

Newport Series.

A delightful series of stories of modern life by well-known authors.

A Woman with a Future.

By MRS. ANDREW DEAN, author of "The Grasshoppers."

The London Athenæum describes Mrs. Dean as one of the most brilliant satirists of the day.

A Master of Fortune.

By JULIAN STURGIS, author of "John-a-Dreams," "Comedy of a Country House," etc.

A charming love-story with the scenes laid on both sides of the Atlantic.

One Day's Courtship.

By ROBERT BARR, author of "A Woman Intervenes," "In the Midst of Alarms," etc.

Mr. Barr is a born story-teller, and his novels, which are marked by fresh and original humor, are always readable.

A Full Confession.

The story of the adventures of an English schoolgirl who elopes from a French convent and has many adventures in consequence, which, however, end happily.

Each volume, with frontispiece, tall 16mo, green buckram, 75 cents.

For sale by all booksellers, or sent postpaid.

FREDERICK A. STOKES COMPANY,
PUBLISHERS,

27 & 29, West 23d Street, New York.