

Adjournment Debate

levels of government. The uniformity of the standards will mark an important step towards improving pension plans across Canada. Discussions with our provincial counterparts on the subject are expected to start very shortly.

In concluding, Mr. Speaker, I would also like to stress the fact that in the present economic situation, the Budget proposals will help us to maintain economic growth and control the deficit. It is the only way to make it easier for the government to respond to the needs of all Canadians. I would also ask Hon. Members and Canadians in general to consider the general context in which these proposals were made. In addition to controlling the deficit, we will be creating a climate that will foster confidence and economic growth. Mr. Speaker, we are doing all that is humanly possible to protect the interests of present and future generations.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Charest): The motion to adjourn the House is now deemed to have been adopted. Accordingly, the House stands adjourned until tomorrow at eleven o'clock a.m., pursuant to Standing Order 2(1).

The House adjourned at 6.26 p.m.
