WHO WANTS ANNEXATION?

The Telegram is still suffering from the Mulock hairball, which interferes with its memory and other functions It has revived a possible real estate boom as an objection to the annexation of North Toronto. It also includes The World as a negligible quantity among those elements which may be ignored in the necessity "to surrender to these ambitions for the sake of the larger good," the ambitions being of real estate exploiters who are prepared, says The Telegram fand it ought to know with 18 columns of real estate advertising in last night's paper), to lure homeseakers into the annexed district on the cuarantee that the city will make
