SATURDAY, DEC. 19, 1885.

We take the liberty of sending the NORTHWEST REVIEW to many of our friends to whom we hope it will be acceptable, and to all it will be delivered at the very reasonable cost of $2.50 per year. The reading matter of the NORTHWEST REVIEW is selected with care, and every paragraph will be found interesting. It will compare favorably with weekly papers of the Northwest and we believe it deserves a warm support, especially among Catholics. We trust our friends will help to increase the circulation of the NORTHWEST REVIEW by sending in their names with the subscription fee mentioned, to the office, corner of McDermott and Arthur streets, Winnipeg.

WHERE TO BUY A CHRISTMAS GIFT.

Grand Display of Goods at Moore's China Hall

THE MAMMOTH STORE OF NORTHWEST

Read This Column and Learn How To Make Somebody's Heart Glad.

The Christmas Season offers an opportunity to show our generosity, and it is well known that the people of Winnipeg are not wanting this beautiful disposition and the Northwest, to canvas for the there has always been a large trade in the city at this season of the year, the heavy mails to the east during the holidays last year, which were principally presents to "absent friends" testifies abundantly to the generosity of the Sundays-Masses at 7.30 and 10 a.m. people of Winnipeg. and we here say to our readers that if they have not thought what to buy for Christmas presents to read this article, and if you have thought why read it just the same and you may change your mind.

MOORE'S CHINA HALL There is not a man woman or child in this city who does not know Moore's Wonderful Store. This brilliantly lighted establishmet with its many colored lamps and shades, its dazzling crystals, and glittering reflectors is very suggest ive of tales of enchantment enacted on the stage, and Moores China Hall has became a household world, and is certainly a great credit to the enterprising and courteous proprietors. It is safe to say that this store with its monstrous and varied stock of goods, suitable for holiday presents is not surpassed (if equalled) on this continent. It is also a well known fact that at this season Mr . Moore makes an annual mark down and this is what everyone has been waiting for. The reduction in C. P. R. freight rates has enabled the firm to make a sweeping reduction in many lines, and now is the time to buy what you want. We all know that "time flies". We should not put off this chance of a present till the last moment; our dreams will be more pleasant and our thoughts happier knowing that we have a surprise in store for some one. The housekeeping department of Moore's China Hall is replete with everything of the latest and most necessary of requisites, and is just the place to get a nice useful present. There are lamps of all kinds, including the new electric lamp, superb dinner and tea services, handsome brackets, magnificent hanging lamps, glassware and all kinds of crockery and equailed in the city. There is a collecbrought into Winnipeg. Most of them Rodgers work, fancy cups and saucers, were raised by Mayor Claxton, of Glad- massive table lamps, an endless variety of hanging ornaments, besides some beautiful statuary in Belgian marble, as ware, and as Kiota splendid colection of canary birds, all sinto fail being pleased in this department, both as to price and quality. Then there is a magnificent display of plush goods, ladies and gents' dressing cases, frames, etc., work-boxes and baskets, companions, meerschaum pipis, cigar holders sleighs, drums, dolls by the hundreds, cutters, toboggans, express wagons, and multitudes of other things, all suitable for holiday presents, are on exhibit, and guaranteed to please the most fastidious. In Moore's $75,000 stock representing as it does the products of the manufacto distance from Winnipeg will do well to ries of every land, and embracing every trade, style, and novelty one is sure to get the very identical thing to please a friend. There is also in connetion with this vast establishment, a wholesale department, and readers will certainly do well to consult Messrs. Moore & Co. for anything they may require in their line. They making a speciality supplying the outside trade and guarantee every satisfaction in price and goods. Don't forget
