GEN. MAURICE GIVEN COMMAND IN FIELD

Gen. Delma Radcliffe, Formerly of Canadians, Goes to War Office.

London, April 21.—Major-General Frederick Barton Maurice, chief director of military operations at the war office, who has been in France for the past few days, has been promoted, in accordance with arrangements made some time ago, to duties in the field. He probably will be assigned to work in relation to the united command of the British and French armies. His post at the war office will be taken by General Delma Radcliffe, formerly chief staff officer of the Canadian army and chief of the British Military Mission at Italian headquarters. General Radcliffe will take over the weekly interview with newspapermen, which has been a part of General Maurice's duties.

FREIGHTERS CLEAR.

Collingwood, April 21.—The freighters Glenmont, Haponico, Thunder Bay and Atikokan cleared light for Port William yesterday. The freighters Westmont and Midland Prince arrived today from Midland to dry-dock.

ATTACK OF GERMANS BEATEN BY AMERICANS

Paris, April 21.—The text of today's French official statement reads: "Artillery activity continued on the left bank of the Aisne River and also between Montdidier and Noyon. A German raid north of Rheims was repulsed. "The struggle continued throughout the night in the region of Scherpeny. French troops regained nearly all the terrain which had been lost to the Germans. "American troops fighting in this region also repulsed a determined German attack in the same sector. "Several raids were made by French troops on the German positions in Lorraine and in the Vosges."

VETERANS ATTEND SERVICE.

Belleville, April 21.—Members of the Great War Veterans' Association of this city commemorated the second battle of Ypres by attending divine service this morning at the Salvation Army. Commandant McElkenny of Peterboro was the speaker, and his address was most appropriate to the occasion. On Saturday evening the officers held a banquet at Hotel Quinte.

GERMANS DRIVEN BACK AFTER MAKING GAINS

Paris, April 21.—German attacks against the Belgians Saturday resulted in the gaining of some ground by the enemy, who, however, was almost immediately driven back, according to the Belgian official communication tonight. The statement reads: "After a violent bombardment the enemy attacked the Belgian advanced positions between Paschendale, Canal and the great Beveren Dyk, and succeeded in entering some front trenches. He was immediately ejected by a counter-attack. Artillery activity has been noticeable in the Neuport section."

Germany to Grant Safe Conduct To Cargoes for Switzerland

Berne, Switzerland, April 21.—Germany, says a semi-official note published here today, is now disposed to grant under certain conditions, safe conduct to ships carrying American goods, especially grain, for Switzerland, to harbors outside the blockaded zone. The negotiations between Switzerland and Germany still are going on.

HAY BARN BURN.

Belleville, April 21.—Two large barns stored with bales of hay were yesterday destroyed by fire in this city. They were the property of H. E. Fairfield and contained upwards of 76 tons of baled hay. The loss is $2500, partially covered by insurance.

SMALL BRITISH AFFAIRS IMPROVE LINE SOME

London, April 21.—There was no fighting of great importance on the British front yesterday, according to Field Marshal Haig's report from headquarters. The operations were largely confined to small affairs carried out by the British, who succeeded in improving their line a little. The report says: "Successful minor enterprises were carried out by us this morning south of Hebuterne and south of the Scarpe River. We advanced our lines slightly and captured 27 prisoners and three machine guns. "The hostile artillery has been active in the neighborhood of Arette and south of La Bassée Canal. There is nothing further to report from the British front."

STEALS SOLDIERS' MAIL AND GETS THREE YEARS

Belleville, April 21.—Three years in the penitentiary was the sentence imposed upon a young man named Herleht Bowen by Police Magistrate Mason yesterday for the theft of soldiers' parcels from mail bags at the Grand Trunk. Bowen pleaded guilty to the charge, preferred by J. C. Strange, assistant postoffice inspector of Kingston, upon evidence secured by G.T.R. Detective Donovan. The theft occurred last Saturday night at the Grand Trunk station here. The culprit was a car checker in the employ of the G.T.R.

FIRE CATCHES BUILDING CONTAINING DYNAMITE

New Liskeard, April 21.—Fire totally destroyed the residence of John Peckover, a farmer, residing about three miles from here, in Dymond Township, yesterday. The family were at dinner at the time when they discovered the whole upper portion of the dwelling in flames. A strong breeze was blowing, but fortunately the outbuildings were saved. Only a few sticks of furniture were saved. A farm building containing a quantity of dynamite caught fire and exploded, scattering the structure in all directions and shattering the windows in adjoining dwellings.

Prince Lichnowsky Kept Prisoner in Own Chateau

Geneva, Switzerland, April 21.—Prince Lichnowsky, the German ambassador at London up to the outbreak of the war, and the publication of whose secret memorandum, which strongly criticized the German foreign policy, is to bring him soon before the German courts, is virtually a prisoner at his chateau in Silesia. He is now under close surveillance because according to The Dusseldorfer Taegblatt, a plan by which the prince intended to escape to Switzerland before coming to trial has been discovered.

London, April 21.—There has been much criticism in a section of the London press in a section of the London press in the past week of Baron Rothermere, air minister, and the government in connection with the resignation of Maj. Gen. Trenchard and Gen. Sir Alexander Henderson. The Sunday Times and Observer, while paying a warm tribute to both officers, come to the defence of Baron Rothermere. They suggest that the air council was formed on a purely military model, without regard to naval aviation, and that Baron Rothermere is the first man in authority who recognized the need for the air force to develop along its own lines. With this object in view Baron Rothermere decided to form a small strategic council of naval experts. Baron Rothermere took charge of the efficiency of the air ministry has been increased many times over and that he has earned the grateful thanks of the heads of the government.
