

THE LOCAL MARKET

The local market this morning was almost three times as large as last Tuesday's and Thursday's market. There was a large supply of produce, which sold readily, a number of buyers being on hand early. There was an exceptionally large supply of potatoes on sale. There were no changes in prices at 9:30 o'clock.

Eggs, retail, took the largest jump they have taken in some time, going from 31 to 35 cents a dozen, to 38 to 40 cents. The demand was exceedingly brisk, the supply not being equal to the demand.

Butter was also in demand in the market house. All classes of butter except rolls sold from 30 to 32 cents a pound. Rolls did not bring more than 30 cents a pound.

One of the largest supplies of poultry seen in the daily hall in some time was on sale this morning. High prices were asked early in the morning, but sales were few and far between. The chances are that poultry will be cheap later in the day. There was some good fowl on sale.

It was rumored that live hogs would bring $7.25 per hundredweight. This rumor could not be verified.

Several loads of choice oats brought $1.50 per hundredweight.

Winnipeg, Nov. 13.—Wheat prices on the Winnipeg market opened unchanged at 1 1/2c lower, 1/4c higher, and flax 2 1/2c higher.

Heavy selling operations developed later, causing sharp declines. Peace River wheat was 1/4c higher, and flax 2 1/2c higher.

A feature of today's trading was the excellent demand for all grades of cash wheat by millers and exporters, but prices went lower. Cash wheat and barley were in fair request, while cash flax was in keen demand, and a number of futures were put through at higher prices.

Inspections were 527 cars Thursday, as against 1,448 last year, and in sight were 425 cars.

WHEAT.

Chicago, Nov. 14.—Prospects of a large increase of the visible supply today on Monday had a bearing on wheat prices on the wheat market. Favorable weather for the Argentine harvest, which will begin, counted also against the bulls, and so, too, did talk of high freight rates on the Atlantic.

Commission houses indicated in free selling. After opening 1/4c off, the market underwent a moderate decline all around.
