BYLAW Asquith Drops the Helm; Resigns Premiership Over Row in Cabinet The General Treasury Fund

Denouement Surprises, Britain, as It Was Considered the Least Probable of Practical Alternatives Forced on the Government by Demands of Lloyd George Faction.

LONDON, Dec. 5.-The court circular announces tonight: "The Right Honorable Mr. Asquith had an audience with His Majesty the King, and tendered his resignation as prime minister and first lord of the treasury, which the King has been graciously pleased to accept."

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The Government crisis found a solution the least probable of practical alternatives. Herbert H. Asquith resigned the premiership, which he has held throughout eight stormy years of domestic and foreign history. The Unionist leader, Andrew Bonar Law, was summoned to the palace in seems it advisable to submit to the stormy years of domestic and foreign history. EXTRAORDINARY ACTIVITY.

The premier's decision to resign cabinet was taken after a day of extraordinary political excitement and activity. There were con-stant comings and goings of the political leaders between Downing street and the various Government departments. Mr. Asquith met several Unionist leaders in consultation, including Earl Curzon, Lord Robert Cecil and the Earl of WELSH WIZARD'S PART DEMONSTRATED.

The part David Lloyd George is playing in the crisis was demonstrated plainly today by the fact that he remained in his office while the premier conferred separately with the Liberal and Conservative nembers of the cabinet. Mr. Lloyd George's policy had supporters in both camps. His strongest Liberal friend, Lord Reading, carried messages between the premier's councils and Mr. Lloyd George's desk.

The Press Association suggests that it is possible for Mr. Bonar Law to form a Unionist ministry with Mr. Lloyd George included, for which it could find justification in the fact that the Unionists supported a purely Liveral Government during the first stages of the war.

The Sweepstakes steer is a superb specimen, and difficult to find fault with anywhere, and the reserve champion is so good that no one would have been much surprised had he won the sweepstakes. In the horse classes the interest centered on the Percherons, of which the exhibit is simply amazing.
