Authorized by the Chief Supt. of Education, Manitoba.

D. H. SMITH, A.M., Inspector of Schools, Colchester Co., N. S.

"Lewis' 'How to Read,' comes in good time. In no branch of study is there more deficiency displayed than in that of reading. Many of our teachers really appear to have no conception as to how reading should be taught, but by a careful study of Lewis' 'How to Read' they can without any difficulty render themselves fit to give instruction with the utmost satisfaction."

L. S. MORSE, M.A., Inspector Schools, Annapolis Co., N. S.

"Lewis' 'How to Read' treats of a subject which cannot be too highly recommended. Such a work is much needed in our schools. The art of reading effectively has been acquired by few teachers, hence they should procure this work and thoroughly and practically master the rules and principles therein contained."

J. D. MCGILLIVRAY, Inspector of Schools, Co. Hants.

"Lewis' 'How to Read,' is the best drill book in elocution for school use that I have seen. I have read it over with a great deal of care."

C. T. ANDREWS, Inspector for Queen's Co., N. S.

"I have examined 'How to Read,' and have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best little work on elocution for teachers that has yet come under my notice. A thorough drill in the exercises, with due attention to the elementary sounds of the language as illustrated by the author, and an intelligent conception of the principles and suggestions therein given will insure pleasing and expressive reading. It cannot but be hailed with pleasure by every teacher as it supplies a want long felt in our schools, and gives to the important subject of reading its due prominence, as both an art and a science."

A. C. A. DOANE, Inspector of Schools, Shelburne Co., N. S.

"How to Read," is just what is needed, both as a school class book and an aid to teachers in the proper training of pupils in the principles of effective reading.

Rev. JOHN AMBROSE, M.A., Inspector P. Schools, Digby, N. S.

HOW TO READ BY RICHARD LEWIS.—"This book, for the size of it, is the best by far that I have ever seen on the subject."

W. L. DANAGH, Inspector for Cumberland, N. S.

"How to Read is a seasonable publication. As a drill book for expressive reading it supplies a desideratum in our schools. It must be admitted that better teaching on this branch is greatly needed. The work shows skill and is highly creditable to the author."

JOHN Y. GUIM, Broad Cove, Cape Breton, N. S.

"The plan pursued in the arrangements of the work, commencing with elements essential to correct vocalization, and leading gradually on to principles and practice in some of the purest gems of the language, must commend itself to every admirer of clear, expressive English reading. The typographical 'get up' of the work is highly creditable to the enterprising publishers."
