THE PEOPLE'S FORUM.

Mr. Munro and the City Hall.

To the Editor of the Adventusers:

Kindly permit me to respond and rectify a small mistake in your publication of yesterday's issue touching the procedure of the last meeting of the City Council relative to my petition requesting the free use of the City Hall for the purpose of religious discourses. The mistake is as follows: That although there was no motion adopted, yet there was an element of motion proposed by Ald. Counor, who manfully indicated that an impartial grant of the hall be given, as explicitly affirmed in the twelfth clause of the resolution adopted by the Council last January. Hoping you will give this a place in your valuable paper. Yours respectfully, James Munro.

A country lawyer in Illinois thought to beat the bloated monopolies and teach a great public lesson, bought a second class ticket and a sleeping-car ticket also from Chicago to an eastern point. He secured his berth. On producing his railway ticket he was ejected from the sieeper, and given a seat in the second-class car, just what he paid for. He brought suit for damages, lost it and appealed to a higher court, who sustained the original decision. It would be a strange law that would authorize a man to pay for one article and claim two.

OPEN LETTER TO HON. SIR GEORGE M.

PULLMAN.

Dear George,—You probably do not know the old sleeper "Deuteronomy" that runs between two places about 300 miles apart. I will not particularize any further, for I do not want to get the porter into trouble. We will say the car leaves at 11:30 o'clock at night, and that it stands in the station all ready for the tired traveler. The other night I came there shortly before 10 o'clock. The door was locked, but I saw the porter within. I rapped and kicked at the door, but the porter speedily hid himself and pretended not to hear. I went to the other end of the car, and through the locked door saw him about to lock himself in the smoking compartment. He was very anxious not to see me, but he was caught.

Hygienic Water.

A new domestic beverage which is becoming daily more and more popular. Water as often met with is very unhealthy. But even when good, too much should not be taken, as there is danger of colid, which makes one regret not having been more abstemious. However it is necessary to drink at times, and when the weather is very warm, the more one drinks the more one wants to drink, without being able to quench thirst.
