

By Electric Telegraph.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY BRITISH COLONIST

Eastern States.

New York, June 21.—Counsel for the arrested Cubans are endeavoring to have Col. Ryan tried forthwith to settle the question of the violation of the neutrality laws.

A large expedition which was to sail on Thursday has been indefinitely postponed, but it is thought the men are ordered to be ready to move at a moment's notice.

June 22.—The steamer Arizona, from Aspinwall, has arrived. It is stated that ex-Minister Webb had an interview with Sec. Fish on the Brazilian Government; he denounced the authorities there and says they have no more respect for the U. S. than for Hayti, to think we ought to give them a good thrashing in consequence.

MEMPHIS, June 23.—A combination of citizens of West Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas is called to meet here on the 13th of July, to take measures to secure the introduction of Chinese emigrants.

WASHINGTON, June 25.—Bowie has resigned the secretaryship of the Navy, and George M. Robertson, of New Jersey, formerly Attorney General of the State, has been appointed in his place, and was sworn in at noon to-day. He will attend the regular Cabinet meeting to-day. Mr. Bowie felt compelled to resign from pressure of private duties.

NEW YORK, June 25.—An evening paper has a story that a Secret Society has been formed, having branches in the principal cities of the Union, for carrying the country over to Imperialism. The members are sworn to promote and support what is termed the Free Empire. It is proposed to establish an aristocracy, with executive powers in the hands of a Council, with one man at the head, who is to hold the position for life, and be designated Consul of the Free Empire of the United States.

CHICAGO, June 25.—The Times' Washington special says that the National Intelligencer suspended publication to-day for the first time in 69 years; cause, financial embarrassment owing to the loss of Government patronage. There is talk of merging it into an evening paper.

CHICAGO, June 26.—Rain continues to fall throughout the Northwest, and it is feared the corn crop will be entirely destroyed in many parts of the country.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Dispatches received to-night from Cuba give particulars of a fight near Puerto Delgado between the Cubans and Spaniards. The victory of the Cubans was complete; they captured an extensive train containing a large amount of provisions, ammunition, clothing and hospital stores, etc. Over 200 of the Spaniards were killed. A number of Americans participated in the combat.

WASHINGTON, June 27.—It has been officially announced by the British Minister at the capital that an international exhibition of the products of the world's labor will be held at London in 1870. Mr. Thornton has been requested to make the matter known to the citizens of the United States which he will do when more fully advised in regard to details. The great aim is to develop labor throughout the world.

Paris, June 23.—Advices from the Great Eastern are to Thursday, noon. She was then 174 miles from Brest, paying out cable nicely; the weather was pleasant.

LONDON, June 24.—The Irish Church Bill will soon come before the House of Lords again. No motion to go into Committee, or notice of action in dealing with the provisions of the Bill, has yet been made, but the general feeling of the Peers is favorable to making amendments based on the principle of concurrent endowment.

At the Newcastle races to-day the Northumberland Plate was won by Spy. The English papers say that two Frenchmen are constructing a balloon to carry ten passengers or four with a thousand pounds ballast and provisions for a month; and they will attempt to make a voyage to the North Pole.

LONDON, June 23.—The bondholders of the old Atlantic Telegraph Company appointed a committee to procure the settlement of their claims. An expedition with a great floating dock for Bermuda, sailed to-day.

LONDON, June 24th.—By the last telegraphic accounts from the Great Eastern, she was 294 knots out from Brest, and had paid out 310 knots of cable. The signals through to the shore continued perfect; and the weather is delightful.

Another meeting of the Confederate bondholders was held here last evening; the object of the meeting was to protest against that part of Sumner's speech against the Alabama Claims Treaty, and to petition the House of Commons against granting any compensation for such claims to the United States unless adjudicated by an impartial tribunal on principles of equality and international law.

MADRID, June 23.—General Dulce has arrived from Havana in the steamer Delatinia. She was kept three days in quarantine at Santiaogo.

VIENNA, June 23.—The Government has announced a policy of reserve with respect to the economical council. The course to be adopted by the Council cannot be foreseen.

LONDON, June 24.—The Bank of England has reduced its rate of interest to 3 1/2 per cent. In the House of Lords, to-night, Viscount Lifford gave notice of an amendment to the Irish Church Bill; increasing and extending gable and granting 25 acres of land to Catholic and Presbyterian Churches.

The Viceroys of Egypt has gone to Windsor, on a visit to the Queen. A public breakfast was given here this morning to 14 English artisans, who sail for the United States, to enter Cornell University. Lord Hughon occupied the chair, and made a speech full of encouragement and good advice for the enterprise of the young men.

The Duke of Newcastle was up before the Court of Bankruptcy. It is reported that France is endeavoring to have changed the September Convention with Italy, for withdrawal of French troops from Rome, and that she only requires sufficient guarantees from Italy for the security of the Papal territory, before concluding a new treaty.

Paris, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

PARIS, June 24.—The Emperor visited the camp of Chalons, and made a speech to the soldiers, he reminded them that this was the anniversary of the battle of Solferino. He said he was pleased to see that they had not forgotten the cause for which they had fought 10 years ago. Continue to preserve the remembrance of the battles fought by your fathers and yourselves, for our victories are the victories of progress and civilization.

Many years ago, the writer of these lines and an invalid physician, while visiting the Island of St. Croix for their health, experienced and witnessed many surprising and beneficial effects of the Balm there produced upon many of the invalids who were (like ourselves) seeking health, and upon inquiry and investigation, obtained a full history of its medicinal virtues.

Many years ago, the writer of these lines and an invalid physician, while visiting the Island of St. Croix for their health, experienced and witnessed many surprising and beneficial effects of the Balm there produced upon many of the invalids who were (like ourselves) seeking health, and upon inquiry and investigation, obtained a full history of its medicinal virtues. He was delighted and surprised, and after his own recovery, which soon occurred, determined, if possible, to procure the sole right to manufacture and sell it in the United States.

CURES AND COMFORT FOR THE BED-RIDDEN.

Holloway's Ointment.

This wonderful Ointment acts like magic in relieving all kinds of sores, wounds, bad legs, ulcers and eruptions of the skin; when rubbed on the surface it penetrates and purifies each vessel on its passage, and exerts the most wholesome influence over the internal structure of the body by cleansing all animal fluids with which it comes in contact, and thereby promotes a sound and permanent cure.

Dropical Swellings. This is a certain cure for Rheumatism, Scurvy, Scrofula or King's Evil, and the most inveterate skin diseases to which the human race is subject. They can be cured with safety and more speedily than by any other Ointment, assisted by his celebrated Pills, which act as a powerful purgative.

A PERFUMED TOOTH-WASH!

Mix a teaspoonful of MURRAY & LANMAN'S FLORIDA WATER in a tumbler of pure, soft water, and you will have a tooth-wash far superior to all the lotions and dentifrices ever offered for sale.

TO FARMERS & DAIRYMEN.

BUTTER CLOTH FOR SALE CHEAP. Butter taken in exchange for all kinds of Farmer's Produce taken by WM. ANDRAN.

FOUND.

A NUMBER OF KEYS ATTACHED to a Ring. Apply at this office 3524.

Advertisement for Dr. J. Collins Brown's Chlorodyne, detailing its benefits for various ailments like cholera, dysentery, and fever, and providing contact information for the manufacturer.