

Buenos Aires, February 8, 1991

Excellency:

I have the honour to refer to the discussions between our officials concerning the employment of dependents of officers of one Government assigned to official duty in the other country and wish to propose an Agreement between the Government of Canada and the Government of Argentina in the following terms:

1. The two Governments agree that, on the basis of reciprocity, dependents of officers of one Government assigned to official duty in the other country as members of a diplomatic mission, members of a consular post, or members of a mission to an international organization will receive authorization to accept employment in the receiving State.

2. In this Agreement:

- (i) "officer means (a) diplomatic and consular personnel; (b) other government personnel attached to diplomatic and consular missions and missions to international organizations; and, (c) administrative, technical and support staff;
