

ARTICLE IX (Cont'd)

provisions established by the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) and designated as Annexes to the extent that such security provisions are applicable to the Contracting Parties; they shall require that operators of aircraft of their registry, operators of aircraft who have their principal place of business or permanent residence in their territory, and the operators of airports in their territory act in conformity with such aviation security provisions. Each Contracting Party shall notify the other Contracting Party of its intention to file a difference from the ICAO aviation security standards.

5. Each Contracting Party agrees that its operators of aircraft may be required to observe the aviation security provisions referred to in paragraph 4 above required by the other Contracting Party for entry into, departure from, or while within the territory of that other Contracting Party. Each Contracting Party shall ensure that adequate measures are effectively applied within its territory to protect aircraft, to screen passengers and their carry-on items, and to carry out appropriate checks on crew, baggage, cargo and aircraft stores prior to and during boarding and loading.

6. Each Contracting Party shall give sympathetic consideration to any request from the other Contracting Party for reasonable special security measures to meet a particular threat.

7. Each Contracting Party shall also give sympathetic consideration to a request from the other Contracting Party to
