SUMMER VACATIONS.

It is wise to plan out your vacation beforehand. If you are teaching in the country you should go to the seashore. If you are teaching in a seaboard town you should go inward.

The Intercolonial Railway can give you the choice of a great number of places from St. John, on the Bay of Fundy and the Atlantic Ocean from St. John to Sydney, the great boom town in the glorious summer land of Cape Breton, and from Shediac to Quebec, on the Gulf and River St. Lawrence, and Montreal.

This railway goes through a country unrivalled for beauty of scenery. It has the smoothest road-bed and finest equipment of any railway in this part of the world.

NOTHING speaks like

EXPERIENCE.

If the above statement be true, and we believe it to be, then the call to total abstainers to look for more favorable terms or for separate classification when insuring their lives is a very strong call, for all experience alike shows that being better risks than non-abstainers, they should have better terms on non-profit rates of separate classification for profits.

We will give the mortality experience of a number of companies in successive future issues of this paper, to show how great an advantage abstainers have over non-abstainers in the way of more favorable mortality.
