

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

INTRODUCTION.

	PAGE
Brief description of early expeditions to the regions of the St. Lawrence . .	1 to 5

CHAPTER I.

THE DISCOVERY AND OCCUPATION OF THE ST. LAWRENCE VALLEY.

Cartier's first voyage, 1534.....	6
" second " 1535.....	7
Reports at Hochelaga of the Kingdom of Saguenay.....	8
Winter in Canada and return home.....	10
Interest in France at Cartier's discoveries.....	10
Renewed efforts in 1540 after four years' delay.....	11
Spies upon the designs of France.....	12
Cartier sets out on his third voyage, 1541	13
His second winter on the banks of the St. Lawrence.....	13
Cartier disobeys Roberval and returns to France.....	13
Roberval spends the winter in New France.....	15
Failure of his expedition and return to France... ..	16
Summary of results.....	17

CHAPTER II.

THE BIRTH AND GROWTH OF TRADE AND COMMERCE, 1497-1597.

Early voyages to the Newfoundland fishing-banks.....	18
Henry VII's grant of a monopoly to Bristol traders.....	19
Early French effort on the Banks.....	19
The extent of the French fishing industry	19
Cartier and the fishing industry.....	20
Roberval and the fishing industry.....	22
Late arrival of Basque fishermen in the St. Lawrence.....	23
Early French fishing companies.....	23
Statistics of the industry at end of 16th century.....	24
The methods of the fishing industry.....	25
The fishing seasons.....	26
Whale fishing.....	26
Other varieties of fish.....	28
The fishing-trade prepared the way for the fur-trade.....	28
Early barter with the Indians for furs.....	29
Gradual extension of the fur-trade up the St. Lawrence.....	32