

9. Every such surety shall be bound by recognizance to be conditioned for the appearance of such person before the same or some other Justice or Justices of the Peace for further examination, or for trial before two or more Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, or for trial by indictment at the proper Court of Criminal Jurisdiction, as the case may be.

Condition of recognizance.

10. Every such recognizance may be enlarged from time to time by any such Justice or Justices or Court to such further time as he or they appoint; and every such recognizance not so enlarged shall be discharged without fee or reward when the party has appeared according to the condition thereof.

Enlarging or discharging recognizance.

11. Any Justice of the Peace may, by summons, require the attendance of any person as a witness upon the hearing of any case before two Justices under the authority of this Act, at a time and place to be named in such summons.

Summoning witnesses.

12. Any such Justice may require and bind by recognizance all persons whom he considers necessary to be examined touching the matter of such charge, to attend at the time and place appointed by him, and then and there to give evidence upon the hearing of such charge.

Binding witnesses over.

13. In case any person so summoned or required or bound as aforesaid, neglects or refuses to attend in pursuance of such summons or recognizance, then upon proof being first given of such person having been duly summoned as hereinafter mentioned, or bound by recognizance as aforesaid, either of the Justices before whom any such person ought to have attended, may issue a warrant to compel his appearance as a witness.

Compelling attendance in case of refusal.

14. Every summons issued under the authority of this Act, may be served by delivering a copy thereof to the party, or to some inmate at such party's usual place of abode, and every person so required by any writing under the hand or hands of any Justice or Justices to attend and give evidence as aforesaid, shall be deemed to have been duly summoned.

Summons to witness, how served.

15. The Justices before whom any person is summarily convicted of any such offence as hereinbefore mentioned, may cause the conviction to be drawn up in the following form, or in any other form of words to the same effect, (varying the wording to suit the case,) that is to say:

Form of conviction.

To wit: } Be it remembered that on the _____ day of _____, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and _____, at _____, in the District of _____, (County or United Counties, &c., or as the case may be) A. O. is convicted before us J. P. and J.R., two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said District (or City, &c.) or me, S. J., Recorder, &c. _____, of the _____ of _____, or as the case may be for that he the said A. O. did (specify the offence and the time and place when and where the same was committed, as the case may be, but without setting forth the evidence), and we the said J. P. and J. R. (or I the said S. J.) adjudge the said A. O. for his said offence to be imprisoned in the _____ (or to be imprisoned in the _____ and there kept at hard labour, for the space of _____; (or we (or I) adjudge the said A. O. for his said offence to forfeit and pay _____,) (here state the penalty actually imposed,) and in default of immediate payment of the said sum, to be imprisoned in the _____ (or to be imprisoned in the _____), and
