

TABLE OF CONTENTS

of the Imperial Federation League—Precedents for Sending the Contingents—History of their Despatch—Patriotic Enthusiasm of the People—Position of Lord Minto, Sir W. Laurier and Sir C. Tupper—Major-General Hutton and the Militia—The Colonial Office and Canada—Gallantry of Canadian Troops in South Africa—Growth of British Sentiment in Canada—Attitude of Quebec and Mr. J. Israel Tarte—Possible Results of the War and of Colonial Participation—A New Empire and a Greater Canada	PAGE 541
--	-------------

CHAPTER XXVIII

A Review of Popular Progress

Growth of Internal Liberty and the Practice of Self-government—The Old-Time Legislatures and the New—French-Canadians and British Institutions—The Toryism of 1800 and the Democracy of 1900—Extension of Education—Journalism and Literature—The Churches and Religion—Growth of the Principles of Toleration—The People and their Social Progress—Development of Patriotism—The Militia and its Growth—Out of Provincialism into Nationality—Canada for Canadians Within the Empire	562
---	-----

CHAPTER XXIX

The Growth of National Prosperity

Trade Between the Provinces—Industrial Expansion—Growth of the Northwest—Wheat Upon the Prairies—Cattle in the Territories—Mineral Wealth of British Columbia and the Yukon—Agriculture and the Position of the Farmer—Mining in Ontario and Nova Scotia—Commercial Expansion—Progress of Canals, Railways and Steamship Lines—Shipping, Banking and Fisheries—Competition and General Progress . . .	597
---	-----

CHAPTER XXX

External Relations of the Dominion

Treaties between Great Britain and the United States—Those of 1783 and 1818—A General Review of the Relations and Mutual Interests of the United Kingdom, Canada and the American Republic—Treaties which Have Failed—Fisheries and Reciprocity—The Behring Sea Arbitration—Canada, Venezuela and the Monroe Doctrine—The Alaska Boundary—American Efforts at Annexation—Canadian Opinion upon the Subject—Feeling Toward the Mother-land—Past Complexities in the Situation—The Present View and Probable Future	620
---	-----