

The Crook City, Nebraska, Tribune has passed into the hands of Messrs. Wm. R. Snider and John Stone. The name of this journal will be changed to the Black Hills Miner.

The Campbell Press Manufacturing Company have a telegraph wire from their office, 39 Beekman street, New York, to their factory, Wythe avenue, Hewes and Penn streets, Brooklyn.

The printing business is very dull in New York. "Bulletin board compositors" are willing to entertain propositions to work in the country, and are not over-particular as to prices.

The question of holding Union meetings on Sunday, to allow daily paper hands an opportunity to attend, was to have been settled at an adjourned meeting of the Boston Union the first week in November.

Frank E. Cambridge, a compositor on the Boston daily Globe, died on the 25th October from hemorrhage of the bowels, and was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Chelsea. A mother, brother, wife and one child mourn their loss.

The proprietors of the Pilot are ready to pay another dividend of ten per cent. to the poor people who lost their money by the failure of Donahoe's bank. On Wednesday, the 5th of November, this dividend will be paid to the depositors at the Pilot office.

A news-woman, who for many years has sold the daily papers in the streets of New York, died recently worth $75,000—the result of frugal life, and fortunate real estate investments. There is no need of asking "What shall we do with our girls?" any more. Set them all selling papers.

Business has slightly improved in Chicago, but there are more than enough printers to supply the demand. Most of the offices are non-Union, only three daily paper and a few weekly and job offices being controlled by the Union. Prices—Union, 35 to 40 cents; non-Union, 25 to 35 cents.

THE NEW TESTAMENT IN MANUSCRIPT.—Mrs. W. T. Rose, says the Courier-Journal, Louisville, Ky., has a complete copy of the New Testament in manuscript, written by Mr. Rose during his leisure moments in the years 1841-42. It is very exactly copied, beautifully written, neatly bound, and is not defaced by a single blot.

There is a little daily newspaper published in Monroe, La., in the handwriting of the editor by an electric pen, the whole edition being duplicated from the first manuscript. News, telegrams, editorials and advertisements are all in writing. It is called the Daily Electric Letter, and it is the first of the kind. One such is plenty.

The assignment of Frank Leslie, for the benefit of his creditors, with schedule annexed, has been filed in New York. The total liabilities are set down at $336,134.55; nominal assets, $230,308.65; actual assets, $75,166.93. The assets are principally composed of periodical publications. The personal assets are estimated at $3,300, and the real estate at $27,817.18.

The following circular has been received from Denver, Colorado, and explains itself:—

DENVER, COL., Nov. 5, 1877.

At the regular meeting of Denver Typographical Union, No. 49, held November 3rd, the Secretary was ordered, in view of the positive and universal depression in our branch, to advise, urge and entreat all printers to stay away from Denver, as the outlook is anything but encouraging, while there are at present over seventy printers to fill the places of thirty-five.

Fraternally,

A. P. HOLBROOK,
Cor.-Secretary.

IN MEMORIAM.—At a special meeting of the Worcester Typographical Union, the following resolutions were adopted:—

Whereas, This Union is called to mourn the death of one of its members, David Hanna, who departed this life on the 11th Oct.; therefore

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Hanna the Worcester Typographical Union has lost a member who was thoroughly devoted to its principles, and whose record as a Union printer is without a stain.

Resolved, That we sympathize with his family in their affliction.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, that they be entered upon the records of the Union, and that they be published in the daily Spy and the daily Press.
