MARKETS AND LICENSE COMMITTEE

A deputation consisting of J. D. Nasmith.

The Drowned Man Was Michael Kelly—No. Violence Suspected.

A deputation consisting of J. D. Nasmith, Joseph Tatt and other bakers waited on the Markets and License Committee to ascertain the proposed alterations in the bread bylaw. A sub-committee was appointed to meet a committee from the bakers at an early date, when an effort will be made to draft a bylaw satisfactory to all parties.

The cent-in-the-slot cigaret boxes are in danger. With them in use it is, inspector Awde thinks, impossible to prevent the sale of the "cooffin calls" to those under the age, as fixed by law. The City Solicitor will be asked to frame a bylaw to meet the case. Another deputation from the draymen waited on the committee to, protess against the increased license for drays as fixed on Monday Jast. The draymen promised to bring in a petition asking that the fee be left as it was.

Ald. Belief made things lively for a few moments over the appointment of a son of Castwort case of many and provided that the young man had not yet seem engred nor been paid any salary; he was analy there learning the duties with a view of obtaining the situation in a very short time. The appointment had been left to Chairman Verral and the Commissioner, and they decided that young Verral was a fix and proper person for the situation.

Ald Bailey said several cattle dealers had complained to him on the 'grounds that it was not fair that the son of another dealer should weigh the stock. But the alderman's principal objection was that, as this year's policy of the council was to curtail expenses, if was not right to create new officials; if an extra man was needed at the Cattle Market sonse one should be taken from one of the other departments. Ald, McMurrich did not consider it fair to take a young man out of school and place him in a situation worth $250 a year. Finally Mr. Verral was a popointeent a salary of $250 a month for three months.

The City Solicitor will be asked to amend the dog bylaw, so the license will be $10 for a kennel and $25 or every bi menths.

The City Solicitor will be asked to amend the dog bylaw, so the license will be $10 for a kennel and $2 for every bitch that is registered with a recognized Kennel club; the old fee of $5 will be charged mougrels.

The Court of Appeal heard argument in the action of A. Dalrymple & Co. against Scott Bros. on appeal from the judgment of the Q. B. Divisional Court, reversing the judgment of Mr. Justice Robertson at the trial, dismissing the action. The plaintiffs reside at Lakeside, Oxford, and deal in flour and grain, and the defendants are millers at the village of Caledonia. The action was brought to recover damages for non-delivery of flour.

The Industrial Room. The Toronto Industrial Room Society held its monthly meeting on Thursday, 12th inst., at its rooms, Y. M. C. A. building. The reports of the secretary, Miss Proudfoot, showing that 200 women had received sew ing during the winter, and that of the branch secretary, Mrs. McIntyre, stating that between 40 and 50 women had been helped in this way in the northwestern part of the city, were received and adopted. Gossip From Chiengo.

Kennett, Hopkins & Co. to R. Cochran: Foreigners sent us heavy cables this morning, but showed their interest in wheat by taking 750,000 bushels yesterday for export. They have been in the market again tagay, and on every weak spot they close coatracts. About 350,000 bushels of the 650,000 bushels on the created, and at one time was 750 over July. Room trade rate so bearish they must sell something, and so they sell July when it is relatively 11/2 to 20 below the market. Few tevel-headed businessmen can see much prospect of a profit in such trades unless the situation changes. About 3,000,000 bushels have gone out of Duluth this week, and it is still going as fast as vessel room can be had. Rain is still with us. The rivers are higher than ever and still rising, threatening wide areas of rich lands with destructive overflows, and there is in sight little prospect of improvement. As time goes on it limits the possibilities of a good crop. Corn and oats have shown minch strength. Conditions don't improvement. As time goes on it limits the possibilities of a good crop. Corn and oats have shown minch strength. Conditions don't improve but rather grow worse, and so the market hardens and the bears, who are constantly feeling for the top, in the belief that four hours of sunshine will cause a sharp break, are being forced to cover at a loss. It can hardly be said to be a manipulated market. To buy on these bulges is of course risky, but short sales are more unsafe. If there were any trade in provisions they would sell higher, under the inspiration of the corn market, but to-day, it is so duit that the pit at one time was given up to the errand boys pitching pennies.

ROBERT COCHRAN Member of Toronto Stock Exchange.) PRIVATE WIRES Direct to Chicago Board of Trade and New York Stock Exchange.

Walker & Co. to John J. Dixon & Co.: Wheat has ranged higher to-day early: The local bears sold freely on expectations of finer weather and lower caches, the scalping element following them at the decline. A few outside buying orders came in the market and held it. It then stiffened, and the corn market showing considerable strength the shorts tried to cover, but in so doing caused &c builge and closes at the top. Weather does not show any improvement. United Kingdon cables were lower. Continent were firm with reports of bad weather. A commercial papers ags our surplus more than required for export purposes. While this weather lasts market won't decline much. Corn was higher with cigue brokers selling July, trade big and sealpers playing for reaction. Aithough reseipts of hogs were large and over the estimates, yet prices at the stock yards were higher. Provisions opened easy, but it very soon become apparent that all offerings were being taken care of, and, when shorts attempted to cover they found but little stuff for sale, and the adyance was the result. The market closed strong with good demand and indications point to higher prices.

Henry Allen & Co. to John J. Dixon & Co.: Duiness continues in the scock market and prices show heaviness. As we have lately been pointing out, a pronounced bear feeling has been developed among the traders and all the talent is on the side of trying to mark quotations down. Among the abounding bear points are reports of bonds to be issued by the Rock Island, of new Atchison securities and heavy net losses by the Union Pacific, supplementing these unpleasant factors. Mr. Gould's agents are talking aggressively about what the Mo. Pacific and Union Pacific will of there comes a rate war, and they speak of the rate war as if it were already at hand. Gould himself is sending buil dispatches here, but he is always doing that. He is probably the most cheerful talker Wall-street ever knew, but the unhappy part of it is that his acts do not always agree with his talk. Both Guff From Gotham, here and in London money is abundant and cheap and lower rates are being made on time loans than have been available in several years. Call money is a drug. Commission houses, however, are generally bare of customers, and it looks as if there would have to be some development of consequence to induce the public to show interest or undertake activity in the market; meanwhile, though the owners of securities do not seem to be nervous, long stocks are not coming on the market in appreciable volume.
