

THE PRINCE OF WALES' MARRIAGE.

At a special meeting held at the Globe Hotel, on Tuesday, 10th March, 1863, the following congratulatory address to the Prince was adopted :—

ADDRESS

To His Royal Highness Albert Edward, Prince of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Prince of Wales and Duke of Cornwall, Prince of Saxe Cobourg and Gotha, Duke of Saxony, Great Steward of Scotland, and Lord of the Isles, Duke of Rothesay, Earl of Chester, Dublin and Carrick, Baron of Renfrew, K. G., &c., &c., &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR ROYAL HIGHNESS,—We, the President, Officers and Members of St. George's Society of Toronto, in Canada, in public meeting assembled, most respectfully and humbly desire to express towards your Royal Highness our warm and heartfelt congratulations on the happy occasion of your Royal Highness' marriage.

May this auspicious event in your Royal Highness' life be blessed by the Giver of All Good, and be the beginning of a long, happy and illustrious career; and may it please your Royal Highness to convey to the high and illustrious Princess, your bride, our most dutiful respects and homage.

We subscribe ourselves with the greatest respect your Royal Highness' most dutiful and most obedient humble servants, on behalf of the Society,

W. B. PHIPPS, President.

GEORGE THOMAS, Secretary.

Toronto. 10th March. 1863.

REPLY.

MARLBOROUGH HOUSE. }
26th June, 1863. }

Lieutenant-General Knollys has had the honor of laying before the Prince of Wales the address of the President, Officers and Members of the St. George's Society of Toronto on the occasion of his marriage. His Royal Highness desires to return his sincere thanks for their warm congratulations and good wishes.

To W. B. PHIPPS, Esq., President.