G. T. R. WILL NOW RECEIVE COMPLAINT

No. 3 Committee Heard Chief Aitken's Charges Regarding

nt the Wellington street cros.ing going to the same fire.

"This is a serious matter," said Chief Aitken. "The department should be given right-of-way over everything."

It was decided to send a letter to Superintendent Davidson, calling the company's attention to this. City Solicitor Meredith will be consulted in reference to it.

Hetter Meredith will be consulted in reference to it.

Runabout For Chief.

Tenders will be called for a runabout for Fire Chief Aitken. Ald. Wilson brought the matter up, and suggested that it was time something was done. He moved that tenders be called for for an auto with and without chemical appliances. The motion carried.

for a Machine at Once.

At the meeting of No. 3 committee, neld last night, Aid, Donnelly was belected as chairman during the absence of Aid, Ashplant in England.
When the matter came up, Aid, Wilson resulted in a majority of 139 dagainst the Government's veto bill.
The change affects the first clause, which forbids the Lords to alter a money bill, and empowers the speaker of the House of Commons to decide what a money bill is.
The Earl of Cromer moved to replace the speaker with a committee of seven members of each House, of seven members of each House, which speaker and the chairman to be allowed to cast their votes.
When the matter came up, Aid, Wilson the measure of bills such as that relating to Irish home rule, for a joint sitting in case of a disagreement between the vow houses, and for a referendum to the speaker and the chairman to be allowed to cast their votes.
Viscount Haldane stated the Government's objections, Lord Lansdowne's amendment will not be reached probably unful July 3.
The amendments provide for the exclusion from the operation of the measure of bills such as that relating in case of a disagreement between the vow houses, and for a referendum to the downe, Lord Morley and other prombothe of land the first vital amendment to the dovernment's objections, Lord Lansdowne's amendment will not be reached probably unful July 3.
The amendments provide for the exclusion from the operation of the measure of bills such as that relating in case of a disagreement between the vow houses, and for a referendum to the country in other cases.
Urgent whips had been sent out by both parties, and the benches were crowded with members.

Debate on the bill is likely to be prolonged until the end of next week.
