John Jessop, a Sandwich West farmer, was in Windsor Monday in regard to some sheep that were stolen from his place Saturday night. The entire flock of four-teen were driven away, but seven were found on the highway. Five more were found at a neighbor's named Lappan, where they had been lett by the thieves, who told Lappan that they would call for them again in a few hours. There is considerable of such thieving going on in the county, and the farmers will organize a vigilance committee.

of such thieving going on it the county, and the farmers will organize a vigilance committee.

The fameral of C. F. Pequegnot, sen., of Sandwich, took place there Monday morning. Mr. Pequegnot died very suddenly on Saturday, He was as well as usual and visited his son's store. He made no complaint of any ill-feeling whatever, and in the afternoon, as was his custom, sat down to read. After some time Mrs. Pequegnot went to his chair to speak to him and found that life was extinct. Paralysis of the heart was the cause. Mr. Pequegnot was 78 years of age, and came from France with his parents many years ago and settled in Fort Wayne, Ind. He removed to Sandwich and took up grape culture about fourteen years ago. His wife and two children, C. F. Pequegnot, jun., merchant, Sandwich, and Mrs. Petignier, of the Huron line, survive.

Windsor's next board of councilors will consist of eighteen members. Aspirants for civic honors are numerous, and the electors are certain to have a long list to choose from. The large colored population of the city feel that, with the increased representation, they are entitled to two sldermen and representation on the school board.

Rev. Mr. Livingston, of Listowel, has been invited to the Methodist Church, Kincardine, for the next conference term.

At Orr's planing mill, Stratford, on Monday, James Douglas was engaged in turning a sand drum, a built-up wooden cylinder, when his chisel caught in a nail or knot, resulting in the bursting of the heavy apparatus. Mr. Douglas received one of the flying pieces in the breast and suffered a paintuil fracture of the collar bone besides bai wounds on the head. Joseph Orr, the proprietor, who had just retinquished the turning tool into Mr. Douglas' hands, was standing close by and received very severe face and seally wounds. A doctor is attending the injured men.

Captain Hotson, of No. 1 Company, Twenty-eighth Battalion, Stratford, has resigned on account of his distance from that city. The vacant captaincy has been given to Lieutenant (now Captain) S. L. Joinson, who will perhaps be the youngest captain in the force.

The total building expenditure in Stratford for this season amounts to over $130,000.
