

3. The Requesting State shall observe any conditions imposed by the Requested State in relation to any seized documents, records or things which may be delivered to the Requesting State.
4. No item seized shall be transferred to the Requesting State until that State has agreed to such terms and conditions as may be required by the Requested State, including protection of third party interests in the item to be transferred.

ARTICLE 11

Transfer of Detained Persons to Give Evidence or Assist Investigations

1. A person in the custody of the Requested State whose presence in the Requesting State is sought for the purpose of giving evidence or assisting investigations shall be temporarily transferred by the Requested State to the Requesting State for that purpose if the person consents and if the Central Authority of the Requested State agrees.
2. Where the person transferred is required to be kept in custody under the law of the Requested State, the Requesting State shall hold that person in custody and shall return the person in custody at the conclusion of the execution of the request, unless otherwise agreed by both Central Authorities.
3. Where the sentence imposed expires, or where the Requested State advises the Requesting State that the transferred person is no longer required to be held in custody, that person may be expeditiously returned to the Requested State or be set at liberty and be treated as a person present in the Requesting State pursuant to a request seeking that person's attendance.
4. The Requesting State shall be responsible for making all necessary arrangements for the transit of transferred person through third countries.
