WOMEN and THE HOME

KEEPING UP APPEARANCES TO PLEASE ONE'S HUSBAND

Julia Hoyt Gives Some Friendly Advice to Married Women.

SCORES NAGGING

By JULIA HOYT.

In my last article I spoke of the for other. There are other questions which we might place under the title of manners toward one's husband which are just as important.

married for a good many years, and week. who continue to think of each other Mrs. S. C. Hurkett of Montreal almost as they did when they first married, except that their their spent a few days of this week with his sister, Mrs. W. B. Burns, Piccadilly street. feeling is even deeper through the Miss Gladys Dean, of Pontiac, association of years. I have watched these couples with interest, and invariably I found that each was making a decided effort still to attract the other, and that neither of them were ever rude, inconsiderate or thoughtless about the little things in their daily life.

Miss Gladys Dean, of Pontiac, Michigan, is spending a week with her aunt, Mrs. George Dean, Ridout street north.

Mrs. A. R. Nimmo of Hyman street entertained delightfully at bridge on Thursday evening, when four tables were in play.

All Have Disagreements.

Needless to say, no two people in world probably have gone through without having disagreements or even quite important squabbles. each other in front of other people heach of consideration of each other's idiosyncrasies which, like dripping water, wear away and finally destroy admiration, respect and affection

I once heard on politeness to turned to their home on the Base Line road from an enjoyable visit in Detroit, where they have spent the past week.

Mrs. Don't and Mrs. E. J. Taylor have returned to their home on the Base Line troit, where they have spent the past week. I once heard an amusing story of a woman whose husband very often went out in the evening, not telling her where he was going. Cnce a friend of hers asked her why she did not get angry, and the wife said, or the story of the woman woman of the wife said, or the forward movement of the W. A.

Miss Belle Fetterley, Richmond street north, is entertaining very informally at a benefit bridge on Mon-"Oh, he is so very charming and formally at a benefit bridge on polite when he does it." Naturally, wives do not want their husbands to LO.D.E.

desired by anybody. There is nothing much more boring or unpleasant than a quarreling married couple. Let it happen frequently, and that couple will not be considered desirable guests. In addition, their politeness and sweetness to others has little weight or effect after one has been them behave in a discourteous, nagging or sarcastic manner to each other. Good manners to outsiders for sweetness or kindness is also easily assumed, but it is a easily discredited and seen through if one gets to know that these people are quite the opthat these people are quite the opposite at home.

We all know that the little cour-

Set New Record

Clear School Quickly When Mayor Sounds Alarm.

Special to The Advertiser. public school, the fire alarm was sounded, and the teachers and scholars marched out of the school in the best of order. Thirty-two seconds after the alarm was given all had reached the school grounds. This is a record for this school, as in the former test the time was fifty-five seconds. Neither the principal nor the teachers had been notified that the alarm was going to be dyeing and tinting is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes. Just dip in cold water to tint soft, delicate shades, or boil to dye rich, permanent colors. Each 15 - cent package contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint lingerie, silks, ribbons, skirts, waists, dresses, coats, stockings, sweaters, draperies, coverings, hangings, everything new. entertaining the members of the Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other executive, the social committee and kind—and tell your druggist whether the material you wish to color is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods .- Advt

COLOR IT NEW WITH "DIAMOND DYES"

VELVETEX VELVETEX

DON'T THROW YOUR OLD RUGS OR CARPETS AWAY. Save Money, Send your old Rugs or Carpets to us. We make them into VELVETEX" RUGS CANADA RUG COMPANY London, Ont Toronto, Ont Windsor, Ont Montreal, Que

Phone or write for folder # 97

PERSONALS

Mrs. T. Rowe entertained her club at her home on Ridout street south last night.

Haysville before coming on to Lon-Miss Olive O'Neill, nurse-in-waiting were in play.

Mr. J. L. Coles of Woodstock was in town on Wednesday to attend the meeting of the Western Ontario Tennis League.

I am convinced, however, that is not these important squabbles that St. Claire Ryley in Montreal, is leaveause the majority of unhappy maring on Sunday for Toronto.

stowe addressed the women of St. James' church, Stratford, this week formally at a benefit bridge on Mon-day evening in aid of her chapter, A. D. Jordan, and Mrs. Ronald Har months in England and Scotland. Mitchell, March 27.—Thursday the mer Londoner, is spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Park, Rectory street. Mr. Wray was at one Shroeder, Mrs. Fred Phelps, Mrs.

> Professor David Moore Robinson of the Johns Hopkins University, Balti-more, will be a guest with Dean and Mrs. Sherwood Fox, Regent street, Grey street, this week for their regu-

Miss Ruth Kingsmill, who is spending some months in Europe, is at present a guest with Miss Kathleen Daly of Toronto in Rome, where they expect to spend Easter. Miss Kingsmill and Miss Daly will go to Paris, where they will spend the summer early in May.

Dr. Perry S. Dobson and Mrs. Dobson of Alma Ladies' college, St. Thomas, are entertaining the members of the St. Thomas Alma daughters at dispersion. ters at dinner on Tuesday evening.
The guests will go on to the special meeting of the Dramatic club arranged for that evening.

Mrs. Jack Dazell of Toronto, who has been a guest with her sister, Mrs. Stanley Scruby, Lorne avenue, has left to visit her sister, Mrs. F. C. Walker, in Chatham. During her stay in town, Mrs. Dazell was the true of hence at a number of deguest of honor at a number of deightfully informal parties.

Mrs. Tune and Mrs. Durdle were the hostesses of this week's sewing tea in aid of the travelling basket of the ladies' aid of St. Andrew's church, the ways and means committee at their home on Princess avenue.

Miss Thelma Fleming has arrived town to accompany Mrs. G. M. Dingman to Paris, where they will attend the marriage of Miss Ruth Moffatt to Mr. Kenneth Robinson, also of Paris. Miss Fleming will return to London to spend a short ime with Mrs. Dingman at her home the Kensington.

Miss Rowena Weld, whose martage to Dr. Septimus Thompson takes place this spring, will be a much feted Londoner within the next few weeks. Among the hostesses en tertaining for her next week are Miss Priscilla Ball, who is entertaining on Monday; Miss Ruth Robinson, who will be a hostess on Wednesday; Miss Jessie Gillespie, who is giving a luncheon for her on Thursday, and Miss Doris Nassey, who will be Thursday evening's hostess for her. WE PAY FREIGHT OR EXPRESS.

Thursday evening's hostess for her.

It will be of interest to the Y. W. C.

Joyed the vigorous camp life at Port Bruce to know that Miss Sadie Knowles of Sarnia was the guest of honor at a very elaborate mother-and-daughter banquet in her home town this week, and that, during the evening, she gave a very instructive and much-appreciated talk on the origin and program of the Canadian girls-in-training.

Miss Alice Miller, of Lorne avenue, was the hostess of a delightful din-ner and theatre party last night in honor of Miss Jeanett Stratharn, who is leaving today for Toronto. The guests sat down to a most attractive Mrs. C. Gibson, who has enjoyed a pleasant visit in St. Catharines, has returned to town.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Cummings of yellow candles in silver holder. value of keeping up one's appearance this city were guests with friends in Among the guests were Miss May R. Buckle, Miss Valaska Kipp, Miss Lil-Mr. W. Graham of Kitchener spent llan Baker, Miss Elsie Arthur and last week-end with his parents in Miss Doris Leslie.

A delightful party was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. James Ramsay at their home in Thorndale on Thursday Even in this day of many divorces at St. Joseph's hospital, spent a short through the some couples who have been time at her home in Woodstock this day of their daughter, Miss Janet. A delicious supper was served early in the evening by the hostess, after which games and music were greatly enjoyed. Special guests of the happy event were the two grandmothers of the guest of honor, Mrs. Ramsay and Mrs. McMillan, and other guests who were invited to share the birthday party came from Thamesford and > Covers were laid for fifteen at table prettily decorated in yellow and white, when the members of the Cronyn Memorial Girls' club held an initiation banquet in Warner hall dining-room recently. Mrs. C. E. Keene and Mrs. H. Matthew were Tennis League.

>
> Miss Babbie Moore of this city, who is a guest with her sister, Mrs. A. St. Claire Ryley in Montreal, is leaving on Sunday for Toronto. those who received rights were the Misses Kitty Brooks, Alice Ross, Lila Brock, Fern Seelhoff, Dorothy Treleaven, Ida Cunningham and Gert rude Sharpe.

An attractive event of next wee will be the musicale and tea or Tuesday afternoon, of which the wo men's board of the London child wel fare association, will be the host-esses, entertaining at the Institute of Musical Art. Mrs. David Williams and Mrs. Ray Lawson, vice-presidents wives do not want their husbands to go out frequently and leave them home, but it was amusing merely as an angle of his intelligence in troub- College, St. Thomas, on Tuesday W. Hughes and Mrs. W. A. Tanner of the problem of the second hour. Assisting it is and charming to her ovening, when she will give readings rls and Mrs. A. E. Miller will preside for the first hour at the tea table Leaving aside the effect on each other of squabbling or being rude to each other in public, the impression made on others is certainly not to be desired by anybody. There is nothing much more boring or unpleasant than looking after the guests will be the

Mrs. David Williams was in Sarnia this week to address a meeting of the women of St. George's Anglican church of that city, in connection with the forward movement of the woman's auxiliary in Canada.

Mrs. J. W. Russell and her son deliverity were that they enjoyed a selicity of the son deliverity was assisted in receiving the many called the many called the son deliverity and the son deliverity was assisted in receiving the many called the son deliverity was assisted in receiving the many called the many called the many called the son deliverity was assisted in receiving the many called the many ca tesies and considerations make intercourse with others easier and pleasanter; consequently, why not help the most important relationship in life, marriage, by keeping these qualities at home, as well as out? (Copyright, 1925, in U. S. and Canada by North American Newspaper Alliance. All rights reserved.)

Mitchell Pupils

Woman's auxiliary in Canada, Mrs. J. W. Russell and her son, Bruce Russell, of St. George street, are leaving early in May for their summer home, Littlewin Island, Muskoka, where Professor Russell will join them later in the season.

Mrs. Frank Ashplant, Waterloo street, is entertaining a number of the members of the ladies' aid of St. Andrew's church at her home on Monday afternoon in aid of the travelling basket of the society. Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Patterson, Waterloo street, entertained informally at dinner last night for Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Buchanan, who are leaving shortly to spend the spring months in England and Sectland nonths in England and Scotland.

Mr. J. D. Wray of Toronto, a forJared Vining presided over the tea Peart and Mrs. Graham.

The members of the Golden Link Mrs. Sherwood Fox, Regent street, while he is in town next week to address the Canadian clubs of the den. who assisted the hostess, won the first prize and also captured the large management of the first prize and also captured the large management of the large manageme Kindrey was a close second. Mrs Roy Brown was awarded the con-

EDITH CAVELL NURSES.

The Edith Cavell nurses' associa tion is holding its regular monthly meeting on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the Institute of public special speaker, and will address the nurses on "The Juvenile Court." All nurses in the city are cordially invited to this meeting.

CAMPANA'S

It will keep your hards soft and white and smooth, no matter how much housework you have to do. Use it liberally after dishwashing to prevent redness and chapped hands. At all druggists and department stores.

FORBURNS

FOR SCALDS, CUTS AND BRUISES. FOR SCALDS, CUTS AND BRUISES. FOR COLDS, COUGHS AND BROMCHIAL AFFLICTIONS, FOR STIFF MUSCLES, SPRAINS AND STRAINS AND NUMEROUS OTHER AILMENTS COMMON TO MAN AND BEAST, THERE IS NOTHING SUPERIOR TO THAT OLD TRIED AND RELIABLE REMEDY,

DE THOMAS' ECLECTRIC

Victoria Hospital Auxiliary Appeals to Public For Piano.

The Victoria hospital auxiliary

Wash, cleanse, launde

with any soap you wish.

But when beauty is at stake, use Palmolive, the soap made to protect it.

and Mrs. Angus Graham, have some interesting plans in view. The Ministerial Alliance has undertaken to give special monthly Sunday services in each ward of the hospital. Hymn books have been provided. Special concerts are being arranged for the Easter season and on Easter Sunday the patients' trays will bear seasonable favors, because the committee has been at work. Conveners for the concerts are as follows: April 7, ward 7, Mrs. Angus Graham. Mrs. John White and Mrs. F. J. Green-away; April 8, ward 8, Mrs. Harry White, Mrs. Donald Graham, Mrs. F.

Flowers For Easter. Mrs. Tom Benson reported that her them. He didn't tell them for one committee would see that there were very good reason—he didn't know

Reddy Quarrels With Johnny Chuck and Peter Escapes By a Back Door

By THORNTON W. BURGESS. Farmer Brown's Boy was digging holes in the O'd Pasture. He was whistling as he dug. It was Blacky the Crow who discovered what he was doing, and right away Blacky hastened to tell all the other little people. As meny as dared to found White, Mrs. Donald Graham, Mrs. The Hallett; April 9, ward 9, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. Frank McLachlin, Mrs. W. M. Lowry; April 10, ward 10, Mrs. J. P. Tanton, Mrs. A. A. Affleck and Mrs. John McLeod.

Mrs. John McLeod.

But Farmer Brown's Boy didn't tell very good reason-he didn't know to be found up in the Old Pas digging those little holes.

Everybody in the Green Forest the Green Meadows and in the Orchard knew about those I holes. Everbody was puzz Not one could guess what it meant. Even those who were no the habit of going to the Old I was found some avers to go ture found some excuse to go there now. They had to see themselves what was going on the And the opinion of all was that Fa er Brown's Boy was spoiling the Pasture. Even those who loved rusted him most felt that way a (Copyright, 1925, by T. W. Burge The next story: "Great News I

You Cannot

The Victoria hospital auxiliary board is offering a nursing scholar-ship at the University of Western Ontario. This decision was reached at yesterday afternoor's meeting of the board, held at the hospital. The scholarship will be presented on graduation day in May to the lucky members of this year's graduation (class. As am sufficient to meet the needs of the scholarship was voted for this purpose by the board, the first of the the proposed in connection with one the result in the treasury is $425.79 of this amount, $50 goes to the social service department of the auxiliary and $52 to the treasury is $425.79 of this amount, $50 goes to the social service department of the auxiliary and $52 to the feature of the first of the first of the surface of the surface of the surface of the scholarship was voted for this purpose by the board of Mrs. For Alfred Drew, the balance in the treasury is $425.79 of this amount, $50 goes to the social service department of the auxiliary and $52 to the surface of the scholarship was promised.

The Course of Easter week the converse of surface and the green of the local women's societies and that thousands of surgical auxiliary.

A planol surface and the Green Meadows know the law bear of Mrs. For a Alfred Drew, the balance in the treasury is $425.79 of this amount, $50 goes to the social service department of the auxiliary and $52 to the surface of the in strument was promised.

The Course of the hospital auxiliary.

A planol surface of the in the surface of the in strument was promised.

The converse week of the scholarship was voted for the livery members of the scholarship was voted for the livery members of the scholarship was voted for the livery ment of the scholarship was voted for the livery ment of the scholarship was voted for the livery members of the scholarship was voted for the livery members of the scholarship was voted for the livery members of the scholarship was voted for the livery members of the scholarship was voted for the livery members of the scholarship wa

Just Present the Coupon to Your Dealer

THE only oils in Palmolive Soap are the priceless beauty oils from these three trees—and no other fats what-so-ever.

That is why Palmolive Soap is the natural color that it is—for palm and olive oils, nothing else, give Palmolive its green color. It is nature's formula to keep that schoolgirl complexion.

Dear Madam:-

Present the coupon below to your dealer. Accept from him please, at our expense, an extra cake of Palmolive Soap with the purchase of three cakes. The coupon below entitles you to this special offer.

The clear, fresh skins you see everywhere today prove Palmolive results . . . a soap made by beauty experts - more than merely soapmakers-to foster fine complexions. 60 years of study stand behind it.

Nothing is hidden in Palmolive Soap. There is nothing to hide. Men don't paint nature in order to improve it. The only secret to Palmolive is its blending. And that is judged one of the world's priceless beauty secrets.

Now, in justice to yourself, accept this special offer. Present the coupon below to your dealer. He will give you one extra cake of Palmolive Soap free with the three cakes you purchase.

Then note Palmolive results on your own skin-and your children's. See what a difference even a few days will make.

This coupon may be redeemed by dealers wherever this newspaper circulates, provided coupon is presented within two weeks from date of advertisement

Coupon cut from papers purchased in quantities from news dealers will positively not be redeemed by us.

Present this coupon to any dealer who handles soap

Purchase three (3) cakes of Palmolive Soap at regular price and receive in addition

One full size cake of Palmolive Soap Free Thus you will secure four cakes for the price of three

Notice to Dealers: Send this coupon to The Palmolive Company of Canada, Limited 64 NATALIE STREET, TORONTO

which will replace the Palmolive Soap given free. I received from my dealer one cake of Palmolive Soap free with the purchase of three cakes at regular price.

Palmolive Soap is untouched by human

hands until you break

the wrapper—it is never sold unwrapped.