

The several Professors and other officers of the University shall have such titles of office, and discharge such duties, as may from time to time be assigned to them by the Governors.

2.—The Governors shall constitute such of the Professors, Lecturers, and Tutors, or other Instructing Officers of the University, as they may see fit, into the several Faculties of Law, Medicine, Arts, Applied Science, and Agriculture; and whenever they shall see fit, may also, in like manner, constitute other Faculties; and may, at any time, alter the composition of such Faculties, as they may see fit. Three members of each Faculty shall be a quorum thereof for the transaction of business.

3.—The Governors shall appoint one of the Professors of the Faculty of Arts, to be Vice-Principal of the College and University and Dean of the Faculty of Arts. Such Vice-Principal shall preside at all meetings of the Faculty of Arts, in the absence of the Principal; shall keep its records, or cause them to be duly kept by some other member of the Faculty, and (under the Principal) take general superintendence of its affairs; and, in the absence of the Principal, shall discharge his duties.

4.—The Governors shall appoint a Professor in each of the other Faculties to be Dean of such Faculty. Such Deans shall preside at all meetings of their respective Faculties, in the absence of the Principal; shall keep the records of such Faculties, or cause them to be duly kept by some other member of the Faculty, and (under the Principal) shall take general superintendence of the affairs of such Faculties respectively. In the case of the Faculty of Agriculture, the duties hereinabove imposed upon the Deans of the respective Faculties shall be undertaken by the Principal of Macdonald College.

5.—The several Faculties shall from time to time frame regulations, as occasion may require, touching the details of the course of study and teaching in their respective Departments of the University,—the number, times and mode of
