

that you propose sending you influence to back an enquiry as I have for and then weigh the argument that you will meet - you will find in it more vehemence than strength.

Should you care to write me on this or any subject I will regard your communications as confidential.

I have the honor to remain,

Sir,

Yours most respectfully,

J. J. Garrison