THE DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES AT THE CONVENT OF OUR LADY OF THE ANGELS, POINT ST. CHARLES.

The distribution of prizes at the above convent took place on Wednesday, the 27th The Rev. Father Hogan presided. ult. There were also present the Bev. Father Bouleau, cure of St. Charles, P. S. Murphy, Erq., School Commissioner, and a few other gentlemen. On entering the beautiful hall, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion, there were assembled about three hund. red children, varying in age from five years up to fifteen, who showed by their neat and tidy appearance that their parents spare no trouble in their regard. The programme was then gone through, which consisted of a grand march played on two planos and parlor organ by Mary Jane Fennell, Victoria Lomas, Julia Meighan and Hattle Holland. These young ladies' playing reflects great credit on the training they have received from the good Sisters in the musical art. Then followed a piece called "The Crowning of the Queen of Boses." This charming little drama was performed by about thirty children; the prin-cipal actors were Mary Jane Fencell, Hattie Hollaud, Maggie Foley, Victoria Lomas, Julia Meighan, Kate King and Mary Quinn, and who certainly sustained their parts in a most graceful manner. There were other musical pieces, after which commenced the distribution of prizes when the lucky recipients advanced to receive their reward from the hands of their beloved pastor. The Rev. Father Hogan then addressed the children, impressing upon their young minds the necessity of spending their vacation in a proper manner; and not to forget the lessons of plety and wisdom they have learned from the good Sisters of Noire Dame. Father Bouleau spoke in French in s similar manner. The children then broke up for the holidays. sculptor, Mr. M. J. O'Brien, of St. Catherine street. The altars have been constructed of pure white marble, their finish having engaged the personal attention and employed the handloraft of Mr. O'Brien, to whom they do infinite justice. The arcades beneath the high altar, forming "the tomb," in which are to be placed re-presentations of the Saviour and the four evangelists, introduce the horseshoe design, the centre arcade, however, being exactly semi-circular, the two styles of arch being admirably blended. On either side, supporting the receding arches, are "royal red" marble columns, the material having been obtained from Messrs. J. & W. Barney, of Swanton, Vt. The door is of bronze doree. specially imported from France. On the front of the grades on either side the tabernacle are sculptured emblems of bread and wine. The back of the altar comprises semicircular arcades on either side, with stilted arches at the corners, flaishing in pointed architecture, surmounted with fieurs de lys. On the retable are also carved the embleme of the passion, the crown of thorns, the nails and the column of flageliation, together with the scourges. The canopy is octagonal in shaps and is supported on six red marble columns with handsome capitals, the two front projections of the arch flaishing in finely sculptured drops. On the other side of the canopy are very handsome sculptures, the ribbing and panelling being remarkable for their elaboration and finish. In the background of the interior of the canopy have been worked in relief, "the Jehovah" in the centre and the words "Sanctus, Sanctus, Dominus, Deus Sabaoth," with the monogram of the Baviour and the Blessed Virgin on either side and finished in carvings peculiar to the style. The side altars are in every respect in accord DeGroesbriand, assist. ed by Fathers Toupin and S. Loner-gan, and the altar of the Paternal Father by Mgr. Wadham, assisted by Father Antonne and Boulet of Point St. Charles: After which High Mass was celebrated by Mgr. Duhamel, assisted by the Rev. Father Aubry of St. Johns, as High Priest, together with Bev. Father Troy of the Grand Seminary, as director of ceremo. nies, and Rev. Father Corbeil, director of Notre Dame College, as sub deacon. The ceremonies throughout were most imposing, the nunnery choir furnishing special music for the occasion. The whole ceremony lasted about 4 hours, and was attended by a large number of prominent clergy and laymen.

HOW TWO SOUTHERN GENERALS MEET NEXT JULY.

It is unknown now just what the Cubsn planter said when he saw in the newspaper of the Ever Faithful Isle that his ticket, No. 71,189, had drawn $75,000 in the 156th Grand Monthly Drawing of the Louislana State Lot. tery, at New Orleans, on Tuesday, May 8th. The next drawing (the 158th) will take place on Tuesday, July 10th, when $265,500 will be scattered under the sole management of Gen'ls G. T. Beauregard, of La., and Jubal A. A. Early, of Vs. Any information can be had of M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., on application.

THE PONTIFCAL ZOUAVES.

The Pontifical Zonaves celebrated their annual re-union this year at Joliette. They left by special train on Sunday afternoon, accompanied by the City Band, and on arriving at Joliette were made the guests of the coilege. In the evening they serenaded the Mayor and Corporation for a couple of Yesterday morning at 8.30 they marched to the depot to receive the Quebec contingent, and in mutual compliment the standard-bearers exchanged flags. They then attended High Mass, the sermon being delivered by Rev. Mr. Plamene, of the Legion d Antibes. The annual meeting was held immediately afterwards, Mr. Trudel, of Quebec, being elected President for the ensuing year. At one o'clock the Zouaves were entertained to dinner by the College authorities, and besides the Mayor and Corporation over one hundred clergymen and one hundred and forty Zouaves sat down. Mr. Guilbault, M.P. for the county, presided. Among the principal toasts were The Pope, The Queen, The Episcopacy, and The College, the band playing ap-propriate airs. The Regiment was pro-posed by the Mayor. At 7.30 a dramatic entertainment, Les Kardigans, was given by the members of L'Union Allet, and the regiment embarked on the home journey at 10 o'clock, but owing to the heating of an axle they did not arrive in this city till half past two o'clock

bably would be resented in a manner calculated to reweaken our connection with the mother country. As a preventive of the advent of this autocrat as a ruler in this hitherto happy land, I would suggest that a respectful protest be sent to Mr. Gladstone expressing the sentiments of a great portion of our population on the proposed appointment of the Marquis of Lansdowne as our next Governor-General. Copies of this protest should be sent to every locality in the Dominion where there are even a dozen of the Irish race for their signatures. In cities the national societies would probably undertake the work. In the rural districts there will always be found some one to obtain signatures. If the terms of the protest were properly expressed large numbers of other nationalities would, I think, gladly sign it. In almost every locality the Irish could induce others, and especially their French Canadian neighbors, to express their dislike to the contemplated ap-pointment. In the whole Dominion there could be easily obtained 100,000 signatures, and whilst such a document might serve to prevent one of the hereditary enemiss of our race from receiving a coveted appointment, it would also prove to the English Government that the Irish of the Dominion are not unmindful of the sufferings endured and the cruelties practised upon their unfor-tunate compatriots in the old land.

Lest it should be asserted by some of your contemporaries that it would be presumptuous in the Irish to act in any such manner as herein suggested, I would ask: Suppose Mr. Bradlaugh received the appointment, would there not be protests from some of our citizons? And certainly Mr. Bradlaugh's record is not as objectionable, especially as regards Irish oppression, as the transactions of the Kerry despot.

I trust, if you consider the project feasible, that it will be immediately initiated. I am certain that from the Gatineau district alone you would have from 2,000 to 3,000 signatures. In this township I will guarantee, at least, 200 protests sgainst elevating to a position only next to royalty the enemy and oppressor of our poor suffering countrymen and countrywomen in Ireland. "PRO BONO PUBLICO."

To the Editor of THE POST :

"PRO BONO FUBLICO." To the Editor of THE POFT: MR. EDITOR,-That superior finery is not an index of superior refinement, will strike any one paying a fying visit to the lroquois in-diars. While in the former those colored in-habitants appear quite in keeping with this progressive age, in the latter they are, alas! sadly in arrears. To be convinced of this one has only to spend a Sunday amongst them, especially at this season of the year. The con-gregation attending Divine Service at the Catholic Church, Caughnawaga, just as they issue from the Sacred Edifice, are regularly subjected to a spectacle of a most revoiting character. A Canadian from a neighboring settlement, with apparently as little regard for the Sabath as the poor beast he leads by the halter, takes this opportunity of exhibiting to the popular gaze an unseemly brute which parades immediately in front of the Church. To say that the signt must be disgusting to the congregation is not. I presume, paying too high a tribute to their delicacy of feeling. And yet this thing is allowed to conlinue. To me it seems the exhibitor is not more to blame than those who tolerate his action. Why do not the Chiefs, who would pose as the guardians of public decency in the Reservation, prevent the recurrence of so flagrant an impropriety? There is yet another local nucleance to which I would respecifully invite the attention of those titled functionaries. I refor to a noise-for it can claim no relationship with musical sound-created night after night, by a band of roughs who stalk through the village, raitling in wild confusion all manner of instruments taken from the culinary department, to the accompaniment of vocci yellings no less dis-cordant. For my denunciation of those noctunal orgies, let not your readers think me hypercriti-cel or in any way opposed to youthful pastimes. I can assure them I have as keen a relish for smusement, provided it be of a soemly char-acter, as the wildest Indian th his native woods. I trust the Chiefs will take this hint and y

Practical Business Course--How it is Taught--A Good Showing.

Wednesday last was a gala day at Varennes Commercial College, the occasion being the closing of the exercises of the scholastic year, and the distribution of prizes. A large number of ladies and gentlemen from Montreal, in response to the invitation of the college authorities, were present, and assisted in the examination of the graduating class, which has been, and will continue to be, under the direction of Prof. J. H. Fitz. simmons, formerly of Masson College, Terrebonne. The examination of this class, the principal one in the institution, showed the pupils to have attained a high state of excellence in a commercial course. The trial at mental calculation they were subjected to proved their training in that particular study, to be as near perfect as possible. For instance, the Professor would give a problem in interest and not a moment would elapse before he had a correct answer. Mr. Massue, M. P., also asked several questions which were satisfactorily answered. The course of commercial education given at Varennes is most practical, samples of dry goods and other lines, are in daily uso by the pupils in order to make them familiar with the quality and value of the goods, and at the same time given them a correct understanding as to how to carry on a business. A banking house is also a feature, which also familiarizes the pupils with the business of banking and accounts. Altogether the system is most thoroughly practical, and under the professorship of Mr. Fitzsimmons, so well known in Oansdian educational institutions, the pupil cannot help acquiring a good knowledge of business.

OBITUARY.

DUBLIN, July 2 .- Rev. Thomas N. Burke, the weil known priest and lecturer, died yesterday at Tallaght Convent, Ireland. London, July 3-The Right Rev. John Strain Catholic Archbishop of St. Andrew's and Edinburgh, Scotland, is dead, aged 73. Very Rev. Thomas Walsh, Vicar-General of the Diocese of Hartford, Conn., died at his residence on July 2nd. The event was entirely unexpected. He was 54 years of age.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. James Whelan who died Thursday atternoon, June 28th, at his residence No. 63 Murray street. The deceased gentleman was 63 years of age, and for the last 30 years has been a faithful employee of the firm of W Clendinneng & Qo., the well known stove manufacturers. He was for 25 years the sexton of St. Patrick's Church, where his great urbanity made him an especial favorite. Mr. Whelan leaves a wife and three children, two of whom are employed in this city, one in the General Post Office and the other in a leading dry goods store. His daughter is a member of the Sisters of Morcy at Putnam, Conn. She, with the Mother Superior of the Convent, were here to attend the funeral, which took place on Sunday afternoon, at two o'clock, and was very largely attended.

The many friends of Michael Doyle, J.P. Lowe, will learn with deep regret of his great bereavement in the death of his beloved wife, which sud event occurred quite unexpectedly on the 19th of June, after a few hours illress. The lamented deceased was the only daugh-ter of the late Martin O'Malley, J.P., and was called to her reward at the early age of 35 years. Mrs. Doylo lived a most exemplary life, and was very highly cateemed by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, and it is no exaggeration to say that her death has cast a gloom on the whole community. The deceased lady was a constant benefactor to the Lowe Catholic Church, and from the time that the first steps were taken towards erecting a church in Lowe to her death she never ceased her unwearied exertions in its behalf, and if Lowe has now one of the prattlest rural churches in the diocese of Ottawa, the merit must in a large measure be ascribed to the late Mrs. Doyle. Her latest benefaction was the obtaining of two very handsome statnes of the Blessed Virgin and St. Joseph, which through her efforts were procured during last year. She was also generous to the church in the person of the clergy, and our pastors (who reside in Wakefield) have during the past twenty years, when attending in Lowe twice a month, experienced her generosity, for they always found an Irish welcome at Mr. Doyle's; and although from the preparations made for their recention. as well as for the reception of his Lordship when on his episcopal visitation, they must

A PROTEST AGAINST THE APPOINT. MENT OF LANSDOWNE.

To the Editor of THE POST and TRUE WITNESS.

DEAR SIR.-You have done good service to the country by placing in its preper light the unenviable record of our future Governor-General, Lord Lansdowne, in his threefold espacity of landlord, legislator and magistrate.

It may be safely assumed that a very large proportion of the citizens of this Dominion would decidedly object to be under the sway of a Viceroy whose hands are imbrued with the blood of their kindred. Besides the Irish element, there is doubtless a large share of other nationalities who would prefer our next Viceroy to be a worthy successor to the present holder of the office, or his predecessor, instead of a Shylock who always insisted on having his pound of flesh from the seris who were so unfortunate as to be his tenants, and who is a perfect type of the class whom Gladstone denominated as robbers.

As the $50,000 (besides perquisites) which is paid yearly to our Viceroys comes out ef the pockets of the governed, so it is not unreasonable if the people respectfully request that the incumbent of that exaited position should not be one who, in another-sphere,

There is also the danger that in conse.

When your corns ache don't take the first article offered you, but find out just the thing to answer your purpose, viz., to remove the troublesome corns, and to do this without pain, and do it promptly, Put. nam's Painless Corn Extractor has been used for many years. pense, yet this true-hearted Irish couple would never accept any compensation. Thus they have conferred a great benefit, not only on the Key, gentlemen who were its recipients, but also on the congregation of the Mission of Lowe. Her benevolence in the cause of religion was boundless and was only circumscribed by her means, and by her death the poor and the orphans have lost a good friend, whose place will not be easily filled. The relatives of this generous and virtuous woman, in their great affliction, have the sympathy not only of the people of Lowe, but also the adjoining settlements, which was testified by the large concourse, both Protestant and Catholic, who accompanied her re-mains to Wakefield, there being more than filty carriages in the funeral cortege. In the Wakefield Church there was a solemn Requiem Mass celebrated by Father McCarthy, assisted by Father Gay (the former paster of Wakefield and Lowe), after which the improssive funeral service was chanted. Both of the Bev. gentleman showed by their expressiveness that they were celebrating the obsequies of a true friend The following Sunday Father McCarthy when requesting the prayers of the congregation of Lowe Church for the soul of the deceased, was visibly affected and fee lingly alluded to the great loss sustained by the congregation as well as by himself. The Rev. Father was unable to continue his discourse on the sad subject, and concluded a brief but elequent enloginm, by stating that he was convinced that the soul of their benefactor was in the life she so well delighted to honor. We trust all our readers will pray for the repose of the soul of this estimable woman who was (as far as human knowledge can jadge) worthy to hear from her Redeemer the words "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of the Lord."-

NEW YORK .- Mr. James White, 1552 Broad~ way, formerly chief instructor in Dickels' Biding School, in this oity, said to a newspaper reporter : "I broke my shoulder, arm and elbow, splitting the socket in four parts. Rheumatism sot in and I employed the best physician. He tried everything, but I grew worse, and at last he said : 'I have one more thing to try and if that fails nothing can give you relief, and that is St. Jacobs Oll." I used this great pain-reliever, and am able to use my arm, free from all rheumatic-trouble. I have also recommended the remedy to a number of people, and in every case they have been speedily and effectually oured."
