

ENERGY.

For Everyone.

Entered at Berlin, P. O. as second class mail matter.

VOL. 1.

BERLIN JULY, 1899.

NO. 3.

OUR ILLUSTRATION,

The half-tone on our cover page is a splendid likeness of Frank Lamonte one of our local racers. He rides a Red Bird and is doing some fast work. At Maetou, Ont., he recently won a gold medal, finishing first in a race in which many riders from different parts of Ontario competed. He also finished first in the last race run in Berlin. His starter is Mr. Alvin Shaw, who is the local representative of the Gould Bicycle Company.

He Liked to Knit.

"Come little boy" his grandma said,
"Upon this chair you'll sit,
And hold the worsted in your hands,
And help your grand-ma knit."
"Oh, yes" the little boy replied,
And smiled a little bit:
"There's nothing I like more to do
Than help my grandma. —NIT!"

Stub Ends of Thought.

When an owl falls in love he knows what to do, to wit: to woo.

The hair on a horse's neck is its mane protection.

"Wimmin' is mighty similar in wan particular. No matter how mony of thim you gets aquaited wid they're all aloike in being diffrunt from wan another.

Everything about a rattlesnake keeps cool in time of danger except its tail. That gets rattled.

A Texas man was arrested for riding a mule on Sunday. It was another man's mule by the way.

Goodwin Sands, on the coast of Kent, are so named because they, in the reign of Edward the Confessor, formed part of the lands belonging to Earl Godwin, which in the next two reigns were swallowed up by the sea.