Sacred to the Memory

OF

MAJOR-GENERAL ANDREW BURN.

Born September 8th, 1742, at Dundee, in Fifeshire :

Died September 18th, 1814, at Gillingham, in this County.

Fifty-three Years he served his King and Country

AS A BRAVE AND HONOURABLE OFFICER

in the Corps of Royal Marines :

Forty-three Years he served his God,

as a faithful Soldier of JESUS CHRIST,—

Consistent and conscientious

In the Discharge of every personal and relative Duty :

HE WAS UNIFORMLY

Affectionate as a Husband and a Parent,

Kind as a Master, Exemplary as an Officer,

Constant und sympathizing as a Friend,

Humble and devout as a Christian :

EVER ASCRIBING

All he was in this Life,

AND

All he hoped to be in the next,

TO THE

GRACE OF GOD IN CHRIST.
