NOT ALL OF WORSHIP.
Not all of worship, worship's garb doth wear.
To arch and vault with many a secret
Of hallowed use and childhood sanctity.
Mounts the low hum of measured In solemn, prayerful, and reverent Hard by the window in the brave June A flute-voiced bird (no pinched fan-tic he,
Lodged in a bending, pink acacia tree)
Laughs, sings and laughs, and seeing, finds earth's fair.

Ay, and a child in yonder time-stained new,
Hushed by a careful mother, turning, nings
Round arms about the patient neck, and elings
In sweet, speechless rapture, Heaven's due
Is love, peace—bird's carol, childhood's breast,
And God alone knows which doth praise him best.
—Dora Read Goodale.

Character in Walks.
She is the lady who has charge of one of the most popular of Toronto lunch-rooms. She was watching a file of college girls go out, and, turning to catch the interested gaze of the newspaper woman, she said: "Isn't it funny, the way a woman shows her character, even in the way she walks? You know, I think I can 'size up' a woman the minute she walks into this room, and before she has gone out I am sure of her."
"It's the greatest education in character-reading to be in a position like this, where you see the general public day after day. The well-bred woman walks quietly in, sits down and orders her luncheon cleverly, complains, is courteous to the waiters, and goes out leaving a pleasant impression behind her."
"The ignorant woman flounces in, doesn't like this table, and won't sit there; changes her order, then complains of the service; is rude to the waitress and leaves us all on the ragged edge for an hour."
"You can tell in a minute whether a woman is traveled or has never been in a restaurant before."
"You know when she is doing something she ought not to do, such as meeting a married man for dinner, or something of that sort. She is so narrow that she gives herself away every time."
"Never trust the woman who kicks up her heels with her heel as she walks. She'll do you every time. The woman who moves her body a great deal as she walks is treacherous, too, and the woman who makes little, short, mincing steps, as if she were afraid to show her foot. She isn't on the level."
"Give me the woman who walks with head up, eyes front, shoulders square, and a long, swinging step. She is quite unconscious of what people will say or think, and she's a thorough, every time."

O-O-O!
The switchboard girl was particularly busy, and when "Central" said, "Number, please!" she said, in an unusually loud tone, "Main 46 ought ought."
"Oh! Oh!" said Central.
"What?" asked switchboard, uncon-prehendedly.
"Oh! Oh!" repeated Central. "We don't use 'ought' now at all. Kindly remember to say 'O' in future." The switchboard girl gasped, and a few minutes afterwards she called Central, and in response to a particularly snappy "Number, please!" said in her sweetest tones, "Main 5 Oh! Oh! Oh!" with a long pause between each interjection.

She was revenged. Central's wrath could be felt, and the switchboard girl wore a gratified smile all morning.

In Society.
Mr. A. Caldwell, 497 Euclid-avenue, sails to-day on a business trip to Europe.

Mrs. G. I. Taylor gave a delightful little dance for "not-outs" on Thursday night. Mrs. Taylor was gowned in rich black silk, while Miss Eileen Taylor wore a dainty pink frock, with innumerable rows of velvet ribbon, while Mrs.
Bailey was also gowned in black, with red roses.

Among the guests were Miss Sallie Martin, Miss Dorothy Aesde, Mr. Harold Reads, Miss Mary Darling, Miss Norma Armstrong, Miss and Mr. Fisher, Mr. Trevor Grover, Mr. Norman Taylor, Mr. Secord, Mr. Aubrey Secord, and Mr. Macintosh.

Miss Florence Kemp has issued invitations for a song recital at the Conservatory of Music Hall on Saturday evening, May 4.

The engagement is announced of Miss Agnes Cherry of Whitchurch to Mr.
Frederic J. Haywood of Toronto. The marriage will take place in May.

The honorary visitors to the Toronto General Hospital for the week commencing Sunday, April 28, are Messrs.
J. A. Murray and John Thomas Ryan.

What to Do With Our Girls.

dress cutting and fitting. It will enable them to make their own dresses equal to any first-class dressmaker. The Cana-

MOTHERS FEEL SAFE.
Mothers who have used Baby's Own Tablets for their little ones say they feel safe with the Tablets at hand, for they are a never-failing cure for all the minor ills of babyhood and childhood.
Mrs. Urias Cressman, New Hamburg, Ont., says:

"I have used Baby's Own Tablets for stomach trouble and constipation with marked success. I always feel that my little one is safe when I have a box of Baby's Own Tablets at home. Baby's Own Tablets are sold under the guarantee of a Government analyst to contain neither opiates nor other poisonous drugs. They always do good; they possibly do no harm. For sale at druggists, or by mail at 25 cents a box, from The Dr.
Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont." merely uneasy and half inclined to fight, a little frightened.

To the Scotchman's surprise she said that this man had been sent to her by a friend, with a recommendation; that he wished work, and that she would like to have him made busy among the flowers.
"I will have that little but down below the greenhouse prepared for him," she said. "And do not be hard with him at first. He is old and—and not too strong. Do not overburden him." The Scotchman looked upon the newcomer with ill-concealed disdain.
"I do not fit up to much for work, mean," he grumbled. "But 'I'll set him at the water' and such. He'll be better than mashing belike."
"Apart from that," she said, "do not let him wander away. His head is not —not quite right. In a day or two I shall make other arrangements. Understand. For the present he is to be carefully guarded."

To Be Continued.
Mr. Clare, M.P., Honored.
GALT, Ont., April 26.—(Special.)— There was an enthusiastic gathering of Conservatives in their clubrooms tonight, when an address was presented, to the local M. P., Mr. Clare, before his departure on a trip for the benefit of his health.

Husband Shares Estate.
Chancellor Boyd yesterday decided that the husband of the widow, one of the daughters of William Stansby, can claim one-half of the property, which should have gone to the wife under the terms of the will, if the other half goes to the brothers of deceased and their children.

CROUP IS DEADLY!
It must be stopped quickly. Nothing so sure as NERVILINE. Give it infernally and rub it on chest and throat—croup soon vanishes. No doctor can write a more effective remedy than NERVILINE, which reaches the trouble and cures quickly. The marvelous power of NERVILINE will surprise you; it's the best household remedy for coughs, colds, sore chest, croup and internal pain of every kind. Large bottles have been sold by all dealers for nearly fifty years at 25 cents. Don't forget NERviline when you go to the druggist's.

1883—Ladies' Gathered Skirt.
In Sweep Length, and with Five-Gored
Upper Part and Straight-Flounce
Lower Part.
Paris Pattern No. 1883.
All Seams Allowed.
This skirt is specially adapted to washable materials, as it has a beautiful sweep and hangs very softly. The upper part of the skirt is made in five gores, and is slightly full at the top.
This makes it especially pretty for thin material, where a drop skirt of another color may be used underneath, as it gives a shimmering sort of moire effect.
The pattern is in seven sizes—22 to 34 inches, waist measure. For 28 waist, the skirt requires 12 1/2 yards of material 20 inches wide, or 7 3/4 yards 36 inches wide, or 6 1/4 yards 42 inches wide.
Price of pattern, 10 cents.

MAY ACCEPT A TEN YEAR CONTRACT
OTTAWA, April 26.—(Special.)—Hon.
Adam Beck has advised the civic electric committee that the arrangement of a ten-year contract with the Hull Company is the best the hydro-electric commission can do. The local committee has considered this seriously, and in view of the pressure of public opinion will probably accept. Feeling its strength here, Mayor Scott and the committee have been anything but considerate of Mr. Beck and the trouble to which he has been put.

Attempts Suicide, Arrested.
Martin Seaman, 40 years, 536 Delaware-street, who took carbolic acid some weeks ago, and who has been confined to his bed ever since, is now recovered, and was last night arrested, to stand trial for the offense.

SUGGESTIONS

Nominations will not close until announced in The World.
Anyone anywhere can vote for any candidate who is properly nominated.
No extra papers will be printed for sale of coupons contained therein.
If you have any complaints to make kindly send them to The Toronto World Trip to London Editor. We want everybody to be satisfied.
A woman's home is where she eats and sleeps; a woman living and working in Toronto, but claiming residence elsewhere, must be entered in District No. 1.
It is easier to answer questions than to correct a mistake. Do not hesitate to ask questions that you want answered.
Be sure that you receive a receipt for all coupons left at the office. If you do not they will not be counted.
Any further information desired may be obtained by calling at The World Office, or by calling telephone Main 252 and asking for the Trip to London Editor.
Once entered, do not drop out.
Candidates may call on us at any time. We welcome you. Don't lose any votes. Watch the expiration dates on your ballots.
SPECIAL BALLOTS—The same instructions apply to the special ballots issued for paid-in-advance subscriptions.
USE YOUR FRIENDS—Hundreds of people have no personal friends in this contest. They are friends of your friends or of your friends' friends. If you have your friends working hard enough for you thousands of votes can be gathered in from just such people.

Ballot the interest of your friends and friends' friends. Use your telephone. If you have friends in other districts write them letters. If you learn of any persons who are not World readers—secure their subscription whether you know them or not. Work for special ballots, they count the most. Ask your political friends to furnish ideas. They know how to cover the field.
Special order blanks for subscriptions can be secured from The Toronto World Trip to London Editor. If you belong to a church let your church friends know you are running.
HOW TO GET VOTES—If you belong to any organization let your fellow members know you are in the race.
Don't knock the other candidates. Remember the Golden Rule.
Don't forget that children can do the most effective work in collecting coupons. Every little helps.
Should your father, brother or friends belong to any organizations, get them to work for you.
Do not let a day pass without casting a ballot. Success is the reward of persistence.
Cast your coupons in as large numbers as possible—this will save you time and trouble.

The World's Serial Story.

She had fallen into a sort of apathy. Neither terror nor dread clamored within her. Her mind no longer flashed with desperate swiftness, and she had no despair—no one futile loophole to another. It was almost as still as her torpor-stricken body. Vaguely she realized that this thing which had befallen was a thing long expected, that unconsciously she had been waiting for it to end that glory on the all-too-accidental day when she had realized that it was the price to be paid.
She knew that the full agony was still to come, that in this first hour flesh and spirit were being torn apart, and that in the thought she gave an odd little shiver of pity for the woman who was later on to suffer tortures. For the present the woman dwelt in a fog, a deadening vapor.
She looked at the bent, grey little man before her, and dully wondered what terrible adventures and trials he could have endured to bring him from the Heribert Buchanan of her memory to this shambling wreck whose past came to him in the guise of foolish fancies. "For to admit and for to see,
For to be'd this world so wide—
It never done no good to me, But I can't drop it if I tried!"
There's more to the song, but I've forgot. I ain't no good at remembering. You see, ma'am, it's like that. I'd be wading to get out on the road again."
"Only for a day or two," she urged again, and the little man rose with a sigh.
"I'd like the ten dollars," he said. "I mean twenty," and stood hesitating and shuffling his feet.
Beatrice rose quickly and led the way along the lane towards the farmer gate. The man followed her with lagging feet. The Russian hound marched solemnly at his heels. As they reached the house and skirted one wing of it to enter the garden, she watched his face, but there was no sign of recognition or of that old bewilderment. He seem-
