

7. In previous years, the Export Permit Branch recovered subsidies, equalization fees and freight assistance on behalf of the Commodity Prices Stabilization Corporation, the Canadian Wheat Board and the Agricultural Prices Support Board on export shipment. During the year, the Commodity Prices Stabilization Corporation discontinued the payment of subsidies and arrangements were made under which the Canadian Wheat Board and the Department of Agriculture collected equalization fees and freight assistance direct. As a result only $15,548.00 was collected by the Export Permit Branch, compared with $2,992,786.94 in 1946.

8. Statistical Summary re Export Control

Applications for Export Permits during the year 1949.....75,570
 Permits issued during the year (including applications received 1948 and processing completed 1949..... 74,724
 Applications refused or withdrawn as not required..... 1,144
 Collection of Subsidy Refunds, Equalization Fees, etc.

|  |             |
|--|-------------|
| Canadian Wheat Board.....                        | $14,467.56 |
| Agricultural Board.....                          | 220.00      |
| Commodity Prices Stabilization Corporation ..... | 860.44      |

During the year under review, legislation was passed extending the Export and Import Permits Act to July 31, 1951.