LUMBER HELD UP FOR FREIGHT AND DUTY COSTS

No Payment Allowed for Lumber Prepared but Not Delivered as Order Was Cancelled—Case Arose in Connection With Station Building

The shortage of cars can hardly be placed to the blame of the company engaged in the delivery of goods to another. This was the effect of a judgment given yesterday by Mr. Justice Stuart in the case of the Plaintiff, Messrs. J. M. Eaton. The plaintiff sued for the sum of $2,215 for material sold and for freight for material prepared for and not accepted. The defendant admitted liability to the extent of $1,582.

SHE TICKLED HER HUSBY INTO DESERTION

Pittsburg, May 14.—Mrs. Mary Hagen, through her fondness for seeing her husband laugh, has caused him to desert. She says she never gave him cause to be dissatisfied with her, but that she would have trouble with him when she would tickle him to see him laugh. At first, she declared she seemed to enjoy her tickling, but finally he lost patience and berated her. One day she tickled him a little bit harder than usual and he knocked her down, she asserts. He then went away and was going for all time. She says she hasn't seen him since.

CLEARED AWAY. PROPER FOOD PUT THE TROUBLES AWAY.

Our own troubles always seem more severe than any others. But when a man is unable to eat even a light breakfast, for years, without severe distress, he has trouble enough. It is small wonder he likes to tell of food which cleared away the troubles. If you are glad of the opportunity to eat a light breakfast without great suffering, write an Eastern man. "For many years I was unable to eat even a light breakfast without great suffering. After eating I would suddenly be seized with an attack of colic and vomiting. This would be followed by headache and misery that would sometimes last a week or more, leaving me so weak I could hardly sit up or walk. "Since I began to eat Grape-Nuts I have been free from the old troubles. I usually eat Grape-Nuts one or more times a day, taking it at the beginning of the meal. Now I can eat almost anything I want without trouble. "When I began to use Grape-Nuts I was way under my usual weight, now I weigh 30 pounds more than I ever weighed in my life, and I am glad to speak of the food that has worked the change." NOTES OF DISCORD AT CONVENTION OF MUSICIANS

Toronto, May 14.—Notes of discord were sounded at the international convention of musicians this afternoon. Delegate C. P. Ruhlman brought up the question of giving the City Charter, rather than having the district under the jurisdiction of Philadelphia. After a heated debate it was decided to refer the matter to the executive committee. If President Webber has his way a rule will be passed prohibiting a man from becoming a member of the orchestra who has entered Canada from Europe or other parts, under contract to play for an orchestra which these commodities and so on to its competitors at cost when attempts to save the leaves from the food. He testified the corporation had raised the wages of its employees 2 1/2 per cent, adding $40,000,000 a year to its payroll.

LADY WHO WAITED IN VAIN "LINDEN JULIE" OF GERMAN EMPEROR'S CAPITAL, WATCHED 42 YEARS FOR LOVER.

Berlin, Germany, May 14.—"Linden Julie" is dead. That is the only name by which was known a woman who waited for her soldier lover in Berlin's principal thoroughfare, Unter Den Linden. With a small bundle at her feet, she stood while daylight lasted, her gaze fixed on the Brandenburg gate. She was the only person the police, taking pity on her, permitted to stand on the pavement of that street. Little postively has been learned about her. One story is that she lost her reason when her lover failed to return after the Franco-Prussian war.

The world-renowned Australian cricketers will play in Calgary for three days in September next. Letters to The Editor

REV. JOHN C. SYCAMORE TAKES ISSUE WITH ALBERTAN

Editor, Albertan: You are compelled to write and challenge the issue of the editorial in this morning's issue of The Albertan. It is difficult to understand how any man who is in touch with facts could so misrepresent them, and if not acquainted with facts he should learn them before making such sweeping untrue statements. Were I to speak only of the church of which I am pastor, the facts would contradict your statement that the churches built in the last two years are "designed for use for only about five hours each week. Except for a dozen little societies each year, the huge expensive buildings of samples of the finest architecture in Western Canada, stand with locked doors and empty pews, and are being used for night, seven days of the week, but for only about 75 feet long by 40 feet wide, with reading and writing rooms, well supplied with all such things as are necessary for comfortable chairs, lounges, etc., all open and free for the use of any and every person who wishes to use them. Many hundreds of dollars have been expended in fitting these rooms, and we are willing to furnish still others as they are required. Light, heat, care-taking and all conveniences are offered to all who will use them without a cent being asked in return. WOODEN CANNON IN WAR.

In Recent Revolutions in West Indies Wooden Cannon Were Used—Strange Construction. You altogether ignore another large element of service the church renders and which some churches in the east have been restoring. The international plan, concluded was the highest, broadest and best service the church can render to the community, the state, the nation. I refer to the inspirational gatherings. Institutions have been organized in many places of less practical and permanent value than inspirational ones. Institutions have been organized in many places of less practical and permanent value than inspirational ones.

Rev. John A. Clark Takes Issue.

Editor, Albertan: It must be a wonderful thing to be an editor, and always know what is right about everything. This morning's first editorial gives us the editorial mind on the church and her function in the community in terms which might seem to indicate that the clergymen and all other church workers among us have been dwelling in the densest darkness. To those who have not thought much about it, your summary of the facts in the whole matter is most convincing, but others, whose daily concern is just this very thing, are able to detect errors and misunderstandings in it. Your charge against the new church buildings erected in Calgary in the past two years is entirely unfounded. These buildings have been designed for use for only about five hours each week except for a dozen little societies each year, these huge expensive buildings stand with locked doors for six days out of every seven. That is a misstatement that the slightest knowledge of the facts would have made impossible. In every case of a church building that has been erected in that
