

A drunken sailor in riding through the streets, recently, found himself seized with an irresistible propensity to pitch forward, much to his annoyance, and to the complete sacrifice of all horsemanship. Not being able to recover his centre of gravity, and far from suspecting that the cause was connected with himself, he swore the fore-legs of his steed must be shorter than the hind, and actually stopped and measured them. Taking a handkerchief from his pocket, and filling it with stones, he carefully "beated" it to the veritable termination—viz., tail—of his Rottent; then, hitching his trousers and taken a fresh quid, observed with all commendable gravity—"I guess she won't pitch ahead so much now with all that ballast astern."

Ginger.—Ginger grows near Calicut, in Asia, but we have it from the West Indies. It is the root of a plant something like our ush. It does not grow deep, but spreads abroad under the surface. It is dug up when fully grown, and dried as you see it. When preserved, it is boiled with sugar and honey, just as it was dug up green.

The Raleigh, N. C. Register publishes the following marriage: "In Mecklenburg county, Mr. Wm. Anderson to Miss Jane Capps, after an acquaintance of about 12 hours."

The most honorable, the most useful, the most independent of men, is the well-informed farmer, who cultivates his own soil, and enjoys the advantages that health, competence and intelligence are sure to bestow.

DOCTOR SPHON'S SICK HEADACHE REMEDY.

FOR the permanent cure of this distressing complaint, never fails. When resorted to, it effectually removes the system, and does away the causes of the SICK & NERVOUS HEADACHE. Thousands have tried it, and found precisely the relief which the strongest testimonies certify. It is the strongest kind, and from the most respectable persons, are in the possession of the property, some of which have been published, testifying to the permanent cure, and others to the immediate relief given by this remedy. It affords relief to the afflicted in 15 or 20 minutes from the first dose. It taken when the symptoms of an attack are first felt, it prevents the further progress of the complaint, and does not produce any danger at any time by an excessive dose; as in such a case it would only throw off the contents of the stomach, leaving it empty and healthy with an excellent appetite. All afflicted with headache should fail to procure the article, and relieve themselves from so distressing a complaint.

Physicians have in many instances given it to their patients, and in every instance, to our knowledge, with good effect. We have found it a complete cure. Sick and Nervous Headache is a complaint with which physicians do not wish to have anything to do, and generally prescribe only for temporary relief; consequently Dr. Sphon's Sick Headache Remedy, which cures the complaint, which some other proprietary articles most from that source. Try it once and you will regret it. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and contains no mineral, or poisonous drug of any kind, and does not require any change of diet or exercise.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher street N. Y., and by the principal Druggists in the Union. Sold here by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

From the Boston Chronicle, Jan. 10.

"We see by an advertisement in another column that Messrs. Comstock & Co. the Agents for Oldridge's Balm of Gilead, have deputies to sell that article in Boston and elsewhere. We know a lady of this city whose husband is so much afflicted with this complaint, that he is unable to perform his ordinary duties, considering that they lookened a most miserable disposition, was not in reality very unfortunate. Nevertheless she has found the loss of her husband, and she has now, after a year's fruitless resort to medical restoratives, purchased, some months ago, a bottle or two of Oldridge's Balm, and she has now regained her rich profusion, glossy, and of raven blackness. We are not puffing—none of the commodity has been sent to us, and indeed we do not want any, for though we were obliged to wear a wig a year ago, we have now, through the virtue, hair enough, and of a passable quality, its own."

DARING FRAUD.

The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Let it never be purchased or used unless it have the name of L. S. COMSTOCK & CO. on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.

Address COMSTOCK & CO. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher street, N. Y., and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

TO THE BALD HEAD.

This is to certify, that I have been told about twenty years, and by the use of the genuine BALM OF COLUMBIA, my head is now covered with hair. I desire to certify to you the fact that will call and see me at St. Andrews. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case & Co.'s store, who had it from Comstock & Co.

Dulhi, July 17, 1839. Sold by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

DR. BARTHOLOMEW'S PINK EXpectorant SYRUP.

THE cases of consumption are so numerous in all the northern latitudes, that some remedy as a preventive should be kept by every family constantly on hand, to administer as the first approach of cough and cold. This Expectorant Syrup will in every case prevent the complaint. It is quite impossible for any person ever to have consumption who will use this remedy on the first approach of cough and cold in the side, and in many instances it has cured when physicians had given up the cases as incurable.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher street N. Y., and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

JUDGE PATTERSON.

Read the following from Judge Patterson, for thirty years the first Judge of the County in which he lives.

Middleton, N. J., March 12, 1840.

Messrs. Comstock & Co. Gentlemen—You are at liberty to make such use of the following certificate as you deem will best serve the purposes for which it is intended.

[CERTIFICATE OF JUDGE PATTERSON.]

I hereby certify that my daughter has been afflicted with sick headache for the space of about 20 years, the attacks occurring once in about two weeks, frequently lasting 24 hours, during which time the prostrations have been so severe, as apparently to deprive her of life. And after having tried almost all other remedies in vain, I have been induced as a last resort to try Sphon's Headache Remedy as sold by you; and to the great disappointment and joy of herself and all her friends, found very material relief from the first dose of the medicine. She has followed up the directions with the article, and in every case when an attack was threatened has found immediate relief, until she is now permanently cured. The attacks are now very seldom, and disappear almost immediately after taking the quantity directed. A hope that others may be benefited by the use of this truly invaluable medicine, has induced me to send you the above, and remain your obedient servant.

J. M. PATTERSON, Jr.
Judge of the Court of C. P.

LOOK OUT!

CAUTION to the Parent of Safe. AN ATTACK of the PHLEGS may be positive, if prevented by using (when the premonitory symptoms are felt) the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT. There are more than one hundred people in this city, and in the United States an immense number, who have suffered beyond endurance by this dreadful complaint, who keep themselves wholly free from attacks by applying this Liniment when they feel any symptoms of its approach:—It is None Genuine, without the name of Coxworth & Co. written on the wrapper.

Sold at No. 2 Fletcher street, N. Y. and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

HEWES' NERVE AND BONE LINIMENT.

THIS article is offered to the public as a never failing cure for the Rheumatism, and it has for a number of years assisted its reputation, and accompanied cases which had defied the power of every other article. In acute and recent cases, the relief is invaluable, after one or two applications of the Liniment, and in chronic Rheumatism, the cases of cure are numerous. It is truly a remedy that reaches the nerve and bone with the most happy effect.

Sold wholesale and retail by Comstock & Co. Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher street N. Y. and by Dr. McSTAY, Saint Andrews.

HAVE YOU A COUGH?

Do not neglect it!—Thou shalt have met a premature death for the want of a little attention to a common cold.

Have you a cough?—Rev. Dr. Bartholomew's Expectorant Syrup, a safe medical prescription containing no poisonous drugs, and used in an extensive practice for several years, will most positively afford relief, and save you from that awful disease pulmonary consumption, which usually sweeps into the grave, hundreds of the young, the old, the fair, the lovely and the gay.

Have you a cough? Be persuaded to purchase a bottle of this Expectorant Syrup today!—Tomorrow may be too late.

Have you a cough? Bartholomew's Expectorant Syrup is the only remedy you should take to cure you.

For this plain reason:—That in no one of the thousand cases where it has been used, has it failed to relieve.

For sale at the drug store of Comstock & Co. 2 Fletcher street, near Pearl, and at nearly all respectable Drug Stores, and Dr. McSTAY, St. Andrews.

ASK, INQUIRE—ASK THOSE WHO KNOW.

THOSE ONLY who know by TIRAL and immediate observation, can form any idea of the effects of this perfect relief, of the almost charm like cures effected in cases of the PHLEGS, RHEUMATISM, ALL SWELLINGS, and ALL EXTERNAL INFLAMMATIONS, by the use of HAYS' Liniment. Find one who has used it, and you will find what cannot be found.

For the relief of suffering human beings who may be afflicted, I beg you to ask—ask of those who know—ask MATTHEW J. MYERS, Esq. Athens, N. Y., ask Gen. DUFF GREEN, late of Washington city, each of these gentlemen know of cases cured by the use of HAYS' Liniment. Thousands of other persons know similar cases. We appeal to their sense of justice—their human feelings.

It is a duty you owe to your suffering fellow beings to let this great remedy be known. Speak of it then to all your friends. This will save much pain where the newspapers are not read, or where remedies are not used, because so many worthless articles are advertised for the same purpose. To buyers we say, if all who have used it do not say it is beyond all praise, then do not take it. The proper relief will follow, and you will be paid for articles it cures, when all the directions are fully followed. Will any one suffering refuse now to try it? If he does he ought to be paid more for his obstinacy than his suffering.

We would never consent to offer this article, were he not compelled by his sense of moral—of religious duty—to do all in his power for the victims of distress and misery. For this purpose we would sooner remove a limb, than cause a dollar for any worthless article.

LOOK OUT!—Some swindlers have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—if it is the name of COMSTOCK & CO., that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you, and test by that, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine.

WHO WILL GO BALD?

Read the following:—ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below, to the high character of the following gentlemen. The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but also a certain restorative.

W. M. THATCHER, senior,
Methodist Minister in Saint George's charge,
No. 86 North Fifth street.

John D. Thomas, M. D. 163 Race street,
John S. Furey, 101 Spruce street,
Hugh McCurdy, 243 South 7d street,
John Gard, Junior, 123 Arch street.

The aged, and those who persist in wearing wigs, may not always experience its restorative qualities, yet it will certainly cause its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

[From the Mayor.]
Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.)

I, ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor of said city of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs J. P. Ingalls, John S. Furey and Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of upright character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the city to be affixed, to the (S. L.) sixth day of December, &c.
