GAMEY TO BE PROSECUTED
SHOULD HE VENTURE BACKIs Statement Made by Counsel for Defense.

MATTERS APPROACH A CRISIS

He Will Have to Answer a Charge of Perjury or One of Falsifying Evidence.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Ont., April 22.—Gamey continues to be the reigning sensation. His attempts to explain his conduct have not cleared the situation. The fact is that Gamey, fearing he had laid himself open to a criminal charge on account of the bank deposit slip, left the country to watch developments, and get out of the immediate reach of the law. He is now under legal advice as to whether it will be safe for him to return to Canada. If he does a charge will be laid against him. Mr. Johnston, counsel for the defense, made this statement today. He says that Gamey must choose either to answer the charge of perjury or of falsifying evidence. A crisis will be reached tomorrow, when it will be known whether Gamey intends to return and face the music.

WILL MEET ACCUSATION

Gamey Leaves for Toronto—Sends Message to E. F. B. Johnston.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, April 22.—Gamey left Buffalo for Toronto at 1 p.m. Just before leaving he sent this message to Mr. Johnston, the chief counsel for the defense: "I understand that the Globe credits you with saying that you would instruct the crown officers to prosecute me on four criminal charges. I can only say that I will do my best to clear myself. I will go direct to the Walker House."

HOW GAMEY WAS LOCATED

Text of the interview at the Hotel in Buffalo.

Toronto, April 21.—"Long distance, give me the Mansion House, Buffalo." "The Mansion House, Buffalo," answered the call with the usual slight delay. "Is that the Mansion House, Buffalo?" "It is." "Is Mr. R. R. Gamey, of Toronto or Manitoulin, there, and will he speak to the press?" "Wait a minute and I'll see."

MR. GAMEY AT THE PHONE.

A long minute and several more glided by, and then a voice: "Hello." "Is Mr. Gamey there?" "It's Mr. Gamey speaking."

There was no mistaking the voice, even over the long distance. It was the voice that had been so often raised in answers to questions last week, and now the answers came readily enough over the telephone. "Would you mind saying, Mr. Gamey, why you are in Buffalo?" "What did they do at the court this morning?" was Mr. Gamey's answer.

MAY COME BACK.

"And are you coming back?" was the next question. "I'll be back whenever they want me," was the answer. "And you're not gone for good?" was the next question. "What, leave the country?" repeated Mr. Gamey. "How could I leave the country? No, I haven't left the country, and why should I leave it?"

THE $900 DEPOSIT.

"That $900 deposit is my own private business," Mr. Gamey went on. "The money was my private funds deposited to my own private account, and has nothing to do with this case at all."

When asked in regard to the facts about the deposit of the $900 in the Ontario Bank on Sept. 11, Mr. Gamey made an important statement, positively contradicting some of Mr. Crossin's evidence.

"Did you deposit that sum on that day?"

"I do not deny it."

"Would you mind telling me the particulars of the matter?"

"Well, you see that was a part of the money I had agreed to put into the concern when the concern was turned into a joint stock company."

We had talked about it long before, and on Sept. 11 we went down to Mr. R. C. Leves and formally agreed to turn it into a joint stock concern."

"Did you deposit the money yourself?"

"No; it was Mr. Crossin."

"Mr. Crossin says it was you."

"I can't help it; he is mistaken."

"Did he make out the deposit slip?"

"No; I think I made it out myself at the piano factory."

"Would you deny that it was in hundred dollar bills?"

"No; there might have been such bills in the amount deposited. I had been gathering it for some time, and naturally would get it in as large bills as possible."

Mr. Gamey made an important announcement in answer to the next question, declaring that he does not intend to see his party left in the lurch.

"Mr. Gamey, there are rumors in Toronto that you are not going to support the Conservative party, and that you have gone back on your party friends. Is there any truth in that statement?"

"There is absolutely no truth in saying I have gone back on my party."

"Or that you intend to leave the prosecution in the lurch as regards the investigation?"

"There is no reason whatever for saying so."

"You will see the matter through to the end?"

"The Conservative party will get the full benefit of all that I know or can do in this investigation."

"Have you any relatives there or are they merely friends?"

"You may say that I have relatives here."

"And your business in Buffalo, if I may be permitted to ask. Could you tell me what it was?"

"Well, it was private business and I do not think it can serve the public or that I should tell what it was for publication."

"Well, when will you go back to Toronto?"

"Any time that I am needed I will go back."

"Will you be in court on Thursday?"

"I may be, but I am not sure, I do not know for sure."

Mr. Gamey was next told of the stories circulated in Toronto that he would be arrested on his return to that place.

"Are you at all frightened by all these?"

"I am not, I have done nothing but what I can justify when the proper times come."

"Mr. Johnston is alleged to have said that he would place the matter in the crown authorities' hands. Do you not fear such action?"

"It makes not the slightest difference to me if he did, was the reply."

"And the deposit slip?" was the next question. "They say that the teller's initials were forged to the deposit slip, and that you are away on that account."

"I have done nothing wrong in regard to the deposit slip or anything else," was Mr. Gamey's answer. "I'm not going to keep out of the way on account of anything I've done, and I'm not keeping out of the way at all."

MRS. GAMEY AT COLLINGWOOD.

Collingwood, April 21.—The news of the disappearance of Mr. R. R. Gamey caused a sensation in town today. On the arrival of the noon train a newspaper man met Mrs. Gamey, the wife of the missing man, as she was boarding the Northern Navigation Company's steamer City of Collingwood, on her way to her home on Manitoulin Island. Mrs. Gamey stated that as far as she knew there was no reason for alarm over her husband's absence. She said that she did not know where he was, but she since recalled that he had said he had to go to Toronto, where he had business with some gentlemen. She had thought he was in the city yesterday, but learned last night from a reporter that he was not. He knew she was going to leave for home last night, and she expected to see him before leaving, but did not. "However," she said, "I expect he will be back in the city tonight, and will be on hand at the opening of the case on Thursday." Mrs. Gamey was accompanied by her brother-in-law. Her son was not with her.

Brass Foundry Burned.

Boston, April 22.—The brass and iron foundry of the Whittier Machine Company, manufacturers of elevators of all descriptions, in South Boston, has been practically ruined by fire. Loss about $50,000.

WONDERFUL SEEDING WEATHER
IN THE WESTERN WHEAT BELTFifty Per Cent of the Next Years' Crop Is Now in the Ground.

Winnipeg, Man., April 22.—Throughout the whole of the agricultural area of Manitoba farmers are busy with their seeding, and never before in the history of the Province have the weather conditions been more favorable.

The C. P. R. on Monday wired its agents in all the principal wheat centers throughout the Province for a statement as to the condition surrounding the seeding operations, and the replies received today are of the most gratifying character. There is not a single word of complaint, and the reports are favorable from the first to the last, varying only in the advancement of the operations.

In many cases the agents report that fully 50 per cent of the seed for next year's crop is in the ground, while in Southern Manitoba the average runs higher. Deloraine, for instance, having as much as 75 per cent of its seed sown. Another very gratifying feature is that there is a large increase in the acreage under crop. Some districts, according to the agents' reports, will have double the area of last year, others say from 20 to 50 per cent increase.

With another week or ten days of the present favorable conditions the seeding in the Province will be almost over, and the spring of this year will probably be a record one in the history of the Province.

Barque 119 Days Out.

San Francisco, April 22.—The French bark Du Couedic, row out 119 days from San Francisco for Sydney, has about been given up as lost. Rinsurance on her is quoted at 85 per cent. The vessel has not been heard from since she sailed.

Burlington Bridge Burned.

Winona, Minn., April 22.—The bridge of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy road over the Black River at Trempealeau, Wis., 250 feet long, has been destroyed by fire, causing a loss of about $100,000, and suspending all traffic on the Burlington south of here.

Passenger trains are being transferred by other lines around the break in the Burlington. The fire is supposed to have originated from sparks dropped by an engine.

SULTAN'S TROOPS
IN MACEDONIA
GERMAN GENERAL
ELECTIONS DUEMany More Battalions Than Are Necessary.

THOSE TURKISH ATROCITIES WANT PURITY IN ELECTIONS

Largely a Fabrication by Rebel
Bands Who Endeavor to Enlist
World's Sympathy.

Salonica, via London, April 22.—This is an anti-Bulgarian town. If I were influenced by the spirit of the place I would represent the Turk as a dog and the Bulgarian as a devil. Since I have crossed and recrossed the Balkans and explored Macedonia with a dragoman, I am in a position to know what is probable, if not what is true. When one leaves the Levant he strikes out nearly all he hears, and supplies an alternative for everything. There are four dates ranging from today to the end of April mentioned for a general uprising. My belief is that there will not be a general revolt of Bulgarians. My earliest cue, obtained at Vienna, was correct, namely, that the Albanians, if anybody, would make trouble this spring.

TURKS ARE CREDULOUS.

It is remarkable that the Turks lend a credulous ear to the cry "wolf."

Rumors are received that the Monastir district is boiling over with revolt and excitement, and a few regiments are sent up as reinforcements. A cry for help comes from Rodio, and troops are dispatched and suddenly all these battalions are withdrawn and sent to Metrovitz.

VIEWS OF TURKISH OFFICERS.

Turkish officers here tell me that they could wipe out the Macedonian bands in 72 hours if they were allowed carte blanche. They say they would go through their villages with fire and sword, and the Macedonians would then know how to choose between the massacre of an entire Bulgarian village, and while the bulk of it goes for the purchase of arms, much of it does not.

THOUSANDS OF TROOPS.

Meanwhile, the Sultan's troops swarm into Macedonia. There are more than enough, ten times over, to police the country. They are not here for that purpose, however, but because the Sultan's ministers are suspicious of the officials.

SOME UNWORTHY LEADERS.

The Macedonians are yearning for the emancipation of the country, but the right men are not raising the cry of liberty. It is an honest and earnest Christian race, but some of the leaders at the head of the movement are adventurers, fortune-hunters and traitors, unworthy to lead a great and noble cause. Some of these leaders are from the principality of Bulgaria, where they could not become pre-eminent in public affairs. The committees are extorting money from the peasants, and while the bulk of it goes for the purchase of arms, much of it does not.

EXAGGERATED REPORTS.

The reports of Bulgarian atrocities are grossly exaggerated as are also the accounts of Turkish atrocities. The partisans of each side strive to outdo their rivals in making bloodcurdling accusations, and enlarging the tales of horror. The Bashi-Bazouks were charged in the Grebanitz affair with the massacre of an entire Bulgarian village, but not over 50 persons were slaughtered, and no more than one-quarter of the village was destroyed. There would have been a general massacre by the Bashi-Bazouks if the officers of the Turkish regulars had not held them in check, and enforced obedience of the Sultan's orders.

Dreyfus Heard From.

Paris, April 22.—Dreyfus has sent a letter to War Minister Andre, demanding an inquiry in regard to the document in which it is alleged, Emperor William in a marginal note declared Dreyfus had supplied documents to Germany.

MEXICAN DISASTER

Ten Laborers Were Killed by Tunnel Cave-In.

Mexico City, April 22.—Ten workmen engaged in making a tunnel on the Mexican Central's extension at Tuxpam in the State of Jalisco, have lost their lives in a cave-in caused by several earthquake shocks coming in rapid succession. The first shock caused the falling of interior working and when the gang of workmen went to clear away the debris the efforts made by a second cave-in, which resulted from fresh shocks.

CHARCOT CHANGES PLANS

French Explorer Will Proceed to the Antarctic.

Paris, April 22.—Dr. Jean Charcot, on the advice and suggestion of the committee of patronage of his polar expedition, has decided to change the objective of his efforts. Instead of exploring the Arctic region he intends to proceed to the Antarctic for the purpose of exploring that continent. This change in the plans will delay the departure of the expedition by a few weeks only. Dr. Charcot will first direct to Terra del Fuego, and thence to Alexander I. Land, whence he will endeavor to penetrate as far as possible into the south polar continent. The party and crew already have signed new papers for the expedition.

THE KING AND THE POPE

The Vatican Is Distressed at His Not Calling.

Rome, April 22.—Considerable distress is felt at the Vatican, as, notwithstanding the efforts made by prominent British Catholics, King Edward has until now refused to include a visit to the Pope in his sojourn in Rome. King Edward seems to think it would be a discourtesy towards the King of Italy to go to the Vatican when he is his guest. The Vatican says it is a discourtesy on the part of King Edward to ignore the Pope who has let no occasion pass to show the English royal house his appreciation. Some believe that King Edward will change his mind at the last moment, and will visit Pope Leo to prevent a ferment, especially in Ireland.

UNIVERSITY ON WHEELS

It Consists of Baggage Cars and Passenger Coaches.

Chicago, April 22.—A university in transit reached Chicago today over the Rock Island road, was transferred to the Northwestern tracks and proceeded to Glen Ellyn for permanent location. Four baggage cars and two passenger coaches brought Ruskin University, its equipment, together with its president, a professor, and 60 students, from Trenton, Mo., to its new suburban residence.

A summer hotel at Glen Ellyn has been remodeled for university purposes. The school to be located there will be the center of the Ruskin University system of co-operative associations and socialistic institutions established by Walter Croswell, Prof. George McArthur Miller and Prof. W. A. Rickenbrecht were the members of the faculty who accompanied the students.

A DAY'S FATALITIES

New York City Furnishes a Very Lengthy List.

New York, April 21.—Two women were killed and one was badly injured by falling or jumping from windows in this city yesterday. There was a number of other fatalities.

One woman was hanging out clothes in the air shaft at the fourth floor of her home in One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, when she fell to the bottom of the shaft and was killed.

Mary Laing committed suicide by jumping from a window in One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street. She was dying from consumption.

Frema Hirschowitz fell from a fire escape of her home in Allen street and was injured internally.

Dennis Kelleher was struck by a Third Avenue electric car, and caught underneath it. Though both legs were crushed and his skull fractured, he directed rescuers during 45 minutes in their efforts to release him.

Frederick Rushman, aged six, was run over and killed by a Third Avenue electric car.

The body of an unknown man, about 45, was found in the Hudson River. James Coffee was found in Mott street, with a bullet wound, caused by a former friend. He may recover.

NEW STOCK EXCHANGE

Dedication of the Handsome Building of the New York Exchange.

New York, April 22.—Members of the New York Stock Exchange abandoned business today for the dedication of their handsome new building. The ceremonies were arranged to begin at 11 o'clock with prayer, followed by speeches from Mayor Low and President Keppeler of the exchange. The board room was a bower of flowers, while along the side seats were arranged for the invited guests, including men of finance known the world over. The building which looks small beside the neighboring skyscrapers, presents a striking appearance with its massive and beautifully carved stone pillars and decorations. The interior has been arranged for the comfort, in every possible way, of the members. An impenetrable vault has been built for the safety of securities; the heating, cooling and ventilating arrangements are perfect. The board and member rooms are large and beautifully decorated. The new building fronts on Broad street, and extends through to New. The main board room is 144x109 feet. The ceiling is 74½ feet high. The luncheon club and offices of exchange officials are on the floors above. The members saw these for the first time today.

Shamrock Surveyed.

Southampton, April 22.—Sir Thomas Lipton has decided to send both the Shamrock III, and the Shamrock II to America. This will permit the latter being used as a trial horse off Sandy Hook, and the challenger will be able to make up the time lost on the other side by her recent dismantling.

Morello Discharged.

New York, April 22.—Guiseppe Morello, who was supposed to have been one of the most important of the prisoners held in connection with the murder of Benedetto Madonia, the victim of the barrel murder, was discharged in the Tombs Court today, when the case against the Italian came up for a hearing. Motion for Morello's discharge was made by the assistant district attorney.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES AT
LIEUT-GOVERNOR'S FUNERAL

From Mr. Chamberlain.

Ottawa, April 22.—The following cable message was received last night by His Excellency from Mr. Chamberlain: "London, April 20.—I request that you will express to your ministers the great regret with which I have heard of the great loss which Canada has sustained by the death of Sir Oliver Mowat, who for so many years occupied so distinguished and honorable position in Canadian public life. Convey expression of my sympathy for his family." (Signed) "CHAMBERLAIN."

BIG CORN SHIPMENTS

The Grand Trunk Hauling It to the Seaboard.

Montreal, April 22.—Following the announcement made to the Grand Trunk shareholders by President Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson that after the end of April the company would be able to show much better results, J. W. Loud, the general traffic manager, stated yesterday what he considered would contribute most to the increase in the company's business. "The most notable increase," stated Mr. Loud, "will undoubtedly be in the shipments of corn from Chicago to the New England States for consumption. Last year, owing to the failure of the crops in the corn belt in Kansas, the Grand Trunk did not handle any corn at all. At the present time we have already started shipments, and will continue to increase them for some time to come. It is undoubtedly this business that will make a difference in the traffic returns. From Midland and the other upper ports, if we do as large a business as last year, we will be doing all we expect to. While we are adding to our facilities at Midland and other points, these will hardly be completed in time to allow us to benefit by them during the present year."

GERMANY AND THE SURTAX

The Kaiser's Ministers Are Getting Anxious.

Berlin, April 22.—The German Government, before corresponding with Great Britain regarding the surtax imposed by Canada on German goods, or suggesting to the Bundesrath that the retaliatory measures provided for in the new tariff bill should be applied, intends to inquire afresh through the Minister of the Interior as to what the precise trade exchanges between Germany and Canada are, and how far German exports would be affected were the other British colonies to similarly discriminate against Germany.

The foreign office apparently considers the principle involved to be one of exceeding importance, extending far beyond what are regarded as the rather insignificant interests directly engaged.

FEUD OVER A HOG

It Results in Poisoning and Assassination.

New Orleans, April 22.—Josh Wynn and Oscar Mallon have been arrested for shooting W. J. Gibbs near Girard, La., on Thursday. The Wynn-Gibbs feud has already resulted in several deaths. It grew out of a family row. Gibbs was arrested by Wynn on the charge of stealing hogs, but was acquitted. A few days afterward Wynn was taken sick after eating pork and four of the family died. This was charged to Gibbs, who was accused of poisoning the hogs with something which, while not killing the hogs, made them poisonous as human food.

The charge could not be proved, but the Wynns, believing it, lay in wait for Gibbs on Thursday night and fired on him from ambush, mortally wounding him. The two principals in the attack were arrested, but Gibbs' friends bearing another attack on the camp around the house of the dying man armed for battle.

The Government House was crowded long before the hour set for the short service. Principal Canon of Knox College—a lifelong friend of Sir Oliver—delivered the appreciative address; Rev. Dr. Black, of St. Andrew's, read the Scripture; Rev. Dr. MacLaren, of Knox College, whose daughter married Arthur Mowat, and Rev. A. Gaudier, of Sir Oliver's church, St. James' Square, had charge of the service. The pall-bearers were the Catholic Society, of which Sir Oliver was patron, then bore the coffin to the hearse. They were: Wm. Banks, president; Daniel Rose, vice-president; Donald Inrig, treasurer; D. A. Rose, jun., and Gilbert C. Sutherland.

The procession then moved off as already announced, the marshal on horseback. [Continued on Page 3.]

BRITISH COMMONS REASSEMBLES;
A CRUCIAL TEST FOR GOVERNMENT

Will Send Both Boats.

Southampton, April 22.—Sir Thomas Lipton has decided to send both the Shamrock III, and the Shamrock II to America. This will permit the latter being used as a trial horse off Sandy Hook, and the challenger will be able to make up the time lost on the other side by her recent dismantling.

Shamrock Surveyed.

Southampton, April 22.—The Shamrock III, was surveyed in drydock today, in the presence of Sir Thomas Lipton and William Fife. It was found that the cup challenger has sustained no damage below the water line.

Morello Discharged.

New York, April 22.—Guiseppe Morello, who was supposed to have been one of the most important of the prisoners held in connection with the murder of Benedetto Madonia, the victim of the barrel murder, was discharged in the Tombs Court today, when the case against the Italian came up for a hearing. Many Distinguished Persons Honor Dead Statesman.

PROMINENT LONDONERS THERE

The Cortege Was the Most Imposing Ever Witnessed in the Queen City.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Toronto, Ont., April 22.—Government House was again thrown open to the public this morning, and thousands viewed the remains of Sir Oliver Mowat. The scarlet uniforms of the guard of honor, ranged beside the casket, shined vividly against the dark draperies of the funeral chamber, the atmosphere of which was heavy with the perfume of countless floral tributes.

The spectacle was most impressive. Sir Oliver was dressed in his Windsor uniform. His face looked wasted, but the expression, as in life, was calm and benignant. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and son of his minister, Messrs. Fielding, Paterson, Sutherland, Mulock and Fitzpatrick, arrived this morning. Twenty members of the House of Commons, including Mr. Tarte, and a number of Senators also paid their homage to the dead. Representatives from Liberal Associations in all parts of the Province walked in the funeral procession this morning. The London delegates being Messrs. George C. Gibbons, K. C., George M. Reid, Walter Bartlett, Thomas S. Hobbs, George W. Allen, Stuart Hume Cronyn and Talbot Macbeth.

The cortege was the most imposing ever witnessed in the Queen City, and brought together an unparalleled number of leaders of every walk in life.

[G. N. W. Dispatch.]

Toronto, Ont., April 22.—The funeral of the late Lieutenant-Governor was indeed a fitting testimony to the universality of the respect and veneration with which the man who had for so long controlled the political destinies of this province has always been regarded by its people. From one end of the province and from the other have come political and municipal representatives to pay the last honors to the dead, while the sister Province of Quebec was represented by the Lieutenant-Governor himself, the provinces sending flowers, messages of sympathy and appointing local representatives. Major Maude was present for His Excellency the Governor-General, Lord Dundonald, the Dominion of Wales, in his official capacity. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir William Mulock were among the honorary pallbearers. Others of the Dominion were also present. Among the members of the House of Commons were W. S. Calvert, Robert Balth, Dr. Johnstone, Arch Campbell, Col. Thompson, M. K. Cowan, Thomas Murray, J. Robertson, Dr. F. Clarke, William Ross, W. Macpherson, A. Bureau, O. Talbot, J. I. Hawke, D. J. Leblanc, George A. Clare, James Halliday. Among others Bishop Hamilton of Ottawa; Sheriff Leger, of Kent, N. B., and thousands of representatives of Liberal associations throughout the province.

The chief mourners were Sheriff Mowat, Arthur Mowat, A. M. Mowat, Master George Mowat, C. R. W. Biggar, J. L. Biggar, F. C. Biggar, Thomas Langton, Mr. J. MacLellan, James P. Mowat, McGill, H. M. Mowat, G. L. Mowat, J. McDonald, Mowat, G. L. B. Fraser, Norman Fraser, J. Mowat, Duff, Dr. Duff, Rev. Drummond, J. H. Ewart, Joseph J. Steel, James Henderson, Ernest Henderson, S. Ewart, Frank Ewart, E. R. Greig, R. J. McLennan, Neil McLennan, A. F. McLennan.

The Government House was crowded long before the hour set for the short service. Principal Canon of Knox College—a lifelong friend of Sir Oliver—delivered the appreciative address; Rev.
