QUEBEC-GRADUATED ENTRY PROGRAM

An industrial milk producer qualifies for graduated entry into the fluid milk market if he has:

- 1) been in production two years prior to application
- 2) farm premises and milk meeting provincial standards,
- 3) a bulk tank.

then fluid quota allotted will be:

- 4) a fluid quota equal to 60% of the Market Share Quota held prior to the date of application but,
 - not more than the average fluid milk quota held by all producers in the province on April 1 of the year of application
- 5) the annual limit of quota that can be allocated to the graduated entry program is equal to 5% of the fluid sales in the proceeding year; there are other provisions which limit the program.

the fluid milk price in February 1976 was $12.30 per hundredweight and;

the industrial milk prices ranged from $8.13 to $8.20 per hundredweight.

NEW BRUNSWICK-GRADUATED ENTRY PROGRAM

An industrial milk producer qualifies for graduated entry into the fluid milk market if he has:

- 1) been in production for two complete and consecutive dairy years prior to application,
- 2) farm and milk meeting provincial standards,
- 3) a bulk tank.

then fluid quota allocated will be:

 equal to average daily production in the dairy year prior to entry.

the fluid milk prices in February 1976 was $12.86 per hundredweight and;

the industrial milk prices ranged from $6.71 to $8.61 per hundredweight.

NOVA SCOTIA—GRADUATED ENTRY PROGRAM

An industrial milk producer qualifies for graduated entry into the fluid milk market if he has:

- 1) farm premises meeting provincial standards.
- 2) a bulk tank.
- 3) been production for two complete and consecutive years prior to date of entry,

then fluid milk quota allocated will be:

- 4) equal to 300 pounds per day,
- 5) OR, 50% of the producers average production during the two qualifying years, whichever is the greater. the fluid milk price in February 1976 was $13.08 per hundredweight and;

the industrial milk price was $8.61 per hundredweight.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND—GRADUATED ENTRY PROGRAM

An industrial milk producer qualifies for graduated entry into the fluid milk market if he has:

- 1) produced milk or cream at least two years prior to application,
- 2) been producing and been licensed to produce Class I or fluid milk,
- 3) a bulk tank.
- 4) made application,

then fluid milk quota allocated will be:

5) based on 80% of the average daily production during the 24 months preceding the date of entry to a maximum of 1,000 pounds per day.

the fluid milk price in February 1976 was $11.57 per hundredweight and;

the industrial milk price was $7.80 per hundredweight.