DORIS B. WINS FREE-FOR-ALL

Six Races Decided on Closing Day of Ice Races at Montreal.

MONTREAL, Jan. 22.—(Staff special.)—The weather for the wind-up of the ice racing could not possibly have been better. After the postponement yesterday on account of the storm the day was perfect and the track the best of the meeting. There were three races left over from Wednesday, two of them unfinished, and the 214 race that had not been started. These, with the card for the last day, viz., 219 trot, free for all, a long program, and it was past sundown when the final heat was over. Of the unfinished races in the 225 trot, Arawana had two heats and Prince Ingomar one. Woodpoints won the first heat, but Arawana came along and won the final, thus winning the race. This major heat was three races in one week. Miss Alcyone won the unfinished 220 race after Alaine had won the first heat today.

The 214 race was a great betting race. Major Woodworth was the favorite, with Prince Rupert second choice. Before the first heat the field was selling even money against the favorite. The major heat, however, was quite handily. Prince Rupert, laid up so deliberately that he was out on the blind and made the backers of the Major feel nervous. Prince Rupert sold favorite for the final heat and the field against him as good as 3 to 1, but when they met, the word, Hubard, the driver of the Major, set in behind and at the proper time went after the Prince Rupert horse and beat him handily.

The free-for-all did not look too good, although the favorite, Hal B. Jr., was not up to race. Doris B. won, Hal B. Jr. second and Elsworth R. third. Jennie W. won the race to sleighs, with King Gazette second and Sir Thomas third. Summary:
