized in Oshawa on Wednesday evening under most promising auspices.

The Edinburgh Daily Review records an amusing conversation which took place in the galleries of the Free Church Assembly one day lately: "Young lady—'There's old Dr. A.—going to speak. Isn't he a bore?' Old lady (laughing)—'What I suppose he is; but do you know I rather like him?' Young lady—'I can't bear him.' Old lady (after some time)—'Who is that nice old gentleman speaking?' Young lady—'Ah, that's Mr. B.—of C.—' Old lady (hesitatingly)—'Don't you think he is—rather pretty?' Young lady (laughing)—'No, indeed, I do not. Allow me to inform you that that is my father.' Old lady—'Oh, indeed. Then I am glad that I hit the mark so gently, because Old Dr. A. is my husband. So I suppose we have both got a lesson, my dear; don't you think so?'
