THE SECOND ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CHURCH UNION.

On reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the second annual meeting of the members and friends of this society will take place On Tuesday evening next the 1st June. It is not stated where the meeting will take place but the St. Lawrence Hall being engaged for that day it will probably take place in the city Hall as it did last year.

We are glad to perceive this determination to give the society more than an ephemeral existence, as success in the great object aimed at can only be attained by steady and patient perseverence in action, and although the Society is young and has hitherto been limited in its operations there can be no doubt that from its labours much practical good has resulted, and by their continuance and extension much more may be effected. We hope that there may be a full attendance at the meeting of all those who concur in the objects of The Church Union, the chief of which is the preservation of the Reserves to those Christian denominations who desire to appropriate that share of the Clergy Reserves, to which they are entitled under the act of 1840, to the purpose of religious worship and Public instruction in Canada, in the manner they think best calculated to promote such a sacred object.

CATHARINE HAYES.

Fame has not exaggerated this wondrously gifted vocalist. Without attempting any analysis of her performances on Monday evening, we may simply observe that both as an operatic and ballad singer she can lay claim to qualities of the very highest order. The scientific were delighted with her finished and faultless execution, whilst the uninitiated in music owned by their tears the syren's power over the finest sympathies of our nature.

ENGLISH SUMMARY.

Lord John Russell, the pretended champion of Protestantism against Puseyism and the "mummeries of Popery,"—has admitted, in the House of Commons, that he once offered a seat in the Irish Privy Council to the late Romish Archbishop Murray;—just what might have been expected from that sort of opposition to the "mummeries of Popery," for which Lord John has distinguished it. distinguished himself.

It is said that the Episcopal Synod of the Church of Scotland has decided, by 4 to 2, to recommend to the Diocesan Synods to admit the laity to a share in their

The bishopric of Christ Church, New Zealand, has been conferred upon the Rev. John Philip Gell, M.A., Curate of St. Mary's Church, Bryanstone-square, and formerly Warden of Christ College, Tasmania. The new Diocese of Christ Church will comprise the districts some time since assigned to the Diocese of Lyttelton, and to which the Rev. Thomas Jackson was nominated the first Bishop. Mr. Jackson, however, was not consecrated not consecrated.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, on moving the second reading of the Colonial Bishops Bill, said,—It is right that I should briefly state to your lordships the object which it has in view, especially as it might be supposed, by the title, to have reference to an imporsupposed, by the title, to have reference to an important subject which must, at some not very distant time be brought under your Lordships' consideration—I mean the Ecclesiastical government in our colonies. The present Bill, however, is merely of a technical nature, and is intended to remove an inconvenience which was not contemplated when the Act was passed for creating the Sees of Madras and Bombay.

By that Act, and 4 William IV., it was enacted that the Bishops of Madras and Bombay shall not "have or use any jurisdiction, or exercise any episcopal functions whatever, except such as are limited to them in the letters patent by which they were created." Then, further, use any jurisdiction, or exercise any episcopal functions whatever, except such as are limited to them in the letters patent by which they were created." Then, further, by the 55th of Geo. III. c. 60, and 3 and 4 Victoria, c. 33, it was enacted "that no person ordained by a Colonial Bishop not at the time possessing episcopal jurisdiction should be capable of officiating as a Minister of the Established Church." Now, it is unquestionably proper that a Bishop should not exercise jurisdiction beyond the limits of the See to which he is appointed, but there is no reason why he should not exercise cpiese pai functions, as our Bishops at home are constantly doing, by commission from their brethren. This, however, the Colonial Bishops cannot at present do, by the letter of the statute, without subjecting themselves to the penalty of misdemeanour. The object of the present Bill is solely to remove this inconvenience, and to allow a Colonial Bishop who may have retired from his Diocese, or who may be temporarily sojourning in another Diocese, to assist his brethren without violating the law or performing an act which shall be invalid. This, my lords, is the purport of the Bill to which I have now to request your lordships to give a second reading.

After a few words from the Earl of Desart and the Bishop of London, the Bill was read a second time.

He had no hesitation in adding, however, that the Government though it their duty, without loss of time, to take such steps, in consequence of that correspondence, as the correspondence appeared to them to render necessary.

Accordingly on Friday the 14th, a very respectable congregation with many friends of the Church assembled together at the Wesleyan Chapel, which has always been freely opened for our use, and after Divine worship, proceeded to the spot where the ceremony was to be performed, and the proper persons having duly adjusted and laid the stone, the whole company joined in singing the 100th Psalmu, after which Mr. Hill from a wagon and expired in consequence. — Monday being the birthday of our gracious sovereign, was observed as a general holiday in this quarter of the Propince; In Toronto there were a cricket match, and a
