

The W. F. M. Society was formed in 1887, with a membership of thirty. And the Christian Endeavor Society was organized in 1892, with 20 active and 15 associate members.

During the present pastorate, six young men in the congregation have studied for the ministry, and are now ordained ministers. James Drummond, of South New-Lynn, Ohio, U. S. A.; Duncan Campbell, of Armstrong, B.C.; Wm. A. Campbell, his brother, for some years a missionary in British Columbia, and at present in Toronto; Henry McCulloch, of Tavistock, Ont.; George McCulloch, his brother, of Duke Centre, Penn., U. S. A.; and Alex. A. Ross, of Penhold, Alberta. There are many others from the congregation, who are office bearers and active workers in the church and Sabbath School where their lot is now cast.

The membership of the church at the induction of the present pastor in 1877 was 103. From that period on till 1896 it gradually increased till it reached 190. From that time the membership began to decrease, on account of the members moving away. As an indication of the many changes that have taken place during those years, there have been 392 received into the membership, while the members who have moved away or have been removed by death are 355, leaving the present membership at 140.

During that same period, that is from 1877, the congregation has contributed for missionary and benevolent purposes,
