LONDON AND DISTRICT

Late William Whiting.

The remains of Mr. William Whiting, brother of Rev. Richard Whiting, who died here suddenly, will be forwarded to Forest on the Grand Trunk at 10:26 tomorrow morning for interment. Services will be conducted at the parsonage of the First Methodist Church at 9 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Kennedy and Rev. J. G. Inkster, of First Presbyterian Church.

A Former London Lady.

Mr. J. D. Riddell, of the East London fire hall, received the intelligence on Monday that his sister, Mrs. Jean Dreulard, had died at her home in Walkerville on Sunday. The deceased lady formerly resided in London, and was well known here. Her husband, one son and three daughters survive.
William Riddell, of Port Credit, is a brother. This is the third death which has taken place in Mr. Riddell's family during the past year. Mrs. Dreulard's funeral will take place today.

Death of Robert Welch.

The death occurred on Sunday evening of Mr. Robert Welch, 342 Adelaide street, after an illness of eight-teen weeks. He was in his 63rd year.
The late Mr. Welch had been a resident of London nearly all his life and was well known in the city. His wife, a daughter, Miss Mabel, and a son, William, survive. The funeral will take place on New Year's Day at 3 p.m., from the family residence. Interment will take place in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Rev. J. H. Boyd, Church, officiating.

Boys Left Shelter.

Two boys about 14 years of age, inmates of the Children's Aid Shelter in South London, left that institution on Monday afternoon and walked as far as Hyde Park before being located. The lads walked the entire distance, despite the disagreeable conditions for foot travel, but were returned to London on the Grand Trunk. One of the boys had formerly been with a farmer near Hyde Park and was seeking to return to that place with a companion from the shelter.

Clarkson—Buckley.
The marriage of Miss Martha Buckley to Mr. Arthur Clarkson, both of this city, occurred on Saturday afternoon at the parsonage of the Egerton Street Baptist Church, Rev. W. L. Steeves performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs.
Clarkson will reside in the Hamilton house on their return from their honeymoon trip.

Artistic Program.
A most enjoyable program was given on Monday afternoon at the studio of Miss E. Noble, over Nord-heimer's piano rooms. Careful teaching was evidenced by the clear, firm tones and marked by the different piano numbers. Miss Helen Taylor, Cora Brennan, violinist, and Mr. Bert Hannah, assisted and added greatly to the afternoon's pleasure.
The following pupils took part: Master E. White, Gordon Tidy, Helen Kirkpatrick, Elmar Rehnitzner, Gwen Combs, Carl Cline, Ted White, Alberta Kent, Adrian Collins, Kathleen White.

AMUSEMENTS

"Little Women."
Seats go on sale today for the engagement of "Little Women" at the Grand Opera House Friday and Saturday, Jan.
2 and 3. Sweet, simple, quaint, refreshing, is this story of a half century ago, and the play is as charming as the book.
A series of home pictures, bringing very near to those who know and love the story of old friends from out the covers of a book (which today is listed among the world's best sellers), into the larger, more intimate life of the stage. All the principal incidents of the story will be found in the dramatic version. It is a faithful reproduction of the life of the four girls, carrying them through girlhood and young womanhood, bringing to each the consummation of her life romance, just as Miss Alcott described it in her book.

"A Butterfly on the Wheel." It is possibly pretty well known by now in every city of importance in the country that "A Butterfly on the Wheel" was one of the most successful of the past theatrical season in New York.
It is also probably known that the same piece was played for a season in London, with Mr. Lewis Waller in the leading role. When Mr. Waller came over to America to appear in "The Garden of Allah" he brought with him the idea of putting on "A Butterfly on the Wheel" in New York. The opportunity came soon after he arrived, and in connection with the Shuberts the play was produced at the Thirty-Ninth Street Theatre and ran there practically all season. The play comes to the Grand next Monday evening, Jan. 6. Seats Friday.

African Hunt Pictures.
No person should miss the Paul Raney African hunt pictures now on exhibition at the Grand Opera House.
Nothing like them has ever been seen in London, and any citizen who enjoys seeing nature at its best should not fail to go to the Grand.

Last night, a good-sized audience was simply amazed at the wonderful beauty of these pictures. They were so entirely new, so amazingly different from anything ever presented here delighted and charmed beyond words to express.

The trip through the jungle, with its myriads of birds and beasts, shown at their best in the wilds of Africa, was one round of pleasure, and something more than ordinarily delightful.
The educational effect of the pictures is hard to measure.

"It beats books a mile," one patron stated after the show, and that expressed it exactly, if not elegantly.
The pictures will be shown this who misses seeing them will miss a

CHRISTMAS WAITS RAISED OVER $100

Money Was Divided Between Several Charitable Institutions of London.

The Christmas waits conducted by Mrs. (Dr.) Kingsmill were successful to the extent that they brought pleasure to the inmates of many of the city institutions. Greater success would have been possible had all parts of the city been visited by various bands.
The bands of singers were not as large as expected, but the amounts collected by the various groups amounted to $103.51, each group collecting as follows: Mrs. Kingsmill, $40; Messrs. Colborne and Saunders, $25; Mrs. Aitken, St. James' choir, $16.49; Mr. Willgoose, St. John's Church, $10.11; Mr. Fitzgerald, Christ Baptist Church, $5.50; Mr. Stein, Hamilton Road Presbyterian, $2.50.
The money was divided among the Mount Hope Orphanage, Protestant Orphans' Home, Children's Aid Society and Infants' Home on St. James' street, each institution receiving the sum of $25.87.

BRIDE OF 80 YEARS GROOM 76 YEARS OLD

London Lady Receives Word of Marriage of Father in England.

Mrs. Harry Strange, of 192 Central avenue, has received word that her father, Mr. Chas. Detheridge, of Ludlow, Monmouthshire, Eng., aged 76, had been married on Dec. 9, to Mrs.
Smith, of the same city, aged 80 years.
This is rather a unique record, and created quite a bit of interest in Mrs. Strange's home town.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Avon, Dec. 31.—The annual gathering of the family and relatives of Mrs. John McCallum, held at the home of J. Swartout was largely attended, and a great success. Altogether 46 people from London, St. Thomas, Branford, Verschoyle, Springfield and Hiramsville were present. At noon the guests were called to two large tables, laden with delicacies.

Later gifts were distributed from a large Christmas tree. An enjoyable program of reading, music and song, concluding with "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," passed away the afternoon.
Orville Bowes, of Avon, presided as chairman. At a very opportune time after the concert, Santa appeared on the scene, and was received with welcome by the many children.
The gathering was brought to a close by a splendid supper.

CHURCHILL—FENNEL WEDDING AT NEWBURY

Pretty Wedding Was Solemnized at the Reeve's Home.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Newbury, Dec. 31.—A pretty wedding was solemnized at "Rose Hill," the home of Reeve and Mrs. S. Fennell, recently, when their daughter, Miss Gladys D., became the bride of Mr.
H. George Churchill. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Lindsay.

At 5 o'clock the groom with his best man, Mr. Donald Lethbridge, of London, took their places in the drawing-room beneath an arch of holly and mistletoe, and in a few minutes the bride party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, played by Miss Myrtle McIntosh, of Wyoming, and Miss Anna Fennell, sister of the bride. The bride wore a gown of wedding March during the signing of the register.

First came little Freda Dobbyn, of London, the ringbearer, in her white embroidered dress, with pink trimmings, carrying a net of white roses and ferns, in which the ring was concealed. Miss Nellie Harcourt made a charming bridesmaid in a dress of pink satin, and carried a bouquet of pink on her father's arm. She wore an exquisite robe of silk embroidered net, over white satin, with pearl trimmings, and wedding veil caught in cap fashion by a bandeau of pearls and lilies of the valley, carrying a bouquet of white roses and ferns. The groom's favor to the bride was a beautiful sunburst of pearls; to the bridesmaid, a pearl pendant; to the groomsmen, a pearl pin; to the ringbearer, a gold locket and chain, and to the pianist, a bar ring of pearls.

After the ceremony guests to the number of 75 sat down to a dainty wedding dinner, the table decorations being of white roses and ferns.

After supper Rev. M. Lindsay proposed the toast of the bride, and Mr.
S. Fennell, the bride's father, responded.

Mr. and Mrs. Churchill left for points in the States, the bride travelling in a tailored blue serge suit, with hat to match, and mink furs.

Mr. and Mrs. Churchill will be at home to their friends after March 1 in London, Ont.

Bring your suburbs closer in

THE value of city real estate is directly proportionate to its travel-distance from the business centre.

There's a difference between "travel-distance," and the number of miles "as the crow flies." One lot may be only a half-mile from the city hall, on a muddy, unpaved back street, and be worth less than another lot of equal size two miles farther out, but easily accessible by street car or well-paved streets.

Well-paved streets not only increase the value of property immediately adjacent to them—but also that of land in all the territory for which they carry traffic. And since the value of land in the business centre is dependent upon comparison with that farther out, these same streets enhance business-property values quite as much.

You can't actually move a piece of real estate. But you can, for all practical purposes, bring every lot closer in.

by paving with Concrete Realty values are not based upon temporary conditions.

Nor can the advantages of good streets be considered in establishing realty values, if the street improvements are temporary. Such temporary improvements are more liabilities than assets, because they are always needing repairs and must ultimately be entirely replaced.

Concrete is the only economical road-material that is also permanent. Its first cost —in many cases little higher than that of good macadam —is its final cost, for the expense of maintenance is practically nothing.

Windsor Ontario

was one of the first Canadian cities to use Concrete for street paving. Prior to 1908, 20,000 square yards of concrete pavement had been laid. This quantity has been increased every year since then.
The cost—for a "two-course" pavement, consisting of Concrete foundation and wearing surface of Cement Mortar—has varied from 99 cents to $1.15 per square yard. At the same time the cost of macadam was about $1.10 per square yard.

To use a poorer material than concrete because it's cheaper, is most extravagant economy, because the expense of keeping cheaper pavement in decent condition soon mounts up to far more than the total cost of a concrete road.

We have gathered all the facts about Concrete pavements. They will interest every citizen who appreciates the value of good streets and roads enough to use his influence on behalf of them.

We will send this information to you, without cost or obligation.

Bright, Ruddy Cheeks For Pale Girls

NO LONGER ANY NEED TO BE PALE, WEAK OR ANAEMIC.

By Following the Advice of Miss Mo-Ewen You Can Quickly Become Strong Again.

The pallid girl always lacks appetite.
What little she eats is badly digested.
At night she is restless, she dozes, but doesn't sleep soundly.

Vital force must be increased, new blood must be supplied and a general rebuilding takes place before she will feel like she ought.

Dr. Hamilton has invaluable experience in these cases, and found nothing so prompt in building up young women as his vegetable pills of Mandrake and butternut.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills begin by cleansing the system and purifying the blood; they also improve digestion and render food ready for absorption.
Additional nourishment is quickly supplied and the patient is fast strengthened and invigorated.

Full of spirit, ruddy and strong, is the girl that assists her system by the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

The following recent letter from Miss Etta McEwen, of Haliburton, speaks for itself:

"In using Dr. Hamilton's Pills, I find my system is wonderfully built up. It is certainly the most effective remedy I ever used. I have now a good appetite, sleep more soundly, and awaken in the morning feeling quite refreshed.

"Formerly I felt tired and depressed. I looked as if a severe illness were hanging over my head.
"Nothing could give quicker results than Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and I strongly advise every young woman to use them."

All dealers sell Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c per box, or five boxes for $1, by mail from the Cataract Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Ont.
